

Ketchum, together with one of his aids, the other being killed.

It would be impossible to put the action of the 25th on paper. Considering the numbers engaged, the history of modern wars will scarcely produce a parallel. The admiration of this nation will follow those who fought, those who bled, and those fell, to their graves;—their names will be justly added to that brilliant catalogue of worthies, the heroes of the revolution: and the battle of Bridgewater, will be remembered by posterity, with the same sensations as those of bunker Hill and Saratogo Major General Brown was severely wounded in the thigh (besides a contusion on his body,) in the hottest of the action, but continued to command until the enemy retreated. Brig. general Scott was also severely wounded by a grape shot in the shoulder, besides a severe bruise occasioned by a shell or cannon shot, having lost two horses killed. Col. Brady, 22d infantry, Majors Jessup, 25th, Leavenworth 9th, M'Niel 11th, brig maj. Smith, lieut. Campbell and Smouck,artil. Lt. Worth, aid to gen. Scott, lieut. Camp, 11th, together with many others, whose name, we have not learnt, were wounded, some badly.

The loss of the enemy in killed and wounded, was rising eight hundred, exclusive of 200 regulars, and 20 officers prisoners. Our loss in killed, wounded and missing is from 6 to 700. Major M-Farland, 23d capt. Ritchie, artil. Captains Kinney and Goodwin, Lt. Bigelow, inf. and several other officers, killed; capt. Spencer, aid to major gen. Brown, supposed to be mortally wounded; major Staunton, of New York volunteers, and adj. Pew, Pa. volunteers, killed. The 9th, 11th and 25th, suffered very severely.

The enemy's troops who made a dash at Lewistown, drove away the guard under Swift, took a small quantity of baggage, and the effects of several sutlers, killed one of the volunteers, and re-crossed the river, and some of them were in the action.

Sackett's Harbor, July 19.

Sir James Yeo is waiting off the Ducks, about 20 miles from this, and it is believed with a view to give immediate battle, before Commodore Chauncey, who is quite unwell, shall have time to practice his men.

Boston, July 27.

A report has reached town, that Newport was taken by the British, but it is not credited.

FROM HALIFAX.

We have Halifax papers to the 18th inst. The English June packet had arrived there bringing London dates to the 8th of June; which are no later than those in the Paris papers.

They state the arrival there of the United States brig Rattle-snake, of 14 guns, captain Renshaw, a prize to the Leander of 50 guns, captured on her return from a cruise in which she had taken and sunk a British brig and a schooner.

All the neutral vessels in Halifax, were ordered to leave that port by the 14th, but owing to strong representations of the masters and agents against it, the government at length consented to relax the order, on condition of their anchoring on the Dartmouth shore and remaining there until further orders.

CAPTURE OF EASTPORT.

The capture of Eastport, on Moose Island, in Maine, is fully confirmed. Commodore Hardy, by proclamation, invites the inhabitants to take the following oath of allegiance, or quit the Island, with their property, in seven days.

"I swear that I will bear allegiance to King George the 2d, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and to his heirs and successors; and that I will not directly or indirectly, bear arms against him, his heirs or successors, either by sea or land. So help me God."

We learn that about two thirds of the inhabitants had taken the oath, and were pursuing their customary business. The laws of the United States were to continue in force. Since the capture some reinforcements have arrived.

But little publick property was found there: though a considerable quantity of dry goods, seized for a breach of blockade had been detained. One vessel from St. Johns had arrived, loaded with lumber, and returned.

We learn, that brigadier general Brewer has communicated to his excellency the commander in chief the following letter from the British commander in New Brunswick:

(Copy)

St. Andrews, 12th July, 1814

Sir—I am directed by his excellency Major general sir John Sherbrook to make the following communication to the inhabitants of Robbinstown, and elsewhere on the main land:

That the object of the British government is to obtain possession of the Islands of Passamaquoddy Bay in consequence of their being considered our boundary line: that they have no intention of carrying on offensive operations against the people residing on the continent, unless their conduct should oblige us to resort to the measure; and in the event of their remaining quiet, they will not be disturbed either in their property or persons. Have the honor to be your most obedient and humble servant.

J. FITZHERBERT, Lt. Col. Com

John Brewer, Esq. Robbinstown.

Extract of a letter from Machias—

"We are at length tranquil, as we have confident assurances that the British will not advance westward of Moose Island. Rely on this."

The British have burnt Calvert County Court House, and are in quiet possession of Leonard town: the capital of St. Mary's county (Md). They have also destroyed property to a considerable amount elsewhere in the neighborhood of those places.

Buffalo, e July 12.

On Friday afternoon, general Brown caused a bridge to be thrown across Chippewa creek, about two miles from the mouth; the enemy while the bridge was preparing, took up several peices of artillery, and fired on the bridge party; a battery which had been previously planted, was opened upon them and after a few shots they retreated—the enemy evacuated his fortifications, and, as it is said, has entered Fort George and Niagara On Saturday morning general Brown having crossed Chippewa, pursued the enemy and halted at Queenstown. We learn that on Sunday morning the army moved from Queenstown and marched for the vicinity of Fort George.

HUNTINGDON, JULY 29.

BATTLE AT CHIPPEWA. Captain Joseph Henderson, of this place, who was in the battle at Chippewa, writes to his Brother under date of the 11th instant, from Queenstown; that he had got off safe, although a shell from the enemy, had burst so near him that a part of it knocked off his hat. He had five of his company killed, and 14 wounded—one third of his command in the engagement.

OF

HUMILIATION, FASTING AND PRAYER,

APPOINTED BY THE

GENERAL ASSEMBLY

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

THAT WHEREAS Fasting is a known duty of christianity and sanctioned by the exmple of the Lord, and of the Church in all ages:—Whereas during the past season several parts of our country have been visited with various Judgements, whereby multitudes of our fellow citizens have been involved in sorrow, and many have been brought down to death; and whereas Sin which is the procuring cause of all calamities, still greatly abounds in our land—there fore, Resolved, 1st. That we as a people are loudly called to humble ourselves under the mighty hand of God, and to repent in dust and ashes.

2. That it be recommended to all the churches under our care to observe the THIRD THURSDAY OF AUGUST NEXT, AS A DAY OF FASTING, HUMILIATION AND PRAYER:—

And, on that occasion, that we do unitedly confess our sins before Almighty God, and in the name of the Great Redeemer, implore his pardoning mercy, and sanctified use of all the dispensations of his Providence,—that we supplicate the Throne of Grace for a plenteous effusion of the Holy Spirit, a revival of real religion throughout all the Churches—the blessing of God upon our beloved country, and that he fill the world with glory.

And, inasmuch as it has pleased God in several parts of our country, in a great degree, to mitigate the strokes of his wrath, and moreover in many glorious instances to grant a season of refreshing from his presence, whereby the hearts of his children have been made glad, and their graces revived, and by which many precious souls have been hapily brought into covenant with God—it is recommended, that, with our petitions, we mingle praise and thanksgiving for such manifestations of the tender mercies and loving kindness of the Lord.
