REPORT OF MAJOR MORGAN.

Fort Erie, August 5th, 1814. SIR,

Having been stationed, with the first battallion of the first regiment of riflemen at Black Rock, on the evening of the 2d inst. I observed the British army moving up the river on the opposite shore, and suspected they might make a feint on Fort Erie, with an intention of a real attack on the Buffaloe side. I immediately moved and took a position on the upper side of Conjecta Creek, and that night threw up a battery of some logs which I found on the ground and had the bridge torn away. About two o'clock the next morning, my piquits from below gave me information of the landing of nine boats full of troops half a mile below. I immediately got my men (240 in number) to their quarters, and patiently waited their approach. At a quarter past four they advanced upon us, and commenced the attack, sending a party before to repair the bridge, under the cover of their fire. When they had got at good rifle distance, I opened a heavy fire upon them, which laid a number of them on the ground, and compelled them to retreat They then formed in the skirt of the wood, and kept up the fight at long shot continually reinforcing from the Canada shore, until they had 23 boat loads, and then attempted to flank us by sending a large body up the creek to ford it, when a detached lieutenants Ry. an, Smith and Armstrong, with about 60 men, to appose their left wing, where they were again repulsed with considerable loss-after which they appeared disposed to give up their object, and retreated by throwing six boat loads on Squaw Island which enfiladed the creek, and prevented me from harrassing their rear. Their superior numbers enabled them to take their killed and wounded off the field, which we plainly saw, and observed they suffered severely. We found some of their dead thrown into the river, und covered with logs and stones, and some on the field. We also collected a number of muskets and accoutrements, with clothing that appeared to have been torn to bind their wounds. We took six prisoners, who stated the British force opposed to us to consist of from 12 to 1500 men, commanded by lieutenant colonel Tucker, of the 41st regiment. They also state that their object was to re-capture general Riall, with the other British prisoners, and destroy the public stores deposited at Buffaloe. The action continued about 2 hours and a half. I am happy to state that they were completely foiled in their attempts. Our loss is trifling compared with theirs---we had two killed and eight wounded. I am sorry to inform you that captain Hamilton, lieutenants Wadsworth and Milntosh are among the latter. Their gallantry in exposing themselves to encourage their men I think entitles them to the notice of their country. My whole command behaved in a manner that merited my warmest approbation-and, in justice to them, I cannot avoid mentioning the names of the officers, which are as follows :---- Captain Hamilton, lieutenants Wadsworth, Ryan, Calhoun, Mintosh, Arnold, Shortridge, M'Farland, Tipton, Armstrong, Smith Cobbs, Davidson, and Austin, with ensign Page.

If, Sir, you believe we have done our duty, we shall feel highly gratified.

I am, sir, respectfully, your obedient ser-

Colonel J. Miller, of the 31st infantry,

OBITUARY.

On the 16th instant Charles M. Morris, sen of Joseph S. Morris, of this city, (brewer) was accidentally drowned in the river Delaware, off the bar opposite the city whither he had gone to bathe.

The deceased was a youth of uncommon promise---his natural dispositions were truly amiable, and his talents were of the higher order---he had nearly completed his classical education, under the direction of one of the ablest teachers in Philadelphia, and while his attainments gave ample proof of his assiduity in the prosecution of his studies, they reflected great credit on learning and care of his Preceptor.

But just at the period when parental fondness was about to look for the fruit of its labors, the object of affectionate solicitude has, by an afflicting dispensation of unerring wisdom, been suddenly removed from the present state of existence, ere he had completed his 17th year.

Although his manly form and vigorous health might, according to human prospects, have led to the expectation of length of days ---yet, in his death we receive an other solemn proof of the uncertainty of human
