

ANECDOTE.

Mr. Holt, (printer,) set up a newspaper in New York, one of his earliest subscribers happened to be a person from the vicinity of Albany, who was rich, but well known to be of a narrow, penurious disposition. At the end of the first year the printer sent him the account of the yearly subscription, requesting that it might be discharged by the first opportunity. No answer however came; & things ran on in the same manner for the term of eighteen years, at the conclusion of which time Mr. Holt, as may well be supposed, being out of all patience with his customer, had the whole amount made out and sent to him, adding at the foot thereof, that if it was not paid, he would discontinue sending any more newspapers.

The subscriber having read over the account when presented, exclaimed with a disdainful sneer, 'What an ungrateful fellow have I to deal with! I was one of the very first that encouraged his paper by subscribing and that is the return he makes me.'

20 DOLLARS

REWARD.

DESERTED on the night of the 24th instant, from the Rendezvous at Bellefonte, JAMES KASCADEN,

A private in the 4th Rifle Regiment, twenty one years old, six feet, one inch high, yellow complexion, dark eyes and dark hair, and by profession a laborer. His clothing (not having uniform) cannot well be recollected further than his having a Wool Hat, Home-made Trowsers, and it is believed a Roundabout or Coatee.

It is earnestly hoped that citizens will exert themselves in apprehending said deserter. He enlisted on Saturday last, and his premature desertion induces a belief that he may probably again enlist, to defraud the United States. He said he was born in Northumberland county, Pennsylvania.

Any person apprehending said deserter shall receive the above reward, and all reasonable expences paid for delivering him into the hands of any officer of the United States Army.

WM. G. GREEN, Capt. 4th R. R.
Bellefonte, May 28, 1814.

20 DOLLARS

REWARD.

Deserted this day, June 1, from the Rendezvous at Bellefonte,

DAVID THARE,

A private in the 4th Rifle Regt. born in Duches county, state of New York, and by profession a Shoemaker. He is full six feet high, about thirty nine years old—complexion very dark, sharp nose, black eyes, and dark hair; was enlisted on the 24th ult. at Mill Hall, in this county. His clothes (having none belonging to the United States) cannot be minutely described. He had on a light grey long coat with large gilt buttons, a pair of coarse Home-made tow trowsers, cross-barred, and a pair of half boots, very short and old.

It is earnestly hoped that all citizens favorable to the interests of their country, will make use of some exertions to ensure his apprehension, as every recent desertion appears purposely to defraud government. There are now upwards of one thousand deserters running at large, so that every suspicious character ought to be taken up and strictly examined.

Whoever apprehends said deserter, shall receive the above Reward, & all reasonable expences for securing or delivering him into the custody of any United States' officer.

WM. G. GREEN, Capt. 4th. R. R.
Bellefonte, June 1, 1814.
