COL. WOODBINE.

A passenger in yesterday's southern stage informs that he saw a letter in Savannah from gen. McIntosh to gen. Floyd stating that the former had encountered colone. Woodbine, with his purple-colored rable, and given them, as Cobbitt would say, 'a good drubbing.' Indeed, he is said literally to have annihilated them. The passenger who furnished this intelligence is a gentleman of respectability and veracity. The southern mail of this morning will no doubt furnish further and interesting particulars on the subject.

The British prisoners taken on Sunday last in the affair of John's island, were landed in this city yesterday morning and marched to goal, escorted by a detachment of the drafted militia.

"Events of the War."

Much complaint and dissatisfaction seemed to prevail among many of the subscribers to this work, on account of the detention of the books, before they came to hand; but since that, little or no inquiry has been made about them. The publisher has been at a very great expense in the printing of them, and expects to be remunerated in no other way than by their sale; it is therefore, hoped, that those who have been so generous as to subscribe, will call for their respective copies, and take them; and after that, pay for them.
