R. T. STEWART, P. M.

Oct. 11.

From the west we learn nothing of importance. Gen. Izard has arrived at Lewiston with his forces.— The British are said to be at Chippawa.— About 700 regular troops arrived at Erie from Detroit and Erie, on the 6th inst.

Col. Fenwick's regiment of the light artillery, about 450 men passed through this village yesterday, on their way to the western frontier.

Ontario Repos.

Buffalo Gazette.
Oct. 17.

Col. Smith, with the 17th infantry, and colonel Ball, with a detachment of light dragoons, have joined gen. Brown's army.

The army of gen. Izard has been encamped at Lewiston a few days past.

Report says that gen Brown has brok'n up with his army from his entrenchment at Erie, & joined gen Izard at Lewiston, and that some important operations may be hourly expected.

Boston Palladium.

It is said that at a dinner at Ghent, after the negotiation had commenced, Mr. Adams gave as a toast, "May the ship never be given up."

William Newton, Esq. of Halifax, is appointed by the British collector of the customs at Castine! It is said the London Courier gives, in strong terms, on the part of the British government, a disavowal of Admiral Cochrane's proclamation, inviting Americans to join him.

Appointment by the Governor.

George H. Hunter Esq. late major of the 32d. regiment United States infantry to be Deputy Adjutant General of the first division of Pennsylvania militia in the service of the U. S.

Thomas Sergeant to be a President Judge of the district court of the city and county of Philadelphia.
