LAND OF LIBERTY.

To Liberty's enraptured sight, When first Columbia's region shone, 8he hailed it from her starry height. And, smiling, claim'd it as her own. "Fair land," the goddess cried, "be free! Soil of my choice! to fame arise!" She spoke, and heaven's minstrelsy Swelled the loud chorus throngh the skies All hail, forever great and free, Columbia-LAND OF LIBERTY.

Columbia's genius heard the strain, And proudly raised his drooping crest, His sons impatient fill'd the plain, While painted high each patriot's breast; Their fetters they indignant spurn'd, They waved their falchions in the air. And where the Goddess' altar burn'd, From kneeling warriors rose the prayer, To die be ours, if thou art free, Columbia-LAND OF LIBERTY

War blew the clarion long and loud : Oppression led his legions on : To battle rush'd the patriot throng, And soon the glorious day was won-Each bleeding freeman smiled in death; Flying he saw his country's foes, And wafted by his latest breath,

To heaven the cheerful pean rose-Content to die, for thou art free! Columbia-LAND OF LIBERTY. And shall we ever dim the fires

That flame on Freedom's hundred shrines?

Shall glory's children shame their sires? Shall cowards spring from heroes' loins? No, by the blood our fathers shed, O Freedom! in thy holy cause, When streaming from the martyr'd dead, It scal'd and sanctified thy laws-

We swear to keep thee great and free Columbia-LAND OF LIBERTY

Seat yourself with a jerk, pushing against one neighbor, and thrusting yourself into the side of another. You will thus get plenty of room.

If possible, enter with a stick or umbrella pointed at full length; so that, by any sudden move of the vehicle, you may thrust it into some one's stomach.

When seated, occupy, if possible, the room of two; your ride will thereby be rendered more comfortable.

Open or shut the windows as it suits you: men with colds, or women with toothache, nave no business in omnibuses. If they don't like it, they can get out; no one compels them lo ride.

Young bucks may stare any decent woman out of countenance, put their legs up along the seats, and if neessary, wipe their boots on the seats. They are only covered with Brussels or Wilton carpeting.

MOST EXCELLENT ADVICE .- A handsome young widow of our acquaintance applied to a physician to relieve her of three distressing public improvements, and not knowing that a complaints with which she was afflicted.

'In the first place,' said she, 'I have little or no appetite. What shall I take for that Doctor ?'

'For that, madum, you shall take air and exercise.'

And, Doctor, I am quite fidgetty at night, and afraid to lie alone. What shall I take for that ?'

'For that, madam, I can only recommend that you take-a-husband!'

Fie! Doctor. But I have the blues, terribly. What shall I take for that?'

'For that, madam, you have, besides taking air, exercise and a husband, to take-The Making Believe .- Is he alive?' inquired a little boy the other day, as he gazed on a large turtle, crawling in front of a restaurant. 'Alive!' exclaimed a fat gentleman, who was also looking at the fat monster with intense interest, sartingly, sartingly, boy. He acts like a live turtle, don't he ?' 'Why, yes, he acts like one,' answered the little querist; but I thought perhaps he might be makin' believe.'

DF Well, Mrs. Mundy, how are you this evening?' Oh, Mrs. I am very unwell; am quite out of spirits.' Bless you, ma'am, don't take on so,' said the servant, 'there's three bottles left yet.' 'Go down stairs directly, Betty!'

Every hour that a man is in debt is year spent in slavery. Your creditor is your master; it matters not whether a kind or severe one, the sense of obligation you incur saps the feeling of manly independence, which is the first charm of youth; and, believe me. it is always through the rents in moral feeling that our happiness comes out quickest.

SCRIPTURE FOR IT .- A distinguished writer says-"There is but one passage in the Bible where the girls are commanded to kiss the men, and that is in the golden rule, 'Whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, do ye even so to them.' "

Sublime.-A down east editor, in a leader on the momentous subject of civilization, perpetrates the following : 'The march of civilization is onward, onward, like the slow but intrepid tread of a jackass towards a peck of

WHAT CONSTITUTES A GENTLEMAN .- The Washington correspondent of the New York Sun savs:

The Colonization meeting at the Copitol last evening was very interesting. One of the speakers, with a view of showing the standard of morality among the African Princes their idea of what constitutes a gentleman related the following anecdote:

A Missionary, at an inteview with one of the Princes, incidently spoke of certain gentlemen in the United States.

The Prince said, 'Ah, I wish I were a gen.

The Missionary was surprised, and asked him if he had not great wealth and plenty of

'Yes,' said the Prince, but that does not make me a gentleman..

'What does, then' replied the Missionary, make a gentleman?'

'A proper number of wives,' said the Prince. 'Why, how many wives have you?'

'Only two' said the Prince, 'but I must have fix before I can be a gentleman.

The idea of it, requiring six wives to make a gentleman, created no little mirth among the female portion of the audience. There were some hard looks at the bachelors, as much as to say, 'What miserable creatures must you be then?'

A DISCRIMINATING SHOT .- In a speech made by Col. Bingaman, lately, somewhere in Mississippi, he told the following good story .-We leave the politicians to make the application of it, each to suit himself :-

Two men, Jones and Martin, went deer hunting. After remaining together a while, they separated, and soon Jones, hearing the report of Martin's gun, went to him. Seeing no game, he asked him if he had shot anything. 'No-o,' replied Martin very carelessly, 'did'nt shoot any thing.' 'What did you shoot at?' asked Jones Martin seemed confused and evaded a reply. Jones looked around a little and saw a calf grazing a short distance off. 'Did HINTS FOR OMNIBUS RIDERS .- On getting von shoot at that calf ?' asked Jones. 'Y-e-s,' replied Martin, 'I shot at it.' 'You didn't hit it, though,' remarked Jones. 'No, I didn't ing a decent equilibrium by the arms, chests, hit it,'-and Martin went on to explain. 'You see,' said he, 'I was uncertain whether it was a calf or a deer, and I shot so as to hit it if it was a deer, and to miss it if it was a calf !"

> DR. CRUSTY GROWING MORE FACETIOUS .-Have you ever remarked' Dr. Crusty,' quoth Mrs. Stimps vesterday, that my children have different ways from most people's?'

'Frequently,' retorted the doctor. Entirely different ?' continued Mrs. Stimp.

Entirely different,' echoed the doctor. 'Well, how do you account for it, Doctor?'

asked Mrs. Stimp, inquiringly. 'Because,' rejoined the doctor, 'you have humored them so much that they have ways of their own. I noticed it particularly when little Benny threw that apple core at you, right in your face, and told you he'd do it again if he

WITTY REPARTEE .- The Abbe Reignies, Secretary of the French Academy, received one day in his hat the subscription toward certain certain avaricious man present had contributed his share, he presented his hat to him the second time. The miser assured him he had already given money, to which the Abbe replied, 'I believe it, but I have not seen it.' Fortenelle, who was by his side, exclaimed, 'Well, I have seen it, but I don't believe it.'

A Kiss .- The following answer was made by a gentleman to a young lady, who had sent him a kiss-in a letter.

Thanks to my gentle absent friend-A kiss, you in your letter send : But, ah ! the thrilling charm is lost In kisses that arrive by post;

That fruit can only tasteful be When gathered, melting, from the tree!

A person out west met with an amusing rebuff a short time since. Walking up to a quiet old gentleman in the midst of a crowd, he held out his hand and remarked with a smile-My dear sir, I cannot call your name, but I am sure we have been together some-

FUNNY .- To attempt to break up a love

not know he has any very brilliant ideas to hold out in large capitals to dazzle people's eyes— "Graham" will be pretty much what it has been the last volume, with some improvements which experience suggests. No number will contain less than 100 pages of matter, and the readers of "Graham" may rely with great confidence upon this-

OVER TWELVE HUNDRED PAGES! Of the very best reading matter that capital can command from original sources, or taste select from the vast mass of available material.

The aim of the editor will be to produce a publication which sholl be valuable in matter, and choice in taste and style; and he flatters himself. from the known talents of his contributors, that he will be able to present as many good original ar-ticles to his readers as any publication of the day. He shall not, however, hesitate to publish, from time to time, articles from English authors, and translations from the best German and French writers, provided the pieces have never before appeared in print in this country. Essays on impor-tant Political Subjects will likewise be inserted. and criticisms on the Literature of America and the movements of the Age. The Leview Department, in which a large and liberal spirit of criticism will always be maintained, will be extended. For the defence of American Diterature the editor will always be ready; the maintainance of a correct tone in the Magazine, he will, if possible, be still more watchful.

EACH NUMBER WILL CONTAIN AN ENGRAVING FROM A FINE STEEL PLATE IN ADDITION TO THE CHOICE

DESIGNS AND ENGRAVINGS OF DEVERUX. who will supply illustrations for the text in the body of the book. The aim of the editor will not be so much to increase the number of his engravings, as to secure for those he publishes the utmost finish the artist can give them ; for common wood-cuts are so easily multiplied, that the most indifferent publication may outrank in dreary display the choicest periodical The Editor does not feel, that with his own readers, he can increase his claims to respect by insisting on any very great superiority of 'Graham' over several similar publications, but thinks he may safely confide in their friendship for the Magazine, and in its past management for its present list, and such increase as naturally grows out of an extended circulation in a country where readers are multiplying so rapidly.

Of the January number the first addition will be 30,000 copies, and the editor trusts his old friends will be so prompt in renewing old clubs, and extending the list among new ones, that the first edition shall be but half os what the year will ultimately establish, as the permanent circulation of dersigned have entered into an arrangement by which they agree to furnish the Knickerbocker Magazine, (monthly,) the Home Journal, (weekly,) and the Musical World and Times, (weekly,) to new subscribers, at the very moderate price of five dollars, a year sor the three publications; all orders, enclosing that amount to Dver & Willis, will be promptly attended to SAMUEL HEUSTON.

Publisher of the Knickerbocker, MORRIS & WILLIS, Publishers of the Home Journal. DYER & WILLIS.

Publishers of the Musical World and Times GRAND LITERARY AND ARTISTIC COMBI-NATION.

Arrangements have been made to furnish the Knickerbocker Magazine, the Home Journal, and the New York Musical World and Times, to new subscribers, for five dollars a year. This is cheap literature, with a vengeance. The Knickerbocker is $3 per annum the Home Journal, $2; and the Musical World and Times, $3; making $8 a year at the usual rates. ThIt three such works can be obtained for five dollars a year, is a fact truly worthy the Caloric age, which is just now being ush-ered in. Of the Knickerbocker Magazine, edited by Lewis Gaylord Clark, it is unnecessary to For twenty years it has been the most genial; humorous, and spicy "monthly" in the world; and the present volume will be better than any which preceded it. The Home Journal, edited by Geo. P. Morris, and N. P. Willis, is well known as the best family newspaper in America; and the Musical World and Times, edited by Richard Storrs Willis with Lowell Mason, Geo. H. Curtis, Thomas Hastings, Wm. P. Bradbury, Geo. F. Root, and other musical writers contributing; and which gives, among other things, over $25 worth of music and a full course of instruction in harmony annually, is the very best musical Jour-nal ever published. These three publications will post a family up in regard to nearly everything worth knowing :- Art, Scivnce, Literature; Music. Painting, Sculpture; Inventions, Discoveries; Wit, Humor, Fancy, Sentiment, the Newest Fashions and other attractions for Ladies; Choice New Music for the Sabbath, the Church, and the Fireside: Reviews and Criticism of Musical Works, Performers and Performances; in short, the very pick and cream of Novelty, Incident, History, phy. Art Literature and Science; including whatever can be given in periodicals to promote Healthy Amusement and Solid Instruction in the family and help to make it Better, Wiser, and Happier, may be now obtained for FIVE DOLLARS. Address DYER & WILLIS, 275 Broadway.

Editors publishing the above three times. sending the papers containing it to Dyer & Willis, will receive the three works named, for one year. Aug. 23, 1854.

HOUSEHOLD WORDS.—A MONTHLY MAGAZINE AT $2 PER YEAR.—Only those who read the serial so promptly issued every week by Dickens, with thoughtful appreciation, know how to prize it. "Household Words" is a modern journal for the people, devoted to common subjects, uncommonly treated, excellent in style, in genius, in manner, and wonderfully fertile subject. The pieces are the right length: the exhibit wonderful variety and are attuned to a harmonious key and remarkable unity of effect. For the money, there is not the equal of "Household Words" for a family journal. Pleasant stories, useful knowledge, graceful anecdotes, charming essays, alternate in its pages. It is not always convenient to secure a copy of the weekly issue on the arrival of a steamer; in order to enjoy regularly this delightful work, we advise our rea ders to possess themselves of the handsome month-ly reprint of McElrath & Baker, who bring out "Household Words" with commendable punctuali-ty, at New-York.
