LEGISLATIVE REGISTER.

Many of our subscribers have expressed a desire to see a regular narrative of proceedings, in our state legislature. For the information of such persons, and of the public in general, we give information; that a capable hand has been employed for that purpose; and that the legislative proceedings will be weekly, and faithfully registered in the Chronicle. Three or four columns of every sheet will be devoted to that department.—To give the debates at length is not the intention. If however, debates on general and important points do take place, some of the speeches will be given in full.

The editor invites such as wish to have the legislative proceedings, to attend to it early that there may be no breach in the narrative. Subscriptions for the Chronicle will be taken for 4 months, at 75cts. to be paid in advance.

NOTICE

IS HEREBY GIVEN, That by an act of Congress entitled "An act to provide additional revenues for defraying the expenses of government, and maintaining the public credit, by duties on sales at auction, and on licenses to retail wines spirituous liquors, and foreign merchandize, and for increasing the rates of postage," passed the 23d December, 1814, an additional duty of one hundred per centum on sales at auction and an additional duty of 50 per centum on licenses to retailers are laid, to take effect from the 1st day of February 1815 conformably to which act, that can be inspected at this office, new obligations are imposed on auctioneers, and the said additional duty on licenses to retailers, is to be paid on written application to be made by them, as well by those who have obtained licenses for periods extending beyond the 1st day of February, 1815, as by others, in the way therein prescribed, agreeably to forms which can be obtained from the Collector.—Given under my hand this 9th day of January, 1815.

Wm. H. PATTERSON,

Collector of the Revenue for the 19th
Collection District of Pennsylvania.

Potter's Mills, 9th January, 1815.

NOTICE

IS HEREBY GIVEN, That agreeably to the act of Congress, entitled "An act to provide additional revenues for defraying the expenses of Government and maintaining public credit by laying duties on spirits distilled within the United States and territories thereof, and by amending the act laying duties on licenses to distillers of spirituous liquors, passed December 21, 1814, every person who shall after the first day of February, 1815, distill spirits, within the United States, is required, in addition to the duty on the licence already taken, or hereafter to be taken by him to pay twenty cents a gallon on all spirits distilled after that day, or subject to the limitation in the said act expressed, to pay twenty five cents a gallon on all such spirits, in which case no licence is required to be taken, and that agreeably to the said act a bond is required previous to the said day, to be given to the collector, and other duties required to be performed under penalties therein prescribed.

That the distiller may be correctly advised of the duties incumbent on him to discharge, an abstract of the several acts of Congress subjecting stills and boilers, and spirits to duty, has been prepared a copy of which with annexed forms of statements required from a distiller, will be furnished to him by the Collector on demand. The Collector will also furnish blank bonds, and such other blanks as will enable the distiller to comply with the several provisions of law.

AN ORDINANCE FOR THE FURTHER PROTECTION OF HOUSES FROM FIRE.

SEC. 1. Be it ordained and enacted by the Town Council of the Borough of Belleville, and it is hereby ordained and enacted by the authority of the same, That the owner or owners of all and every dwelling house now built, or which hereafter may be built within the bounds of the said Borough shall furnish the same with two leather fire buckets; which buckets shall be placed in the entry or such other part of the house as shall be most easy of access and be marked with the owners name or the initials thereof; and shall be kept in good repair for using at all times in cases of fire.

SEC. 2. And be it ordained and enacted, that should the owner or owners of any such house, or houses, now built, or that hereafter may be erected and built within the limits of the said borough, neglect or refuse on or before the first day of April next, or within three months next after any such house may be hereafter built, and occupied to furnish and provide the buckets as aforesaid, such person or persons so neglecting or refusing, being thereof convicted before some Justice of the peace in and for the county of Centre, shall forfeit and pay the sum of seven Dollars with costs of prosecution, to be recovered at the suit of the burgess, assistant burgess and town council of the borough of Belleville, which fines or forfeitures when recovered, shall be paid over to the treasurer of the borough for the use of the same. And the houses so neglected to be furnished by the owners thereof, shall as soon as conveniently may be thereafter, be furnished with two buckets as aforesaid at the expense of the said borough.

SEC. 3. And be it ordained and enacted that it shall be the duty of the High Constable to visit each and every dwelling house within the limits of said borough, within ten days next preceding the last Saturday in the months of February, May, September, & December, yearly; and examine whether the provisions of these ordinances are complied with, so far as respects the fire buckets being in their proper place and in good repair, and make information of every default before some Justice of the peace in and for Centre County, so that the same may be prosecuted and every person or persons being the inhabitant or tenant in possession of such house or houses at the time such default is made, in keeping the buckets aforesaid in their proper places and in good repair, and being convicted thereof on the information aforesaid, shall forfeit and pay a fine or forfeiture of not more than five nor less than one dollar for the use of the said borough.

SEC. 4. Be it ordained and enacted, That the ordinance heretofore passed for the protection of houses from fire, (so far as relates to providing buckets,) be and the same is hereby repeated.
