Riot as Newark, N. J. I. . . . . Firing on a Protestant Procession from a Cotholic Caurch.

A terrible riot occurred on Tuesday in the city of Newark, on the occasion of the First Annual Parrade of the American Protestant Association of New York. The number presin for line was between 2,500 and 3,000 pernt Association," and representing all the odges of the Order in the City and State of New York, from No. 1 to No.21: ano H as

When the head of the procession reached the corner' of Shipnian and William streets. they found Shipman street crowded with Irish Catholics, but the great body of the societies passed without any interruption, beyond an occasional shout of derision. As the end of the procession came in view a stone was hurled from the browd on the coffier of Shipman street, wounding a member of one of the Associations. At the same time one or two shots were fired from the Catholie Church ocupying the space between Shipman and High streets. The instant this attack was made upon them, the line was broken, the Protestants rushed pell-mell upon the church, forced. the doors, heat in the windows, tore up the sents, demolished the alter and the emblems, and put the organ very much out of tune, so that it can searcely be an organ again. The whole interior of the Ghurch speedily became a mass of ruins. The outer shell of the building is all that remains of it. A building in Shipmans street was also attacked, and the windows broken in. Crowds rushed to the spot from every direction, and intense excitement prevailed, in the midst of which several pistol shots were fired, and stones and other missiles freely thrown. Upon breaking into the church, the Protestants found two men (and report says more) concealed therein. Those men are believed to have been Roman Catholic Priests. They were instantly overpowered, and it is believed that one was killed. One man states that he saw an Irishman lying dead near the church, after the affray was over.

Rev. John Chambers.

In the awkward dilemma in which the rashess and indiscreet partizan zeal of this genleman have placed him on the temperance question, he joins in the hue and cry against the "Know Nothings," in order to avert the oublic gaze from his real situation. This trick of dialectics from frequent repetition has become somewhat too common, and has only had the effect, in this instance, of directing more particular attention to its author and his antecedents. A correspondent of the Daily News calls to the recollection of the public the interesting fact that this same REV. JOHN CHAMBERS, who now so fiercely denounces the "Know Nothings" was one of the af tiliated leaders of the Native Americans in 1844, who by their inflammatory speeches extited the mob to acts of incendiarism and violence that have not quite been equalled by the men whose principles he just now so much abhors. The foreigners for whom he now pretends so much regard will, therefore, know how much confidence to place in the proffessions of this "Protestant Jesuit," who can change his principles as often as it suits his purpose. Many of our citizens will remember the renegade, Italian priest, GUISTINIANI,

AGE.-We congratulate our subscribers and the reading public generally, on the cheapness with which they can now receive our reprints by mail. The postage hitherto-though gradually reduced since 1844-has always operated as a discouragement to their circulation in places inaccessible by expresses or other modes of regular private conveyance. Hence, as yet they have obained but a comparative meagre mail circulation. We hope now that the postage is merely nominal, a new impetus will be given to these valuable works, and that no Post Office within the United States will remain unvisited by at least one copy of the four Reviews and Blackwoods Magazine. The Postage on Blackwood and the four Reviews is now but 72 cents a year, and the subscription price is but $3, and when taken with any of the four Reviews but $2, a year!

More Free Democratic Movements.

Meetings were held recently at Dimock Corners and Montrose in Susquehanna county .-They were stronger in numbers and enthusiasia than the meetings addressed by the Governor; Speeches condemnatory of the Nebraska iniity and its supporters were made by Hon. G. A. GROW the "fusion" candidate for Congress, and Hon. DAVID WILMOT. At the Montrose meeting the Register says the last named gentleman spoke for two hours and a half, and that his address was the most able and eloquent ever delivered by him at that place .--It was a masterly effort in behalf of Freedom, and knocked the sophistry and non-commit-talism of Bigler "sky-high." Mr. Gnow also made a powerful speech. He took and triumphantly maintained his position with Mr. Wilmor and the great body of the people of the North. The enthusiasm with which the peeches of these distinguished gentlemen ere received shows that the people are sound to the core on the great question of Freedom, and that Governor BIGLER having allied him-self with the originators and supporters of the Nebraska swindle will, in the hanguage of Mr. CHASE, the Democratic ex-Speaker, and editor ings,' observed a crowd pouring into the room of the Montrose Democrat, "receive the carnest and seathing rebuke of the people" at the October election.

"POPULAR SOVEREIGNTY."-In a late debate boots and shoes, recently opened there by C. at Mishawaka, Ind., between Eddy, the candidate of the slave Democracy for Congress, and his opponent the people's candidate Mr. Schuyler Colfax, the latter pressed his opponent on his ridiculous prefence of popular sovranity in Kansas and Nebraska. In the course of his speech Mr. C. asked his competitor if he was prepared to carry "squatter corrupting their constitution, he would vote to admit Utah into the sisterhood of States ?. The prompt and unequvocal reply was-"I worns "" This is the last of "squatter sover-eignty," we should think. The thing must be run into the ground in Indiana. And yet, the doctrine as laid down by the slave Demoeracy of the present day, leads inevitably to this result. Calhoun however, during his State Journal.

MPORTANT TO FARMERS.-HICKOK'S PATENT IMPROVED CIDER MILL, AS AR-RANGED FOR 1854 .- WARRANTED, IF DIRECTIONS ARE FOLLOWED, AND NOT OTHERWISE .- A Medal was awarded the Inventer from the World's Fair. New York.

It took the First Premium at the Pennsylvania State Fair, at Pittsburgh, 1853, and also of a large number of County Fairs. Read the following certificate : JACKSTOWN, June 15, 1854 W. O. HICKON :- SIN :- I have one of your Improved Cider Mills ; I used the Mill last October. and on trial I ground fifty bushels of apples per hour. I keep the ground apples twelve hours, and I can press out two barrels of eider per hour with two men. I can recommend your Improved Cider Mill to all fruit growers, for speed and a saving of labor. I can make thirty-five gallons of eider from nine and a half bushels of common apples. The eider can be pressed from the pomace without using water now. Cider will keep one year when water is not used at the press.

JOHN MCOMBE. Farmers examine this newly Improved Mill before you buy any other !

From present indications it will be difficult to supply the demand, and persons wanting them had better send in their orders soon. The price of the Mill is $40.

Upon application by mail, post paid, to the un-dersigned, at Tyrone, a pamphlet containing full particulars, will be sent. 13 The Mills will be kept for sale at L. R. CAR-

TER'S, Clearfield, Pa. Address your orders to A. H. BOWMAN,
