

THE JOURNAL.

BUSINESS ITEMS.

Letters of administration have been granted to JONAS CARLILE Esq., on the estate of Hiram E. Carlile, late of Brady township deceased.
Those persons desirous of purchasing a valuable property in the vicinity of this place, will find an excellent opportunity by referring to the advertisement of JOSEPH LANIER in another column.
Our merchants and others visiting the city will do well to call at BAILY & BROTHERS, 252 Chestnut St., and examine their splendid assortment of carpeting, floor oil cloths, matings &c. &c.
Our friend ROBERT WELCH has just received a new and splendid assortment of jewelry. We hope our friends will give Robert a call.
The attention of Lumbermen and others is invited to the sale of a lot of splendid lumber lands on Clearfield Creek. Apply to E.W. SHOEMAKER, Ebensburg, Cambria Co., Pa.
Although a good deal of business was done during Court week, the new, splendid and cheap assortment of goods just received by Wm. F. IRWIN, was by no means exhausted. He offers for sale, emphatically, the best and cheapest goods in the county. Call and see.
An extensive purchase was lately effected by Geo. D. MORGAN & Co., of all the lands in Centre and Clearfield counties belonging to HARDMAN PHILLIPS. They are now offering for sale on easy terms, in lots, or otherwise to suit purchasers. See advertisement.
It will be seen that our young friend JOS. SHOWNERS has disposed of his interest in the firm of PATTON & SHOWNERS, to E. A. HIPPLE. The business will be hereafter conducted under the style and firm of PATTON & HIPPLE.
A large assortment of all kinds of lumber, plastering lath, &c., may always be found at the "Pioneer Mills," of Capt. Henry Groe, on the Moslemann. Those who desire bills saved, will find the Capt. a prompt business man, and true to his promises.
It is said that money is exceedingly tight, but nevertheless M. A. FRANK has just purchased a large, new, and splendid assortment of Gentlemen's dress goods and ready made clothing. As Frank is a pretty clever fellow, he deserves to be patronized. Store two doors East of Journal office.
The shoemaking business is prospering, and C. S. BLACK advertises for six journeymen. Who wants a good berth?
Get your life insured, and thus insure to your family a sufficient competence in the event of your death. The Susquehanna Company at Harrisburg, offers every inducement. Dr. B. V. WILSON of this place is the examining physician, and Dr. A. T. SCHRAYER, is the agent for Clearfield county.
A horse, buggy, and harness, can be bought cheap of W. M. RAMBO, at Curwensville.
Our lady readers who desire to send to Philadelphia for Millinery, &c. &c., will find the establishment of JANE MILLER at No. 8 South Sixth St., upper side, where all orders will be punctually attended to.
It will be seen in another column, that BLAIR & BARRETT have opened the MOUNT VERNON for the reception of visitors. We wish them abundant success, and have no doubt our Clearfield friends visiting the City, will call where they will always meet a warm and welcome reception.
Secure the shadow, ere the substance fades," and call at PEARL'S Daguerrean Gallery on 2nd st., two doors north of Powell & Co.'s Store.
It is always a good plan for men in business to settle up their accounts regularly. JAMES B. GRAHAM, adopting this course, calls promptly upon those having dealings with him to come forward and settle up.
Those of our farmers who have orchards, should procure one of Hickok's portable cider mills, which are represented as one of the very best articles of the kind ever invented. L. R. CARTER, is the agent in this place.
The "Corporal" in his perambulation a few days since, while searching for the "Know Noughts," observed a crowd pouring into the room next door to the Journal office. Of course he followed, but discovered the cause of attraction to be a splendid and cheap assortment of boots and shoes, recently opened there by C. S. BLACK. From the excellent quality of his work, the "Corporal" came to the conclusion that CHARLEY did not belong to the Order.
It will be seen that D. W. ROBBINS & Co., at Lumber City, have dissolved partnership. The Books and accounts are in the hands of D. W. ROBBINS for settlement.
M. A. FRANK Esq., informs his friends and the public, that he has removed his business stand two doors east of the Journal office, in Graham's Row, where he will be happy to attend to those who may give him a call.
We call the attention of painters, and others to the fact, that a large and excellent supply of White Lead and Linseed Oil, has just been received at MOSSOP & POTTS' & Co.
We request the attention of our readers to the card of IRVING & IRVING in another column, but this I know, that you were born in Ireland. "Och, your honor, if that's all," said the boy, "small blame that. Suppose your lord's cat had kittens in the oven, would they be lord's or bread?" The boy got the place.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE AT PITTSBURG.

About 11 o'clock on the 21st inst., a fire broke out in the extensive drug warehouse of B. A. FALNOSTOCK & Co., on the corner of Wood and Front streets, and before the flames could be checked, the whole of that extensive edifice was in a heap of ruins, together with nearly all of its contents. From the combustible nature of the material, the flames spread very rapidly, and notwithstanding the quick appearance on the ground of the neighboring fire companies with their apparatus, nothing could be done to quell the flames in the warehouse, and the main effort was to protect the adjoining buildings.
From the drug store the flames extended to the glass warehouse of F. & J. MCKEE & Co., on Wood street, which was burned down. With this building the fire was checked on Wood street.
On Front street, the foundry warehouse of Robinson & Minis, a two story building, adjoining the drug store, was crushed in and destroyed by the falling of the walls of the latter, which extended two or three stories above the roof, but for this misfortune the building would have escaped.
The walls of the drug store were thick and substantial, but owing to the intense heat they fell, and fell outward on Front and Wood streets, with the exception of a portion immediately on the corner, fortunately, however, no one was hurt by the falling of the walls.
The building opposite, across Front and Wood streets, were in imminent danger, and nothing but the most active exertions on the part of the firemen and citizens saved them from being burned to a cinder.
Owing to the confusion which prevailed during and after the fire, we were unable to gather any thing very definite in regard to the amount of insurance on the property destroyed, but we are informed that the loss of Messrs. B. A. FALNOSTOCK & Co. is probably between $80,000 and $100,000, including building and stock, which was covered by insurance, in different offices, to the amount of between $60,000 and $70,000. Of the loss of F. & J. MCKEE we understand nothing definite, but we understand that they had an insurance of about $5,000.
The loss of Robinson & Minis will be trifling, less, probably, than $500.
MORE IRVINGERY.—Baby Fairs or Exhibitions are now all the rage. A great one is soon to come off in Springfield, Ohio. The inquiry has been made to ascertain the exact points which will govern the committee in making the awards—whether it will be the color of the eyes, ringlets or straight hair, the physical development of the body, the number and size of the teeth, the color of the complexion, the tone of the voice or the general appearance of the cherubs.
The editor of the Cincinnati Gazette seems to be puzzled to find out the utility of the show.
"We cannot, however, see what practical good will result from this baby exhibition, in her way. Is it presumed that these shows will be a means of improving the breed, as they do short-horns, Berkshires and Morgans? If so, how is the thing to be done? Are all the babies hereafter to be fattened and slicked up for County Fairs in the Autumn, until their skins shine like varnish, and their legs are so plump that you cannot see the knee-joints? Are they all to have denticle-chins?"
DETERMINED SUICIDE.—An old man named Frederick Mathias, committed self-destruction, at the Allegheny City Poor House, on Tuesday, by cutting his throat with a common table knife. The deceased was an American by birth, and was something over seventy years of age. His health was bad for some time previous to his death, and it is supposed that this affected his mind, and led him to the commission of the rash act. The deliberate manner in which the suicide carried out his design of self-destruction is astonishing. He procured a common table knife, and, proceeding to a grindstone, he beat out into sharp shavings. Putting the edge was yet too blunt to effect his purpose, he rubbed it repeatedly on his boot, after which he retired to an old shed on the premises, and severed the carotid artery. An inquest was held on the body, when a verdict in accordance with the facts, as above stated, was rendered.

DETERMINED SUICIDE.

YANKEES IN CANADA.—Squatters from the United States are settling upon the mineral lands on the north shore of Lake Superior, the Provincial Parliament of Canada having passed an act granting to aliens the right of purchasing and conveying lands to the extent of four hundred acres each. Large tracts of land in that region having been put into market by the government at one dollar and one dollar and a quarter per acre, without reserving the mineral lands, the Yankees have prospected for copper and iron, and having made rich discoveries, squat upon the lands, enter their claims, and jointly or separately purchase them.
MEMBER OF EMIGRANTS IN KANSAS BY THE PIONEER PLATFORM.—The editor of the Democratic Platform in his issue of the 7th, says: "While in Kansas last week, we learned that a party of ten emigrants visited the neighborhood of the Big Blue, for the purpose of making claims. The party divided—half of them traveling up stream, while the other half, by the government of the river, were attacked by the Pawnee Indians, and the entire body, five in number, killed. We could not learn their names, but learn they are from Missouri."
CAMPBELL ACCIDENT.—Another serious accident occurred on Thursday evening, to a lady named Campbell, who resided in Wood street below Thirteenth. It appears the lady was in the act of striking a nail with a hammer, when she accidentally struck a lamp she held in her hand, breaking it and causing the fluid to run over her person; burning her in a shocking manner. A gentleman who assisted in extinguishing the flames, had his hand seriously burned. The former sufferer remained in a critical condition during Friday, and the latter suffers much pain, the flesh being burned entirely from the wrist.—Sun.
A NOVEL KIND OF CISTERN.—There is nothing like a life in California to brighten the life of a poor man, who resides in Wood street below Thirteenth. In San Francisco a few weeks since the hull of an old vessel was discovered buried beneath the surface of one of the principal streets, and after some cogitation it was decided to convert it into a huge cistern or reservoir for the reception of water. The thought was no sooner conceived than executed, and the fire department turned out in high glee to fill it from the bay.
The ladies of Rochester including the wives of fourteen clergymen, twenty physicians, and some 150 citizens have addressed a scorching letter to Governor Seymour on the subject of his veto of the Maine law. The Governor is handled without any special reference to the aptness of his personal feelings.

A CHURCH CASE.

A CHURCH CASE.—A singular trial is now in progress in one of the Providence, Rhode Island courts. Some time since, a young lawyer of Providence was detected at the Marlborough Hotel, in Boston, dressed in woman's clothes. His female wardrobe a very valuable one, valued at some hundred dollars, was taken from him and given into the hands of a Providence Policeman, who was to give it to the lawyers office. She being away from the place, it was not done, and the owner had the officer arrested for theft, in keeping the clothes from him. An amusing list of this clothing was published in one of the Providence papers, a few days ago, which showed a very extensive female outfit. The case is exciting much interest, as the gentleman, besides being a married man, is a church member, school teacher, &c.
INFORMATION WANTED.—David M. Brains had a man who has for many years lived in this vicinity, disappeared rather mysteriously some two or three months ago, and has not since been heard of. His habits were in some respects those of a hermit. He resided most of the time in a shanty about four miles from Ridgway. The last that was known of him, he started from his shanty to come to Ridgway. We understand he was formerly from Connecticut. His name was John Smith. Any information concerning him will be thankfully received by his friends here. Editors, copying the above will confer a favor upon the friends of Mr. Brains.—Elk County Advertiser.
PROGRESS IN MAINE.—The result of the recent election in Maine has completely extinguished all opposition to the principle of prohibition and reduced it to a contemptible minority. Not a single State Senator, and only one Representative in favor of repeal, has been elected; both the Congressmen were killed off, who voted against the whiskey reform in the navy, and the U. S. Senate from Quoddy, now at Kittery Point, has been swept clear of all the influences of distillers and liquor sellers. This is, indeed, a triumph to be proud of!
THE GREAT NAVIES OF THE WORLD.—We find in our exchanges a table showing the result of the first five navies of the world. It purports to come from a pamphlet published by an intelligent naval officer. Here it is:
Vessels of War No. of guns.
England 667 18,320
France 328 7,144
Russia 170 5,890
Holland 102 2,318
United States 60 1,350
FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—Early on Saturday morning, a laborer on the Cumberland Valley Railroad was killed on the railroad, near Carlisle. The unfortunate man was reaching for a lumber on the track, when the cow-catcher struck him under the ear and, throwing him some distance, he then rolled under the train, and was instantly killed.
