

THE JOURNAL.

BUSINESS ITEMS.

The attention of Lumbermen and others is invited to the sale of a lot of splendid timber lands on Clearfield Creek. Apply to E. W. SHOEMAKER, Ebensburg, Cambria Co., Pa.

Although a good deal of business was done during Court week, the new, splendid and cheap assortment of goods just received by W. F. IRWIN, was by no means exhausted. He offers for sale, emphatically, the best and cheapest goods in the county. Call and see.

An extensive purchase was lately effected by Geo. D. MORGAN & CO., of all the lands in Centre and Clearfield counties belonging to HARDMAN PHILLIPS. They are now offered for sale on easy terms, in lots, or otherwise to suit purchasers. See advertisement.

It will be seen that our young friend, J. S. SNOWERS, has disposed of his interest in the firm of PATTON & SNOWERS, to E. A. HIRSH. The business will be hereafter conducted under the style and firm of PATTON & HIRSH.

A large assortment of all kinds of lumber, plastering lath, &c., may always be found at the "Pioneer Mills," of Capt. Henry Grob, on the Moshannon. Those who desire bills saved, will find the Capt. a prompt business man, and true to his promises.

It is said that money is exceedingly tight, but nevertheless M. A. FRANK, has just purchased a large, new, and splendid assortment of Gentlemen's dress goods and ready-made clothing. As Frank is a pretty clever fellow, he deserves to be patronized. Store two doors East of Journal office.

The shoemaking business is prospering, and C. S. BLACK advertises for six journeymen. Who wants a good berth?

Get your life insured, and thus insure to your family a sufficient competence in the event of your death. The Susquehanna Company at Harrisburg, offers every inducement. Dr. R. V. WILSON of this place is the examining physician, and Dr. A. T. SCHRYVER, is the agent for Clearfield county.

A horse, buggy, and harness, can be bought cheap of W. M. REEDY, at Curwensville.

Our lady readers who desire to send to Philadelphia for Millinery, &c., &c., will find the establishment of JANE MILLER at No. 8 South Sixth St., upper side, where all orders will be punctually attended to.

It will be seen in another column, that BLAIR & BARRETT have opened the MOUNT VERNON for the reception of visitors. We wish them abundant success, and have no doubt our Clearfield friends visiting the City, will call where they will always meet a warm and welcome reception.

"Secure the shadow, ere the substance fades," and call at PURVANCE'S Daguerrean Gallery on 2nd st., two doors north of Powell & Co's. Store.

It is always a good plan for men in business to settle up their accounts regularly. JAMES B. GRAHAM, adopting this course, calls peremptorily upon those having dealings with him to come forward and settle up.

Those of our farmers who have orchards, should procure one of Hickok's portable cider mills, which are represented as one of the very best articles of the kind ever invented. L. R. CARTER, is the agent in this place.

The time will soon be here, when our readers will require a good warm fire, beside which to enjoy the Journal, and they should look out for fuel, ere it arrives. Those desiring a good article of coal can obtain it on application to W. L. MOORE, whose orders will be filled at his Coal Bank, adjoining town. See card.

Our friend BRIDGE, who is a clever fellow and deserving of patronage, has opened a Daguerrean Gallery, at Curwensville. He takes beautiful pictures, and we have no doubt those of our readers who give him a call, will receive entire satisfaction.

In another column it will be seen that a valuable farm, near New Washington, is offered at private sale, by Mr. JOHN SUTTER. This is a good piece of land, in a good locality, and possesses excellent and commodious improvements. See card.

The "Corporal" in his peripatetic a few days since, while searching for the "Know Nothings," observed a crowd pouring into the room next door to the Journal office. Of course he followed, but discovered the cause of attraction to be a splendid and cheap assortment of boots and shoes, recently opened there by C. S. BLACK. From the excellent quality of his work, the "Corporal" came to the conclusion that CHARLEY didn't belong to the Order.

It will be seen that D. W. ROBBINS & CO., at Lumber City, have dissolved partnership. The books and accounts are in the hands of D. W. ROBBINS for settlement.

M. A. FRANK, Esq., informs his friends and the public, that he has removed his business stand two doors east of the Journal office, in Graham's Row, where he will be happy to attend to those who may give him a call.

We call the attention of painters, and others to the fact, that a large and excellent supply of White Lead and Linseed Oil, has just been received at Mossor & Pottarff's.

We request the attention of our readers to the card of HUGHES & IRVIN in another column, the proprietors of the Tyrone City Hotel. Give them a call, when you visit Tyrone, if you wish to be well treated, and get acquainted with a couple of clever fellows.

Something very significant!

The Washington Star, which is presumed to be the least reliable of the federal administration, says—the only bad sign in the Northern political horizon, so far, is the hesitancy manifested by the Democratic nominee for Congress in Mr. Chandler's district, in Pennsylvania, to withdraw from the contest, urging his political brethren instantly to rally around Mr. C. as the representative in this canvass of one of the fundamental principles of the American governmental system, which cannot be abused without dragging down in its train all the other cherished peculiar features of American institutions, which, having had full play up to this time, have made us the freest, happiest and most prosperous people in the world. "Alas! it is there you are? Very sage advice to Mr. John Hamilton, who, with three or four candidates running, stands a very fair chance of slipping in between them! But he has been told by any number of men, that he has been told by the neglect of the Whigs to renounce Mr. Chandler makes him the representative of any fundamental principle of the American governmental system. He is talented, attentive and influential, and as we have said before, we should prefer to see him re-elected rather than have Philadelphia represented by any mediocre man. But he has been honored by the Whig party, and before the last convention he stood pledged not to be a candidate for re-nomination, and but for that pledge the Hon. Robert T. Conrad would have been elected for the term which Mr. Chandler is now filling. In consequence with that pledge he was not a candidate before the Whig Convention, though he had many warm personal friends who were members of that body. We cannot see that any great principle has been violated. In a company of several gentlemen the other evening, who had all voted for him, the question was asked, "is Mr. Chandler a Roman Catholic?" and no one could answer. His creed, therefore, could have had nothing to do with the action of the Convention. He had served twice, and gave way upon the democratic principle of rotation in office. But the feeler of the Star is very significant, and shows a determination, if possible, to make a sectarian issue in Philadelphia, whether we will or not. The Democrats have conjured up the phantom of Know Nothingism, and as they have been heretofore certain of the Irish Catholic vote, they think to secure also the Irish and German Protestant vote. Whether they will succeed, time will show. Of one thing we are certain, and that is, Mr. Chandler will consult the maintenance of his well earned reputation, by weighing well his position, before he allows himself to be made the cat's paw of those designing demagogues he has opposed through a life time.—Philad. Sun.

Know Nothings in Old Berks.

The Reading Journal states that the Know Nothing Democrats in the borough of Bernville, achieved a very decided victory over the Schreckenzeitler Democrats at the Delegate election last Saturday. It appears that Mr. Edwin C. Brockway, the candidate for Clerk of the Sessions, as usual with the party leaders in this county, fixed a ticket to be run by the faithful, which he of course expected to have chosen without opposition. On counting the votes, however, Brockway and his clique were thunderstruck to find that two of their men were defeated, and the third within an ace of falling behind, also. "By another ticket which had been run without the knowledge or consent of the leaders." Information of this untoward result was immediately expressed to Reading the next morning, several members of the "Schreckenzeitler" Order proceeded to Bernville to "head off" the successful "Know Nothings," but it was no go. The latter could not be induced to decline, but came and took their seats in the Convention. It was at first determined to oust them, but upon ascertaining that at least one-third of the whole number of Delegates were in the same camp, the leaders concluded it was best to keep quiet. It is also stated that a result precisely similar to that of Bernville, occurred at the Democratic Delegate Election in Friedensburg. Regulars were defeated and Know Nothings carried the day—and so in several other towns and boroughs. At Waverly, for report says, there was a glorious row in the party, occasioned by the running of Know Nothing delegates. The "Order" seems to be in great favor with the country democracy.

J. Ellis Bonham.

The Democrats of the York, Cumberland and Perry District have nominated J. Ellis Bonham for Congress. This is the individual who writes the inimitable current under the name of Democratic State Addresses. The Reading Journal, a Democratic journal, takes him into the following pungent notice: A few years ago Mr. Bonham emigrated from New Jersey to Carlisle as a law student. He located in Carlisle, and his first political exploit was the organization of an anti-tax party. The object of this new-fangled scheme was to induce the State and Federal Legislatures to repeal the tax on the Pennsylvania Lottery. His candidate was defeated. What did Mr. Bonham care for the honor of Pennsylvania? He was just fresh from New Jersey, where he was a loud-mouthed whig, as one of his intimate associates proclaimed at the Warm Springs last summer, who knew Mr. Bonham and his political principles in that State. He had become a wonderful democrat, and that State debt, against the payment of which he was willing to plead the statute of limitations, has been increased by his efforts in and out of the legislature, by refusing to sanction any plan for its speedy reduction and payment.

We call on Mr. Bonham to make his record clear, and see as to what he has reported before he asks our suffrage, or he can't receive them. Will he be kind enough to inform the people of the district what service he has rendered for the $5000, which he drew from the State Treasury for revising the tax-laws, and attempting to force upon the people a system for the collection of taxes that was more oppressive than the decrees of the Czar?

Gov. BIGLER at the NORTH.—The Governor addressed the Democracy of Bradford county at Towanda, on Monday last. The following notice of his speech we clip from the Bradford Argus, by which it will be seen that his mission to the North, is not likely to accomplish much for himself or his party.

Mr. Bigler's message to satisfy the people upon the subject of Nebraska, &c., proved a complete failure, and we honestly believe his presence among our people will prove an injury instead of an advantage, to his prospects of success, which every man knows is a forlorn hope. Dodging will not answer the purpose in this region—the people will trust no man who they understand perfectly well, is unprincipled, and rotten to the core upon the great question involved in the coming contest. The principal portion of his speech was devoted to a defence of his Administration, and wholesale abuse of the order known as "Know Nothings."

CLERGYMEN IN CONGRESS.—The clerical position against the Nebraska bill having been suddenly treated by Congress, has induced the people to send the petitioners to the next Congress in place of their defamers. Mr. MEACHAM, of Vermont, just elected, is a clergyman, and so is Mr. SABIN, his colleague. Mr. KNOWLTON, of Maine, is a Baptist, and Mr. MILLIKES, a Universalist clergyman.

NATIONAL W. B. STEWARTS.—Our government, as administered under democratic auspices, not only refuses to clear the snags out of the Western rivers, but wantonly throws away the costly instrumentalities prepared for their removal under other administrations. The following from the St. Louis Republican affords considerable food for thought in this connection.

On Monday, as we said would be the case, the sacrifice of the United States Snag Boats took place, and a great sacrifice it was. Two of them were sold, with all their tackle, apparel and furniture, and one of them brought $3,900 and the other $4,100. As we understand it, this included everything attached to the boats, and in this manner they were transferred to Messrs. Eeds & Nelson, who are very honorable and worthy gentlemen. They get the boats for about $5,000 each, or $4,000. We have not time to go through the documents to see what has been lost by the government, but a hasty examination of the accounts shows us that, for four snag boats, the United States paid last year $144,121.25. These boats were built under the superintendence of Capt. Russell, and two of them have now been sold for $8,000 each, or $16,000. JUDGE WORKING ON PRESIDENT PIERCE'S VULGAR PLEDGE.—Judge Working, of Racine, makes the following statement over his own signature, in the Racine Advocate of the 15th inst:

In the month of October, 1852, I was in the office of General Pierce, in Concord, N. H., and had at that time a conversation with him in relation to appropriations by the General Government for the improvement of Western rivers and harbors. Taking a bound volume of printed speeches and letters in his hand, he turned to the letter of Silas Wright to the Chicago Convention, and observed that the sentiments of that letter were his own; that he was not in favor of appropriations by the General Government for the purpose of creating commerce in places where it did not exist, it was to be protected and encouraged, and he had no more doubt of the constitutionality and expediency of appropriations by the General Government for the improvement of Western rivers and harbors, than he had of the constitutionality and expediency of appropriations for the construction of light-houses and other similar objects on the Atlantic coast; and he added, "I understand the letter of Silas Wright to the Chicago Convention to be satisfactory to all Western men." These are his statements as then made, and to show that I am not mistaken, I copy this statement of his from a memorandum then made at General Pierce's own suggestion.

MORE FREE DEMOCRATIC MOVEMENTS.—Meetings were held recently at Dimock Corner and Montrose in Susquehanna county. They were stronger in numbers and enthusiasm than the meetings addressed by the Governor. Speeches condemnatory of the Nebraska inquiry and its supporters were made by Hon. G. A. Grob, the candidate for Congress, and Hon. David Wilcox. At the Montrose meeting the Register says the named gentleman spoke for two hours and a half, and that his address was the most able and eloquent ever delivered by him at that place. It was a masterly effort in behalf of Freedom, and knocked the sophistry and noncommittalism of "Higher" and "Lower" men. Grob also made a powerful speech. He took and triumphantly maintained his position with Mr. Wilcox and the great body of the people of the North. The enthusiasm with which the speeches of these distinguished gentlemen were received shows that the people are sound to the core on the great question of Freedom, and that Governor Bigler having allied himself with the originators and supporters of the Nebraska evil will in the language of Mr. Chase, the Democratic ex-Speaker, and editor of the Montrose Democrat, "receive the earnest and seething rebuke of the people" at the October election.

A DEEP SPRING.—On Lake Prairie, Iowa, there is a spring, the bottom of which no plumb line has ever yet sounded. It has a false bottom about three feet from its surface, through which, if a heavy twenty-foot pole be thrust, it will sink under the said composing this crustlike layer, and in a moment after its disappearance, will bound up again on the surface. An Indian legend has it, that on a quiet, full-moon night, the Great Spirit led the wicked ones of a certain tribe, higher, and when they saw the glorious beauty of the crystal water, they thought to bathe themselves in the moon-kissed fountain and therefore plunged into the spring, but sank to rise no more. Ever afterwards, the spirits of these evil unfortunates have troubled the bottomless waters, and to this day they torment theceptive bosom of the beautiful though dangerous spring. Illinois Times.

SEPTEMBER VICTORIES.—In September, 1847, occurred the victories of Molina del Rey and Chapultepec, and on the 14th Gen. Scott planted his victorious standard on the capital of Mexico. This event the Commander in Chief announced by a General Order, in which he called upon his brethren in arms to return both in public and private worship, thanks and gratitude to God for the glorious and signal triumphs which they had achieved for their country, beginning with the 19th of August, and ending on the 14th of September. Three thousand men were known on the time Gen. Scott left Puebla until he entered the city of Mexico. The Mexican loss was in much greater proportion.

NEW YORK.—The late Soft Shell Convention held in New York appears to have reduced the administration party in that state to a mere handful. The convention, when it assembled, numbered some four or five hundred members; but on the resolution endorsing the Nebraska bill the vote stood 245 to 174. Most of the 174 negatives, representing fully one-half of the party vote, were with the left the Slaveocrats to the melancholy task of nominating a ticket for the people to spit upon. The Pierce administration will not be able to make anything like a respectable rally at the polls, there, this fall.

THE LITTLE GIANT is becoming the very Tom Thumb of politicians. At Joliet, Illinois, lately he professed to know all the signs and pass-words of the Know Nothings, and as he repeated their presumed American principles, such was loudly cheered by his audience. His friends were afraid of "snags," and offered no resolutions!

A journeyman tailor has achieved the following:—"Why are pantaloons like well's?" "Give it up, ch?" "Why because they have spring bottoms."

The business will hereafter be conducted by Patton & Hipple, who will pay all debts contracted by the former firm.

September 1st, 1854-3c.

FIRST ARRIVAL.—FALL AND WINTER GOODS, AT THE CHEAP CASH STORE.—Just received, a large and splendid assortment of goods of almost every description, suitable for the season, and selling off at very low prices. Ladies, Gentlemen, and every person wishing to buy goods at the very lowest prices, are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves.

Produce of all kinds received in exchange for goods.

WM. F. IRWIN, Clearfield, Sept. 27, 1854.

ATTENTION LUMBERMEN.—THE MAINE COM. LANDS ARE NOW FOR SALE.—The subscriber offers for sale the following Tracts of Land, situated on and near the Clearfield Creek, in Clearfield county, Pa., to wit:—A tract warranted to "Lake Morris," containing 473 acres and 48 ps. A tract, warranted to Joseph Holland, containing 433 acres, 153 ps. A tract, warranted to Robert Gray, containing 433 acres, 153 ps. A tract, warranted to John Brinkhurst, containing 429 acres, 153 ps. A tract, warranted to "Sawald Ward," containing 433 acres, 153 ps. A tract, warranted to Geo. Eddy, containing 433 acres, 153 ps. A tract, warranted to Moor Warton, containing 433 acres, 153 ps. A part of a tract, warranted to Geo. Ashton, containing 216 acres.

These lands are too well known to the lumbermen of Clearfield County, to render a description of them necessary.—It may be safely said, that this is decidedly the best body of pine lands in Clearfield County.

For terms, &c., apply to EDW. SHOEMAKER, Ebensburg, Cambria Co. September 26, 1854.

TIMBER LAND FOR SALE.—The subscribers having purchased all the lands belonging to Hardman Phillips, situated in Clearfield, Cambria and Centre counties, comprising some of the best timber lands in those counties, offer them for sale in lots to suit purchasers, at reasonable prices and terms of payment. All other information respecting them, will be furnished by Wm. Bagshaw or David Hough, at Philadelphia, or Joseph W. Smith, Clearfield. GEO. D. MORGAN & CO. September 27, 1854-3c.

BOROUGH ORDINANCE.—BE IT ENACTED, &c., That it shall not be lawful for any swine, hogs, shoats, or pigs to go at large in the Borough of Clearfield, and if any such swine, hogs, shoats or pigs, shall be found running at large, such swine, hogs, shoats or pigs, shall be forfeited to the said Borough, to be sold by the Constable of the said Borough at public sale, who is hereby authorized and required to take up such swine, hogs, shoats or pigs, found running at large, and the proceeds arising from the sale of them after deducting expenses of sale and keeping said hogs, the said Constable is to pay over to the Treasurer of said Borough to be appropriated for Borough purposes.

On failure of said Constable to take up said swine, hogs, shoats or pigs, found running at large, any citizen of said Borough is authorized to take the same up, and the expenses of keeping the same, and fifty cents on application of the owner, if on hearing the claimant, he thinks the case requires such decision.

This ordinance to go into operation on the 12th of Sept. 1854, as former ordinance on the same subject is repealed.

Resolved, That the law be adopted collectively.

Attest, WM. PORTER, Sec'y.
