

militia and light troops. The enemy then took possession of the village, and have since been exchanging shots with our batteries, which are on the east side of the Saranac.

General Macomb is under no apprehension of their getting immediate possession of the works, although his force is far inferior to that of the enemy.

BRAVE, PATIOTIC, AND FREE CITIZENS OF VERMONT! Now is the time to volunteer your services in defence of your country. Repair to the scene of action—and convince the enemy that the soil of freemen is sacred—that it must not, shall not, be polluted with impunity.

FIFTY DOLLARS

REWARD.

Deserted from the Rendezvous at Bellefonte this day, (Tuesday 20th September) between the hours of 1 and 2 P. M. an enlisted Soldier in the 4th Regiment of Riflemen, who calls himself

WILLIAM BROWN,

Twenty one years old, about 5 feet 9 1/2 inches high, light complexion, fair hair, blue eyes, and by profession it is believed, a House Carpenter. He states that he served his apprenticeship at Shippensburg, in this state, and that his father resides about three miles from Carlisle. He is supposed to be an artful fellow and strong suspicions are entertained of his honesty.

The clothing he took with him were a Rifle Cap complete, Rifle Frock and a pair of white cotton Pantaloon furnished by the United States. From the information I have been able to obtain, it is certain that he has a citizen's Long Coat with him, with plated buttons. The colour of the Coat it is believed, is a dark brown.

He had also in his possession, a few hours before he was missed, two double-cased silver watches; the one old fashioned, and attached to the other a square silver key, with the initials J. M. engraved on it, and it is supposed Bedford notes to the amount of 30 or 40 dollars.

Persons are cautioned against aiding or harboring said deserter, as the law will be strictly enforced against them.

It is to be hoped that all good citizens will make use of some exertions to ensure his apprehension, for in times like the present, the crime of desertion ought to be ranked amongst those of the blackest cast; and, independent of this, certainly no friend of his country can countenance such presumptuous fraud.

I will, with pleasure, give the above reward for his apprehension, and all reasonable charges shall be paid, if delivered to me here, or to any other officer belonging to the Army of the United States.

The law against harboring deserters runs thus:

"Sec. 17. And be it further enacted, That every person, not subject to the rules and articles of war, who shall procure or entice a soldier, in the service of the United States, to desert; or who shall purchase from any soldier, his arms, uniform clothing, or any part thereof; and every captain or commanding officer of any ship or vessel, who shall enter on board such ship or vessel as one of his crew, knowing him to have deserted, or otherwise carry away any such soldier, or shall refuse to deliver him up to the orders of his commanding officer, shall, upon legal conviction, be fined at the discretion of any court having cognizance of the same, in any sum not exceeding three hundred dollars and be imprisoned any term not exceeding one year."
