

THE JOURNAL.

BUSINESS ITEMS.

We presume most of our citizens recollect an estimable young man named J. B. Boone, formerly of this country. He may now be found at the large and splendid Boot and Shoe House of BOKER, BROTHERS & JONES, No. 158 & 160 Market St., Philadelphia, where he will be happy to meet his large circle of Clearfield acquaintances and to accommodate them with a cheap and elegant stock of city and eastern made boots and shoes. Give him a call, he's a clever fellow, and is with a good firm.

We were much pleased, on our recent visit to Philadelphia, by the appearance of J. H. PALMTHORP, Jr.'s Chemical and Drug establishment at No. 89 South Second St. Those of our Merchants, Druggists and Physicians who desire to lay in a good and cheap stock, cannot do better than call on Mr. Palmthorp.

Opposite the Red Lion Hotel in Philadelphia, at 245 Market St., there is a large and elegant Queensware establishment, not surpassed by any similar House in the City. Our merchants can always obtain a splendid stock, at the lowest prices, from JOHN Y. RESHTON & Co., Importers and dealers in Earthenware, China, Glass, &c. See advertisement.

There will be a Public Sale, on Saturday the 18th inst., at the former residence of F. P. HURTHAL, in this borough. See Notice.

Persons having unsettled accounts with F. P. HURTHAL, are requested to call and settle them. See Notice in another column.

Let it be published in Clearfield, let it be known in Curwensville, let it be proclaimed throughout the county, let it be wafted by the Susquehanna, that PATTON & HIPPLE, have just received the largest and best selected stock of goods ever brought to Curwensville. See advertisement in another column.

By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that JAMES ALEXANDER, of Tyrone City, is prepared to supply persons wishing Oysters by the Can, at the most reasonable rates.

A. & J. Patchin have taken the store formerly owned by John Patchin & sons. They have just received a large stock of new goods. See advertisement in another column.

J. P. Nelson & Co. take pleasure in informing their old customers that they have just received a large stock of Dry Goods Groceries &c. &c.

Our merchants and others visiting the city will do well to call at BAILY & BROTHER'S, 252 Chestnut St., and examine their splendid assortment of carpeting, floor oil cloths, matting &c. &c.

Although a good deal of business was done during Court week, the new, splendid and cheap assortment of goods just received by Wm. F. Irwin, was by no means exhausted. He offers for sale, emphatically, the best and cheapest goods in the county. Call and see.

An extensive purchase was lately effected by Geo. D. Morgan & Co., of all the lands in Centre and Clearfield counties belonging to HARMON PHILIPS. They are now offered for sale on easy terms, in lots, or otherwise to suit purchasers. See advertisement.

It will be seen that our young friend Jos. Showers has disposed of his interest in the firm of PATTON & SHOWERS, to E. A. HIPPLE. The business will be hereafter conducted under the style and firm of PATTON & HIPPLE.

A large assortment of all kinds of lumber, plastering lath, &c., may always be found at the "Pioneer Mills," of Capt. Henry Groe, on the Moschener. Those who desire bills sawed, will find the Capt. a prompt business man, and true to his promises.

It is said that money is exceedingly tight, but nevertheless M. A. FRANK, has just purchased a large, new, and splendid assortment of Gentlemen's dress goods and ready made clothing. As Frank is a pretty clever fellow, he deserves to be patronized. Store two doors East of Journal office.

The shoemaking business is prospering, and C. S. BLACK advertises for six journeymen. Who wants a good berth?

It will be seen in another column, that BLAIR & BARRETT have opened the MOUNT VERNON for the reception of visitors. We wish them abundant success, and have no doubt our Clearfield friends visiting the City, will call where they will always meet a warm and welcome reception.

Secure the shadow, ere the substance fades," and call at PURVIANCE'S Daguerrean Gallery on 2nd st., two doors north of Powell & Co's. Store.

It is always a good plan for men in business to settle up their accounts regularly.—JAMES B. GRAHAM, adopting this course, calls peremptorily upon those having dealings with him to come forward and settle up.

Those of our farmers who have orchards, should procure one of Hickok's portable cider mills, which are represented as one of the very best articles of the kind ever invented. L. R. CARTER, is the agent in this place.

The "Corporal" in his perigrinations a few days since, while searching for the "Know Nothings," observed a crowd pouring into the room next door to the Journal office. Of course he followed, but discovered the cause of attraction to be a splendid and cheap assortment of boots and shoes, recently opened there by C. S. BLACK. From the excellent quality of his work, the "Corporal" came to the conclusion that CHARLEY did not belong to the Order.

The Prohibitory Liquor Law.

At a meeting of the Temperance Executive Committee, in Philadelphia, on Thursday evening last, the following Preamble and Resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That we are mortified and pained that the expression of the popular will should have failed to stamp the promiscuous sale of ardent spirits with the reprobation which it deserves.

Resolved, That the vote cast is a clear indication of abhorrence of the people of the rum traffic, and the meagre majority against Prohibition would have been overcome twice told, had it not been for diversity of views among the friends of this measure as to the expediency and utility of meeting, as they deemed the popular vote an abstract issue on the principle of Prohibition.

Resolved, If in portions of the State the people choose that "rum and ruin" shall continue to be rampant, we have a right, from the vote here cast in favor of the prohibition, to demand of the Legislature protection from the demoralizing effects of the rum traffic throughout our entire Consolidated City.

THE TRIBUNE'S PRESS ROOM.—The foreman of the Tribune gives a statement of what was done in the press room of that establishment on Thursday and part of Friday, the 26th and 27th ult. They commenced at 4 o'clock A. M., on Thursday, and in thirty hours had printed and mailed one thousand and eighty-two or three hundred and sixty-four thousand eight hundred impressions. By far the larger portion of the blank paper was received during Thursday forenoon, and of course had to be wet and turned. Had this paper been all in one pile it would have reached the height of seventy feet; its weight, when mailed, would have been about twenty thousand eight hundred pounds—in cubical measurement, about seven hundred and fifty feet and a half—its superficial measurement, if all spread out, would be about forty and a quarter acres—the lineal measurement would reach about one hundred and twenty-six and two-third miles.

FIX IN THE JURY BOX.—On Tuesday morning the District Court commenced the trial of a cause in which the jurors sworn heard the evidence during the whole day, and were adjourned until Wednesday morning. In the morning all the jurors answered their names at roll call, and twelve jurors entered the box and answered to the twelve names called over by the Clerk. Just as counsel were resuming the argument of the cause, one of the jurors whispered to the clerk that he thought there was a stray man in the box. When asked what he meant, he answered, that the man who sat beside him yesterday had black hair, while the chap sitting there now was red headed. The clerk then asked the gentleman if he was Mr. Jones; he answered yes, but not John Jones, and very innocently added, "My brother's very sick this morning, and he just sent me in to finish this case." Of course the clerk didn't laugh.—Pitts Union.

How the "Fast" Reporter was Treated. It is rumored that the reporter of a certain evening paper in this city—a "fast" chap, by the way—learning that the Know-Nothing Convention was to be held in Tremont Temple on Wednesday, secreted himself in the baptismal tank to take secret notes of the secret proceedings. An "examining committee" ascertaining this fact, let on the water, giving the unucky eaves-dropper a more complete introduction to aqua pura than he had enjoyed for years past. At the same Convention, another curious individual was found snugly ensconced in one of the organ's pipes, whether or no the music was let on to give the gentleman a "blow out," he has not been able to ascertain. Oh! David!—Boston Know-Nothing.

THE MAINE LAW IN CANADA.—The Maine Law has passed the Legislative Assembly of Canada by a vote of 85 to 5, and it will doubtless pass the Council, and immediately become a law. Thus Canada precedes the majority of the States in the enactment of this great democratic measure for the prevention of crime and pauperism. However they will all follow the example.

It is probable, as we are assured by our correspondent at Quebec, that the importation of liquors and wines will finally be prohibited in the Canadas, as well as their sale.—Tribune.

PROGRESS OF THE AMERICAN PARTY.—Recent elections show that the progress of the American party cannot be arrested; and that it must finally place in the Presidential chair, and in the two houses of Congress, those who will throw aside their old party attachments, and devote themselves to the true American principles and policy now proclaimed by the American Associations. Corrupt politicians may resist to their utmost, and attempt to stay the tide which is now overwhelming them and their corruptions, but they will be swept down the mighty current and lost forever.

BREAKING UP OF THE SUNDAY LIQUOR TRAFFIC.—The Temperance people of Jersey City, having entered earnestly upon the attempt to break up the liquor traffic, have procured the entering of eleven hundred complaints against various persons, and a number have been already convicted. On Sunday not a single drunken person was seen in the streets, and it said if any person should be caught coming out of a grocery the least intoxicated, he would be arrested and locked up as a witness. There are but two places licensed to sell liquor, and those are hotels.—Sun.

NOT A WOMAN OR CHILD SAVED.—In his statement in regard to the loss of the Arctic, Capt. Luce places the engineers, the crew and the firemen of the Arctic in the most odious light. They behaved like cowards and wretches rather than men—and the fact that thus far we have not heard of the rescue of a woman or child, is perhaps the bitterest and the most withering commentary that could be offered upon their atrocious conduct!

THE RELICS OF THE ARCTIC EXPEDITION.—The English book of heraldry describes the crest of Sir John Franklin as precisely like that described by Dr. Rae, in No. 5 and No. 4, as the crest and motto exactly of Lieut. Fairholme of the expedition. The initials on one of the forks, H. D. S. G.—are evidently those of Assistant Surgeon, H. D. S. Goodside, and that of A. McD., those of Surgeon A. McDonald.

EFFECT OF THE MAINE LAW.—The prohibitory law of Connecticut went into operation on the 1st of August. Now look at the effect in the City of New Haven. In that city the commitments for drunkenness and offences resulting therefrom, during the month of July, were:

Table with 2 columns: Location, Count. To the County Jail, 50; To the City Watch-House, 73; Total, 123; Commitments for like offences during the month of August: To the County Jail, 16; To the City Watch-House, 15; Total, 31; The difference between the last month of licenses and the first of prohibition is just ninety-two.

On Tuesday evening, that being the appointed time for the ending of all subsidiary things according to the Millerite belief, some forty of the believers in that doctrine assembled at South Boston, arrayed in white robes, and anxiously awaited the moment when they should make their grand ascension.

AUNT KOSY was dividing a mince pie among the boys, when Jim, who had wickedly pulled the cat's tail, asked for his share, the dame replied, "No, Jim, you are a wicked boy, and the bible says there is no piece for the wicked."

FATAL AFFRAY.—CHAUNCEY F. STONER was beaten to death by some Irish laborers, in Pocatontas, Somerset county, Pa., on Saturday evening last. The outrage was unprovoked on the part of Mr. Stoner.

The amount of the wealth of Sevastopol is computed to be $20,000,000. The fortifications have cost not less than $7,000,000, and the military and naval stores are of prodigious value.
