

From the London Gazette of July 30.

By H. R. Highness the Prince of Wales, Regent of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the name and on the behalf of his Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION,

For recalling and prohibiting his majesty's natural born subjects from serving in the sea or land forces of the United States of America.

GEORG, P. R.

Whereas by the ancient law of this realm founded upon the principles of general law the natural born subjects of His Majesty cannot, either by swearing allegiance to any other Princes or States, either alone or concurring with their own, discharge themselves, or be discharged from the natural allegiance which, from their birth, they owe to his majesty, his heirs and heirs and successors, which natural allegiance being antecedant and paramount to any other claim of allegiance whatsoever, cannot, by these or any other such acts, be withdrawn or cancelled:

And whereas it hath been represented to us, that divers of the natural born subjects of his Majesty have accepted letters of naturalization, or certificates of citizenship, from the United States of America, and have sworn allegiance to the said States, & professed to renounce the natural allegiance which they owe, and must continue to owe, to his Majesty, his heirs & successors, and have, in violation of such natural allegiance, engaged by sea and land, in hostile and traitorous acts against his Majesty;

And whereas some of the said natural born subjects of his majesty may have been induced so to act, from an erroneous persuasion & belief, which they may have been led to entertain, that their duty of natural allegiance was capable of being dissolved or withdrawn from his majesty, his heirs and successors; we have therefore thought fit, in the name of and behalf of his majesty, and by and with the advice of his majesty's privy council, to issue this Proclamation, hereby warning all the natural born subjects of his majesty, that the natural allegiance which they owe, and of right ought to bear and pay, to his majesty, his heirs and successors, cannot, either by their own acts, or by the acts of any foreign Princes or States, either alone, or concurrent with their own, be dissolved or withdrawn from his Majesty, his heirs or successors; And we have further thought fit, in the name and on the behalf of his majesty, and by and with the advice aforesaid, in consideration that some of the said natural born subjects of his majesty, may, through delusion of error, have so acted as aforesaid, by this Proclamation, to publish and declare, that all such the natural born subjects of his majesty who having so acted shall, within four months from the date hereof, withdraw themselves from the service of the United States, shall receive his majesty's gracious pardon:— And we do moreover, in the name and on the behalf of his majesty, and by and with the advice aforesaid, hereby also publish & declare, that all natural born subjects of his majesty who shall hereafter voluntarily enter, or having entered shall voluntarily continue to serve in the land forces, or on board any of the ships or vessels of war of the said United States of America, or in the private ships or vessels of war belonging to the citizens of the said States at enmity with his majesty, being thereby guilty of high treason, shall be punished with the utmost severity of the law.

Given at the Court at Carlton-house, the twenty third day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, in the fifty fourth year of his majesty's reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

It is reported that Beauharnois is to have the city of Treves and a part of the ancient Electorate.

Bonaparte's mother set out on the 27th of July, for the island of Elba.

Bonaparte has hoisted his flag at the island of Elba, which is a white ground with red border, a blue field, with three bees in the centre.

Extract of a letter from Sackett's Harbor, dated, Oct. 7th.

"The enemy's ship is ready for sea, excepting that her sails are not bent, which it is expected they will be by the 12th. She is a large vessel of 102 guns; her lower deck thirty-four 32 pounders, has 62 pound caronades on her upper deck besides other guns. It will be impossible for our fleet to withstand the enemy on the lake. Probably the first object of the enemy will be to relieve Drummond's army, which is in great want of supplies. Bread is said to be a dollar a pound with them. The enemy made an attempt to send supplies up to them by two ships some days since, but they were driven back by Chauncey.

"It is expected an attack will be made by sea and land in a few days. The enemy is assembling his forces at Kingston for that purpose. Drummond it is said, will lead the attack by land.

"The harbor is completely surrounded by breast works and entrenchments, and every preparation making to give the foe a warm reception. A large additional militia force has been called out, and is repairing to the harbor with alacrity.

Albany, Oct. 11.

From Buffalo, we have had no mail since Friday; that due on Sunday not having come to hand.

A letter from an officer, dated Williamsville 1st instant, says, Gen. Izard has arrived with 4,500 men, and the army are on a move to follow the enemy who have retreated, and it is said are fortifying at Chippawa & Queenstown." The letter adds that the gallant major Birdsall is recovering from his wounds.

The House of Representatives have passed, after a debate of more than usual pith and brevity, a resolution directing the Military Committee to inquire into the expediency of granting to each deserter from the enemy an hundred acres of Public Land, on condition he shall settle the same.

We are glad to find that it is at length proposed to bestow the well earned thanks of their
