

CLEARFIELD, PA., Wednesday, December 6, 1854.

RAIL ROAD MEETING. A meeting of the friends of the Tyrone and Clearfield Railroad...

BOOK TABLE. HOUSEHOLD WORDS, for December, has been received. It is an excellent number of one of the best re-prints of a foreign periodical...

ADJUTANT GENERAL. We learn that Maj. OVER, of the Bedford Inquirer, will be strongly recommended for the appointment of Adjutant General...

LOCOFOCO STATE COMMITTEE. The renowned J. Ellis Bonham, with whose long, windy, and unfortunate addresses, the Locofoco papers were filled during the late contest...

THE USURY LAWS. The question of the repeal of the Usury Laws of Penna., is being generally discussed by the public journals of the Commonwealth...

U. S. SENATORS TO ELECT. At the approaching session of the respective Legislatures there will be Senators of the United States to elect in Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin, Arkansas, Missouri, Louisiana, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, New York, Maine, and California...

LITERARY IMPOSTERS.

Authorship, like all other professions, has its impostors and empirics, and perhaps, we can find no more profitable employment...

GEMELLI CARRERI, of Naples, was for a long series of years confined to his chamber by a lingering illness, during which time he amused himself by writing the history of a voyage round the world...

THEYENOT, the Royal Librarian of France, who was never beyond the boundaries of his own country, wrote ten large volumes of "Voyages and Travels..."

Who has not heard of the "Island of Formosa"? It is one of the most brilliant literary deceptions on record, and defied the penetration of the learned...

Empty—our pocket-book. Full—our letter box, with duns. Scarce—money and printing paper.

ITEMARIAN.

The best capital for a young man is a capital young wife. Hydrophobia prevails among some of the animals in Lancaster co.

The New York Kansas League has sent out eight hundred settlers. Jenny Lind has hinted that she may again visit this country professionally.

There is no pride in heaven, because no corruption for it to thrive on. The lady who threads the streets so much is in danger a basting.

Among the literary curiosities recently brought to light in London, is a poem of 700 lines in the handwriting of Goldsmith.

FAVING FOR PLACE.

FRIEND SWOOPES—I suppose thou hast observed, as I have done, with a good deal of indignation, what I would call the sycophancy of the Pennsylvania Telegraph...

Now I tell thee, I have no objection to thy friend Miller wanting an office. He has as good a right to it as any other man, if he is as well qualified—and I consider integrity a necessary, yea, an indispensable qualification...

At seven o'clock on the evening of October the 10th, 1854, we believed JAMES POLLOCK to be the Governor elect of Pennsylvania...

Well now, I have no particular objection to all that either, if there was nothing more hateful to come after it. While this is pretty good evidence that thy friend Miller wants to be paid...

For the Journal.

ask indignantly, is Slavery or Liberty a part of Americanism? We must be Americanized! We are Americanized! American Liberty has grown in us with our bones...

And dost thou not know, that the Telegraph, and the papers he quotes from, crowded before they were out of the woods, and that the Anti-Slavery, Temperance, American, Know-Nothing party have elected their man, and that Clark is that man?

Now I tell thee, I have no objection to thy friend Miller wanting an office. He has as good a right to it as any other man, if he is as well qualified—and I consider integrity a necessary, yea, an indispensable qualification...
