The Know Nothing head quarters, in Curwensville, are open during the day to visitors, and Jacob Derrick, the proprietor, is always ready to do every variety of Blacksmithing in the best style and most durable manner. Give him a call.

The general complaint about hard times should induce us to be cautious, and endeavor to purchase cheap and substantial goods. Those merchants who have this object in view, when laying in their stock, will do well to call at PAUL & TAYLOR'S Wholesale Boot, Shoe and Straw Goods Warehouse, No. 255 Market St., Phila.

The best Tobacco establishment in Philadelphia is that of PATRICK & HIPPLE, 105 Third St., five doors below Race. They keep every variety of tobacco and cigars. The best Havanas, Regalias, Principes, &c., are directly imported, by themselves, and can be confidently relied on as the genuine article.

All lovers of good oysters, sailines, &c., should call at the new Restaurant, in the basement of Hemphill's Hotel, where our friend CHARLES GRAY, will be delighted to accommodate them. Charles's soul is the "good question." See Card, in another column.

It is feared that the result of the Election in New York has proved unfavorable, but the result of an examination of Jas. B. GRAMAM's splendid assortment of fall & winter goods at his store in Grahampton, will prove highly satisfactory. Call and try it.

Since the result of the election has secured the safety of the country, our citizens can find time to devote their attention more exclusively to business. To those desiring to purchase goods, Mrs. ELIZA IRVIN & SONS, offer desirable inducements at their new store in New Washington.

It will be seen that GRAMAM and WARSON have dissolved partnership. The business will hereafter be carried on by JAMES B. GRAMAM.

We presume most of our citizens recollect an estimable young man named J. B. BOONER, formerly of this county. He may now be found at the large and splendid Boot and Shoe House of BOKER, BROTHERS & JONES, No. 158 & 160 Market St., Philadelphia, where he will be happy to meet his large circle of Clearfield acquaintances and to accommodate them with a cheap and elegant stock of city and eastern made boots and shoes. Give him a call, he's a clever fellow, and is with a good firm.

We were much pleased, on our recent visit to Philadelphia, by the appearance of J. H. PALTHEORP, Jr.'s Chemical and Drug establishment at No. 89 South Second St. Those of our Merchants, Druggists and Physicians who desire to lay in a good and cheap stock, cannot do better than call on Mr. Paltheorp.

Opposite the Red Lion Hotel in Philadelphia, at 245 Market St., there is a large and elegant Queensware establishment, not surpassed by any similar House in the City. Persons having unsettled accounts with F. P. HURTHAL, are requested to call and settle them. See Notice in another column.

Let it be published in Clearfield, let it be known in Curwensville, let it be proclaimed throughout the county, let it be wafted by the gentle breeze along the West Branch of the Susquehanna, that PATRICK & HIPPLE, have just received the largest and best selected stock of goods ever brought to Curwensville. The New Cent.—We have received, says the Daily News, from a friend a specimen of the new cent, which it is proposed to issue from the new mint, and which has been cast with a view to determine the expediency of a change in the coin on the part of the Government. It is decidedly neat in appearance, and is constituted of ninety-five parts copper, four parts zinc, and one part tin. It is smaller than the coin now in use, and differs from it on the face by the absence of the stars, the head of Liberty being somewhat smaller, but of the same diameter. The reverse side precisely similar to the coin now in use, but the whole is a decided improvement.

Deaths.

In Houston twp., Clearfield County, Jan. 22, 1855. SARAH WIFE of Benner Herret aged 65 years, 11 months and 24 days. She contracted religion early in life, and was a consistent member of the Christian Church for more than thirty years. About the year 1843 she united herself with the P. W. Baptist Ch. in this town, and was a member of that body. By the will of him who doth all things well, death was permitted to dissolve the ties which bound her to earth. By this stroke a hitherto unbroken family circle was severed, and a large number of friends are made to mourn. Truly God's ways are not as the ways of man, and we are admonished that everything earthly is uncertain but death. But we mourn not as those who had died, leaving no evidence as to where they have been taken, with the assurance that we ourselves were without hope; we look forward to the time when we shall recognize her among the blood washed through which assemblance made the throne of God.
The deceased was the mother of twelve children, all of whom were present to mourn her decease. Her death was caused by dropsy, after two years of great suffering. She fell asleep in Jesus, leaving a bright example for her acceptance.
J. P. H.
On the 4th of Jan in Morris township, JONAS HERBERT, aged 28 years, 2 months, and 23 days. How sweet the hour of closing day. When all is peaceful and serene. And when the sun with cloudless ray, sheds mellow lustre o'er the scene.
