

We have not been a little pleased with the native beauty and simplicity of the following sentimental little song - nor do we imagine the merits of the authoress will be wrongly estimated, while the writing of poems, on themes so sweetly interesting, particularly to her female readers, continues to be the employment of her muse. Her productions shall always be graciously received

FOR THE AMERICAN PATRIOT.

Mr. HAMILTON,

The following effusion is from the pen of a novice, who has had very little conference with the Muses.

The stile is simple, but still perhaps not rendered unworthy of a place in your paper.

Song—My Willy, O.

Let lords and ladies dress and prate
'Bout fashions and affairs of state,
I envy not their pleasures—no;
For all the pleasures they enjoy,
I would not give my charming boy,
My sweet, my lovely Willy, O—

Let misers hoard up gold in store,
And let them toil in gaining more,
I envy not their riches—no:
For riches have no pleasures sure,
When is wanting a heart as pure
As that of my sweet Willy, O.

The' he has not at his command,
Titles, riches to make him grand,
Can I refrain from loving? No.
In an humble Cot I'd pass my life,
Yes—rather than not be the wife,
Of lovely, charming Willy, O.

For sure a heart ne'er was more true,
In virtue, there excel him few;
Now, can I cease to love him? No.
Then come my Willy true and dear—
With such a friend what need I fear?
'Tis Heaven with my Willy, O.

FOR THE AMERICAN PATRIOT.

(By request.)

Says Teague, dear Tom, pray let me know
The meaning of ex post facto?
For some don't hesitate to say,
Our Legislators for more pay,
The constitution in this point
Did break, or put it out of joint;
Contrary to a solemn oath
To shield, or save it from them both.
Said Tom, the sense is easy taking—
'Tis nothing, but from after making:
Quit plain, for instance: post meridie
Is afternoon, as you may see.
I comprehend it now, Teague said,
No law can take place after made;
Therefore, they had much wit in store,
Made it take place two months before.

Preparing for the Press,
A WORK, TO BE ENTITLED,
THE TWO CAMPAIGNS,

Being a detail, of the events of the war, by sea and land, from its commencement to the first of January 1814, price half bound, fifty cents each copy, of 96 pages, 12 mo.

The continued demand for the "First year's war" has rendered a second edition necessary. It is therefore intended to extend it to the end of the second campaign, under the above title.

It will be forwarded, by the mail in sheets, at thirty and a half cents each copy.

Distant printers, who wish to publish the above work, may have permission for that purpose, on very liberal terms, by application to the "editor of the Military Monitor New York"

LABORERS WANTED.

Good wages will be given to a number of industrious, sober men for clearing land, working in the Coal Mine. &c. &c. It will not be so material to the employer whether he pays them every day, after the work is done, or by the week. Any person of the above description, will meet with good encouragement by applying to the undersigned at Little Moshanon Establishment on the north side of the West Branch of the Susquehanna.

HERRMAN YOUNG.

P. S. Good roads have been opened from Milesburg across; and also from Philipsburg and Clearfield to the above establishment. Store-goods and provisions are always kept for the accommodation of people employed.

20 DOLLARS

REWARD.

Deserted this day, June 1, from the Rendezvous at Bellefonte,

DAVID THARE,

A private in the 4th Rifle Regt. born in Duches county, state of New York, and by profession a Shoemaker. He is full six feet high, about thirty nine years old—complexion very dark, sharp nose, black eyes, and dark hair; was enlisted on the 24th ult. at Mill Hall, in this county. His clothes (having none belonging to the United States) cannot be minutely described. He had on a light grey long coat with large gilt buttons, a pair of coarse Home-made tow trousers, cross-barred, and a pair of half boots, very short and old.

It is earnestly hoped that all citizens favorable to the interests of their country, will make use of some exertions to ensure his apprehension; as every recent desertion appears purposely to defraud government. There are now upwards of one thousand deserters running at large, so that every suspicious character ought to be taken up and strictly examined.

Whoever apprehends said deserter, shall receive the above Reward, & all reasonable expences for securing, or delivering him into the custody of any United States officer.

WM. G. GREEN, Capt. 4th. R. R.
Bellefonte, June 1, 1814.

20 DOLLARS

REWARD.

DESERTED on the night of the 24th instant, from the Rendezvous at Bellefonte,

JAMES KASCADEN,

A private in the 4th Rifle Regiment, twenty one years old, six feet, one inch high; yellow complexion, dark eyes and dark hair, and by profession a laborer. His clothing (not having uniform) cannot well be recollected further than his having a Wool Hat, Home-made Trowsers, and it is believed a Roundabout or Coat.

It is earnestly hoped that citizens will exert themselves in apprehending said deserter. He enlisted on Saturday last, and his premature desertion induces a belief that he may probably again enlist, to defraud the United States. He said he was born in Northumberland county, Pennsylvania.

Any person apprehending said deserter shall receive the above reward, and all reasonable expences paid for delivering him into the hands of any officer of the United States Army.
