Deaths.

On the 1st. of Jan. inst, of Typhoid fever, after severe illness of eighteen days. Ermina, maiden daughter of Ebenzer and Sarah Hewet, aged 26 ys.

She has left an aged father and eleven brothers and sisters together with numeraus other relatives to mourn her loss, and died beloved and respected by all who know her: it might be said of her, that her last days were her best days.

Faith in Chist had 10bed death of its sting; and the glorious future filled her heart with great joy. She parted with her friends with the pleasing prospect of meeting them all again "where sickness, pain, and death are feared and felt no more. "She died away without a struggle or a groan." Like the evening breeze among the grass that on the rocks had grown." "And we are glad she has lived thus long. And glad that she has gone to her reward, Nor deem that kindly nature did her wrong, Softly to disengage the vital cord."

When her meek hand grow palsied, and her eye. Dark with the mist of death, it was her time to Sermon from Rom. C 3, 26, by D. Davis.
