BUSINESS ITEMS.

IT In another column it will be seen that a valuable farm, near New Washington, is offered at private sale, by Mr. JOHN SHETTER. This is a good piece of land, in a good locality, and possesses excellent and commodious improvements. See card.

The 'Corporal' in his perigrinatius a few days since, while searching for the 'Know Nothings,' observed a crowd pouring into the room next door to the Journal office. Of course he followed, but discovered the cause of attraction to be a splendid and cheap assortment of boots and shoes, recently opened there by C. S. BLACK. From the excellent quality of his work, the Corporal' come to the conclusion that CHARLEY did'nt belong to the Order.

It will be seen that D. W. ROBBINS & Co., at Lumber city, have dissolved partnership. The Books and accounts are in the hands of D. W. Robbins for settlement.

By reference to the Brigade Orders, in another column, it will be seen that an election is to be held for Major, in place of THOS. II. Fulton, deceased. We hope they may get as good a man to fill the station, as our lamented

M. A. FRANK Esq, informs his friends and the public, that he has removed his business stand two doors east of the Journal office, in Graham's Row, where he will be happy to attend to those who may give him a call.

17 If any of our friends have legal business to transact in Philadelphia, they cannot place it in better hands, than our friend WASH, L. BLADIN, Esq., whose card may be found in another column. He is a good lawyer and a clever fellow, and will do full justice to his clients. Office No. 66 South 6th St.

We request the attention of our readers to the eard of Hughes & Invin in another column, the proprietors of the Tyrone City Hotel. Give them a call, when you visit Tyrone, if you wish to be well treated, and get acquainted with a couple of elever fellows.

We see by a card in another part of our paper, that our friend HARTSHORN, whom we announced sometime since as having retired to private life, has again launched his craft, at Lumber City. HARTSHORN & McCRAKEN, are a pair of "sound eggs," as the boys say, and

The new System adopted by Mossor & Potrarer of selling goods at city prices, has succeeded admirably, although they purchesed the largest stock ever befor brought to the county, and recruted several times since spring, the demand has still exceeded the supply. They are again getting on a new and splended assortment which they will offer for sale on the same terms.

By refference to another column it will be seen that the partnership heretofore existing between GEO W. ORR & JOHN KLINGER, has been dissolved. The buisness will still be carried on as usual by Mr. Orr and the books are in his hands for collection.

There is a tremendous excitement now at Ulman's, Clothing Store, next door to the office of L. J. Crans Esq. Mover is selling off at cost, and the low price of his goods has alarmed all our tailors, and dealers in ready made clothing. If you want a cheap suit, call immediately.

Many of our readers, find it difficult to obtain at all times, certain drugs and medicines at home, and will therefore be gratified to learn that by sending to Tyrone they can procure them at the Store of DR. JAMES M MARTIN. Se card in another column.

Blacksmith's will see by a notice in another column, that a good shop, and complete set of tools, can be had of HURXTHALL & BRO., at their mills, about six miles from this place. This is one of the best locations in the country.

In another column will be found the advertisement of our friend Mr. D. S. PLOTNER who has opened a Hotel at New Washington. Having had occasion to stop with Mr, Plotner, a few days since, we can most heartily recommend his house to the traveling community .-No pains are spared to render visiters comfortable, and his table would be a modal for some other hotels we wot of.

[From the St. Leuis Intelligencer, August 8.] FEARFUL ELECTION RIOT IN ST. LOUIS.

Three Men Killed .-- Large Number Wounded ---From Fifty to Sixty Houses Destroyed.

Monday (election day) was a time of unusual excitement and bloody riet in St. Louis. The difficulty commenced in the Fifth Ward, and was occasioned by an Irishman stabbing an American. This was the signal for a gene ral attack, which was commenced upon the Irish doggeries on Mayor and Green streets, and Washington avenue, and on the whole front of the Levee, from Cherry street to below Locust street.

The erowd supplied themselves with axes and other implements of the sort, from the steamboats at the wharf, and with them beat in the shutters and smashed the counters and everything that would yield to blows. On the Levee, between Cherry and Locust streets, there are only one or two houses at most, that do not bear disastrous marks of the conflict; at Locust street the damage stopped.

We could only learn with certainty of one death. It is rumored that there are four or five killed. The number of the wounded we have no means of estimating. From the reports rife on the spot, and from the fact that hundreds of discharges were heard during the course of the row, which raged a good two hours in all its fury, and has continued at intervals thus far during the night, it is fair to presume that the number is large.

We have been able, up to the present time to obtain with certainty only the following

Joseph Arnot or Arnold, a Frenchman, working on the canal boat Burlington, and just arrived from Chicago, killed. He was not in the affray, and was shot down almost immediately on leaving the boat to see what was going on. Jackson Fowler, mate, was shot in the left

James Russell, pilot, was shot in the arm. A man whose name we did not learn, received a stab in the back, under the left arm, the point of the weapon coming out at the left

Wounded men were constantly borne up from the Levee to Broadway, during the time of the fight, and such terror reigned in the neighborhood that the stores of Broadway and on Fourth street, for some distance down, were closed and remained closed during the afternoon and evening. The greatest excitement prevails at the time of writing. There is talk on the streets of a project to attack the College, which probably has its origin in the heated imaginations of some terrifled Irishmen. The office of the Anzeiger has already been once attacked with stones, and as we write, crowds are rushing down Third street in that direction, shouting, "Berestein! Berestein!" The military, however, are under arms, and on the alert: and we anticipate no further damage to life or

The militia companies have formed a double line in such a manner as effectually to protect the office of the Anzeiger, stretching across Third, near the mouth of Chesnut and Market streets, and the alley back of the Anzeiger office, in such a way as to prevent all access.

About ten arrests have been made. The prisoners were lodged in the calaboose, with the exception of the fellow with whom the The Clearfield Academy will be opened fight commenced. He was subsequently removed to the jail, as a rescue was feared. It is said that he is an Irishman, that he stabbed a man in the crowd round the polls in the Fifth Ward, and then dropped his knife and ran. trustees have gone to a great deal of trouble He was pursued for several squares, and final-

As we write, (midnight,) there are flying rumors of rioters gathering in the neighborhood of the College, corner of Ninth and supply of White Lead and Linseed Oil, has | Green. There has been more or less disturbance and alarm there since the rioting began, but we hope and selieve that the worst is past, and that quiet is restored for the night.

At one o'clock this morning, the military had retired, and Third street, in the neighborhood of the Anzeiger office was quiet, but of the rioters scouring the northern part of the city, yelling and throwing stones .-Some fifty or more were engaged tearing out Morgan and Fifth streets. Abuse of the Pardoning Power.

The following extract, is from the "Northhampton Farmer," a Democratic paper, with the names of the Democratic candidates flying at its masthead .-

Our town was thrown into the most intense excitement on Tuesday last, by the intelligence that Gov. Bigler, by a pardon, had released Dr. Lachenour from imprisonment. Never, upon any occasion, or from any cause, have we witnessed such unanimity of condemnation of an act, or so deep and hearty anathemas evoked upon the head of the man who committed

The people of this community feel it to be an outrage upon the Court and Jury who patiently sat for three long weeks, affording this man every opportunity of proveing his innocence of the foul charge of conspiracy-of robbing, by the most infamous means, an imbecile, weak old man of his money—that every principle of law which individuals and communities look to for pretection from the hand of the assassin and the foul conspirator, has been trodden under foot by Gov. Bigler, in thus releasing this man from the rightions judgement of the law which had been imposed upon

We call upon the people to pause. Gov. Bigler may be able to justify this act, by the facts and circumstances presented for his consideration, which we think he is bound to make public. Nay, we demand that he make them public, for if he refuse-if he does nothing to convince the people of this county that he was justifiable in interfering with, and setting aside a verdict and sentence which nineteen twentieths of our citizens considered right and just, he will find that, in despite of all the efforts of those few Whigs whose friendship and support he has secured by this act, the people will pronounce such a judgement upon him at the ballot-box, as will convince him that the verdicts of our juries, and the seutence of our Courts, are not to be trampled under foot,-even by a Governor.

If Gov. Bigler, is satisfied that Dr. Lachenour, is innocent,-if he has been shown that the verdict of the jury was erroneous-or the sentence intolerable, why did he stop where he has-why does he suffer innocent men to be incarcerated in a State Prison-why not liberate those men? If he is justifiable in pardoning one he is in pardoning all, and the people will demand it of him. Petitions are already in circulation-a public meeting will be held-the Governor must extend his clemency to them, and not suffer them to remain there until "after the election"-the time at which it is said, he has agreed to liberate them. It would not only be just, but good policy, for they are democrats and will deposit in the ballot box an article which he will be very short of in this country unless he take some effectual means of satisfying the people that he is justifiable in what he has already done. Two poor young men were sentenced to six months imprisonment in the county jail and a fine of $50 and costs. Their time expired .-They were unable to pay the fine, and were kept there for three months on account of their poverty. Our Commissioners petitioned the Governor to remit the fine, stating the utter inability of the prisoners to pay, that they were only an expense to the county. Gov. Bigler treated the Commissioners with silent contempt-he never even noticed them. In the case of this millionaire, in opposition to the will of the community, almost to a man, the Governor remits the fine-robs the county of $2500-which was her just due as the penalty of this man's crimes, and refuses to give us anything in justification, or even in explaantion of his course. These things will not do, and Gov. Bigler will thus find it before he is many months older.

If Governors have the power to thus set aside and render nugatory the doings of our Courts of Justice-if a Governor can, with impunity, trample every principal of law and justice under foot, then we say, abolish our courts, do not call our citizans to serve for weeks as ready dead from the effects of the wounds re- jurymen, -hand offenders over to the Goverceived in the riot, and two are not expected nor, and let him deal with them according as his interest or his prejudice shall dictate.

> Synopsis of the Decisions of the Superintendent of Common Schools.

The 33d section of the school law authorizes every board of Directors to levy the special tax for building school houses, and confers the same authority upon boards of Controllers in cities and boroughs, where the school property is vested in them.

Trustees of school property held by them even at that late hour there were small knots for the general use of a neighborhood, and dedicated to common "school purposes," should convey the same to the school district in which it is located, upon the same terms the inside of P. Brady's doggery, corner of and for the same uses for which it was conveyed to the Trustees; but they can not be commobbed early in the afternoon, but the crowd | pelled to make such conveyences. Whenevrerurning did the work well, not leaving a er such property ceases to be used for school whole door or window, and not a particle of purposes, the ownership will revert to the

The law requires Directors to provided for not less than four months schooling for every individual in their districts "above the age of nals above the age of twenty-one years, but are not prohibited from doing so. Directors can not be required to employ teachers competent to give instruction to deaf and dumb pupils.

The 26th section of the school law is strictly penal in its nature; and, like all such laws, can only be enforced by the Courts. The opinion of the Superintendent, therefore, as to the consuch a multitude on the streets named, that struction it may properly bear, is merely advisory. Should any citizen feel that the secseasonable hour. At a rough estimate there tion had been violated, he could institute a prosecution, as in any other criminal case .-The court and jury would determine the law damaged, and their contents destroyed. To as well as the guilt or innocence of the accused, without being controlled by the opinion guess it not much short of $50,000. All this of the Superintendent of Common Schools, or besides the marder and maiming, was the perhaps even being influenced by it. The object of the section is to prevent imposition upwas entirely insufficient and for nearly three on the public in the selection and introduction of school books, to prevent changes being After the appearance of the military compara- made from pecuniary motives, to guard and protect the reputation and good names of the Directors who determine what books shall be squads moving here and there, but apparently used in the schools, and to give a guaranty to the public that books will not and cannot be imposed upon them from unworthy selfish motives, &c., and hence the construction given One of Gov. The Greytown Claims.

Letters from Washington announce that reclamations of the wanton destruction of property at Greytown, by the heroic Hollins, are coming in. French citizens claim the round sum of $600,000. M. de Barronelle claims $300,000. The English claim has not yet been, made, but it is reported that it will exceed the French in amount. One English merchant had eighty-six large packages of valuable mer-chandise destroyed, which was destined for the western coast. There are also Grenadian and Spanish merchants who will have heavy claims, amounting to over half a million.

The claims of American citizens will doubtless be much larger than those of any other class, since the principal part of the buildings belonged to them. They will claim a million and a half, or two millions. The entire losses by the victory of Hollins, Marcy and Borland may thus be set down at not less than three millions of dollars, to be paid by the American Government. These claims will probably be attended to by Congress immediately after those for the French Spoliations, previous to the year 1800, unless the sufferers see fit to distribute them to the first Congress that shall have the magnanimity to see them adjusted, the proceeds to be divided equally among those who may hold seats at the time. In no other way will they probably be paid in the coming half century.

INDAN BATTLE ON THE PLAINS .- The St. Louis Republican states that an Indian battle recently took place at the "Buffalo Grounds," about 100 miles beyond Fort Riley, between 700 Cheyenes and Arrapahoes, and 400 Deleware Pottowatomies and Sacs. The former had over fitty of their party killed, while the latter lost only some three or four. This difference, considering the disparagement in numbers is accounted for by the fact that the latter were armed with rifles, while the former had but few fire arms, and depended upon bows
