LOOK SHARP BEFORE YOU BUY!!

BY virtue of letters Patent granted to Cornelius Tobey of Hudson, County of Columbia, and State of New-York, by the President of the United States, bearing date the 7th of May, 1807, for his new improved Bark Mill for grinding bark:

NOW KNOW YE that I Luther Gale, of Lenox, county of Berkshire, Massachusetts, have purchased the sole and exclusive right & title of C. Tobey's patent Bark Mill for the states of New-York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Delaware, Virginia, North and South Carolina, Georgia, Ohio, Kentucky, and Tennessee, except what has been sold out previous to this date. Whereas William and J. Olds, of Merreden, and state of Connecticut, has been empowered by C. Tobey to sell Mills in the above states and Amos Trask, of Sangertfield, in the state of New-York, has been empowered to sell Mills in the Ohio by the said C. Tobey; this is to notify the public, that their power is legally revoked and is void, and their agents if they have any. And if any person or persons after this date and notice should purchase Mills of the said Olds or Trask, or their agents in the above territory, may be assured that they will be answerable to me for the right of usage, and if necessary will be proceeded against according as the law in such cases provides.

Gentlemen that are wanting Mills will be supplied by me, or my agents in the different states, with my patent Bark Mill or with Mr. Tobey's. Gentlemen will do well to examine the authority of those that offer Mills for sale. if they wish to avoid imposition. Gentlemen can have their Mills set up by my workmen in the best manner, or can be furnished with the castings.

LUTHER GALE.

New-York, Feb. 4.

NOW it has been stated in the public papers by Messrs. Wm. & J. Olds that Cornelius Tobey never sold his patent right to any man of the name of Luther Gale, and to corroborate this assertion a letter of Mr. Tobey's has been published, mentioning that he has not sold his said right to any man of that name. This may all be true; but it does not prove that Mr. Tobey has not sold his right to any other person, and that this was the case will be seen by the following authentic copies of conveyance to Jervis Webster; and therefore the above advertisement and warning has nothing but the truth—Luther Gale has been and still is the legal possessor of the patent right for the aforesaid states, by a conveyance from Jervis Webster.

Whereas I Cornelius Tobey, of Hudson, in the county of Columbia and state of New York, for a valuable consideration, have bargained and sold the whole and all my right and title which I have in my patent Bark Mill, for grinding of bark, corn and cob, unto Jervis Webster and to his heirs and assigns, to make, use and vend in the following states, to wit: N. Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, North and South Carolinas, and Georgia.

KNOW YE therefore, all whom it may concern, that I Cornelius Tobey as aforesaid, do grant, give and convey unto the said Jervis Webster, and to his heirs and assigns, my whole power and authority to make use, sell and dispose of my said patent Bark mill to others in the above mentioned states; and after giving notice of he said Jervis Webster's power of attorney to William and Jeremiah Olds and Amos Trask, I do hereby also revoke and make null and void all power or powers of attorney which I the said Cornelius Tobey have given unto the said William and Jeremiah Olds and Amos Trask, ratifying and confirming whatsoever my said attorney may lawfully do in and about the premises.—In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 39th day of December, 1813.
