

THE JOURNAL.

Those of our merchant friends who desire to lay in a first rate stock of Drugs and Chemicals, and to buy from a first rate firm, should call 128 Market St., on their next visit to the City, at RUSSELL & SCOTT'S.

The Collectors of County and State Tax who are in arrears, had better come up to the mark, or they'll get themselves into a bad box! The Commissioners are determined that it shall be paid. See Notice.

Land speculators will see an opportunity offered them, by the Orphans' Court Sale advertised in another column.

We publish this week, the Receipts and Expenditures of Clearfield County, which will be found interesting.

It frequently happens that when our people are returning from the East they find the Stage full, and are compelled to walk or lie over at Tyrone. These difficulties will now be obviated since JAMES CROWTHER has opened his new Livery Stable, where horses and buggies may be had at all times on reasonable terms.

What Clearfield merchant is not acquainted with J.M. DONALDSON, and where you will find a better fellow? He may always be found at the corner of 3d & Race, Philadelphia, ready to supply his friends with a first rate article of Tobacco and Cigars. See Card.

Merchants and others desiring to purchase Tin and Sheet Iron ware, will find excellent terms afforded by LYMAN GILBERT, at his Wholesale Factory, No. 16, Market street, Harrisburg, Penn'a. Price lists furnished on application, post-paid. See advertisement.

It is said the "Nix-Weisers" were about New Washington at the late Election. We don't know that may be, but we do know that D. S. PLOTNER keeps one of the best Temperance Hotels in the three counties. Give him a call. See card in another column.

The best natured, cleverest pair of fellows in the "Wild Cat district,"—FLEMING & FORZES, have opened a Livery Stable in Curwensville, and are prepared to accommodate the public with all sorts of Vehicles, &c., on reasonable terms. Via la Good Intent.

The construction of the Railroad to Tyrone, would enable our citizens to make their purchases at the "Tyrone City Drug Store," with greater facility. But as this consummation so devoutly to be wished has not yet come to pass, our friend DR. MARTIN has very properly taken the difficulties of access into consideration, and reduced the profits on his goods. It is now emphatically the best and cheapest Drug Store in the country. Call and see.

By a card in another column the numerous friends of E. L. BARRETT, will observe that he has changed his House, and may now be found at 73 Market street, Phil'a. Enoch is a clever fellow, has a large number of friends in Clearfield County, and ought to do well. We wish him abundant success, and are glad to hear he is with a good firm. Go and see him.

A young man who understands the tailoring business, will find a good berth, either as a partner or foreman, with D. S. PLOTNER, at New Washington, after the 1st of May next.

In passing through Phillipsburg, some time ago, we had occasion to stop with DAVID JOHNSTON, who keeps the "Phillipsburg Hotel," and we must say, we never sat down to a better table, or met with a more gentlemanly, accommodating landlord. We advise all our friends who are fond of good accommodations to stop with 'Squire Johnston. See notice.

The general complaint about "hard times" should induce us to be cautious, and endeavor to purchase cheap and substantial goods. Those merchants who have this object in view, when laying in their stock, will do well to call at PAUL & TAYLOR'S Wholesale Boot, Shoe and Straw Goods Warehouse, No. 255 Market St., Phil'a.

The best Tobacco establishment in Philadelphia is that of FLEMING & BROTHERS, 105 Third St., five doors below Race. They keep every variety of tobacco and cigars. The best Havanas, Regalias, Principes, &c., are directly imported, by themselves, and can be confidently relied on as the genuine article.

Our friend the Brigade Inspector, at Gettysburg, has just received a new and splendid assortment of goods. Clark is a clever fellow, and we advise all our friends to give him a call.

All lovers of good oysters, sardines, &c., should call at the new Restaurant, in the basement of Hemphill's Hotel, where our friend CHARLEY GERRAFF, will be delighted to accommodate them. Clarkey's sound on the "goose question." See Card, in another column.

It is feared that the result of the Election in New York has proved unfavorable, but the result of an examination of JAS. B. GRAMM's splendid assortment of fall & winter goods at his store in Grahampton, will prove highly satisfactory. Call and try it.

We presume most of our citizens recollect an estimable young man named J. B. BOOSE, formerly of this county. He may now be found at the large and splendid Boot and Shoe House of BOKER, BROTHERS & JONES, No. 158 & 160 Market St., Philadelphia, where he will be happy to meet his large circle of Clearfield acquaintances and to accommodate them with a cheap and elegant stock of city and eastern made boots and shoes. Give him a call, he's a clever fellow, and is with a good firm.

The attention of those having accounts with the late firm of FELTON & CO., is directed to a Notice in another column.

The Stockholders in the Curwensville Bridge are notified that there will be an election for officers.

TEMPORAL POWER OF THE POPE.

The New York Crusader (Cassini's paper), is putting some very hard questions to Hon. Mr. Chandler, of this State, suggested by his speech in the House of Representatives, denying that the Pope of Rome exercised any political power out of, or away from, his own petty dominions. The Crusader joins issue with Mr. Chandler in regard to the Pope's political power, and asserts it to be a fact that "the Bishops are bound to report at Rome, at least once a year, what transpires, politically, in their several dioceses." Those who have read Mr. Chandler's speech will recollect his declaration that "if the spirit of conquest should seize on the wearer of the tiara, and he should seek to subjugate Italy, provoking the arms of other nations against his own State, he (Mr. Chandler) would look on the chances of the defeat of his own arms as coolly and complacently as on the mischievous schemes of any other ambitious monarch." But the Crusader with much force enquires:— "Has Mr. Chandler forgotten already that Pius IX. provoked, in 1849, the arms of other nations against his own State? That French, Austrians, Spaniards, Neapolitans, Lazzaronis, and Swiss, banditti, were called by the Vicar of Christ to subjugate his people? Perhaps the Hon. American Representative will say that the Pope was only attempting to re-conquer what he had been deprived of, and that he was right, such being also the opinion of every Bishop in the United States, in proof of which he has only to read the pastoral letters and sermons of Bishops England, Kendrick, Hughes, etc., etc. But, admitting this right for the Pope, then you must also acknowledge that George III. was justified in waging war against the United States, unless you will consider the Romans as not belonging to the human family, and not children, like the Americans, of the same God.

But Mr. Chandler will reply, as is customary with all Catholic Romish writers, and orators, that the Romans attempted to deprive the Pope of his spiritual power, and do away with the religion of their fore-fathers. Unfortunately for him, and for all the members of his Papal congregation, the Constitution of the Roman Republic, decreed by the unanimous vote of the people, in 1849, stated:—

"Art. 7. The Catholic religion is the religion of the State.

"The exercise of the civil and political rights of a citizen do not depend upon the religious creed.

"Art. 8. The Chief of the Catholic church will receive all necessary guarantees for the independent exercise of the spiritual power."

By the above articles it will be seen that the framers of the Roman Constitution did not intend to deprive the Pope of his spiritual power, nor to renounce the Catholic religion. The Crusader presents facts which Mr. Chandler will find it difficult to overcom, set aside, or explain away. We shall look on with some interest to see if any effort is made by the other side to nullify them.

En passant, the Metropolitan Catholic Almanac for 1855, mentions among the list of "Prelates who have retired from office," the Right Rev. Frederick Reiz, Bishop of Detroit, deceased October 6, 1854. This calls to the recollection of the Philadelphia Daily Star, "a most shameful act of injustice and barbarity against this gentleman, for the perpetration of which Rome would have been called to account by any other government in Christendom, had he been its citizen. Bishop Reiz is a citizen of the State of Michigan, and yet he has been for years incarcerated in a Roman dungeon, without any one knowing why Congress has demanded his release, his old fellow citizens of Detroit, who love him, have implored it, and the Representatives of the United States at Rome, have asked it, but all in vain. An American citizen is immured in a Papist dungeon, because the Pope holds authority over his life and limb, and no threat or persuasion can effect his release." Here is evidence of the temporal power of the Pope, which Mr. Chandler did not find it expedient to allude to in his laudable defense of the wearer of the tiara. The truth is—Mr. Chandler knows it—"the power of the Pope," in political as well as spiritual matters, is regarded by all true Catholics as supreme. It is also true that the mission of Romanism in this country is for political supremacy,—hence the combination and organization of Roman Catholics, as such, and the concentration of their votes at the ballot boxes to control our elections.—Har. Tel.

COURTESIES OF THE PRESS.—The New York Express, in treating the "Dead Head" question, has the following:—

"It is impossible for the Press so discharge its duties to the public well, without favor from that public. The Reporters for the Press, for example, must have the best places—in deliberate assemblies—at public dinners, &c., or else they cannot actually report. In all public deliberate assemblies, these special favors are always shown them there in free countries. So in operas and theatres—to enable the critic to hear well and judge well, an especial "favor" or a good seat must be given him. If he is no better off in position there, than the great mass of the public, he is not in a position to judge well, and so to write well. The favor is reciprocal. It is the interest of the public thus to be noticed—and it is for the interest of the Press to notice.

Bona fide editors and reporters can now find time to ride but little, and the expense of transporting them can be but little. It is the persuasion of the dead head system, that the public, that has led to its disuse and unpopularity, and the quicker that is corrected the better; but in a country where a free press exists, the cheaper and freer are made the means of collecting all the necessary intelligence to supply its wants, the better for all concerned. The Press is always indefatigable in gathering facts, if the expense of gathering them is not placed beyond its means."

Roman Catholic Secret Association. The Democratic papers are very much alarmed about the American secret political organizations. What do they think of the San Fedisti, the most secret and the most dangerous society which the Roman Catholics have in this country? Its direct object and unalterable determination is to overthrow every institution, government, law and custom that is in opposition to that church. It is the violent hater of Republicanism; it is the sworn and fendiish opponent of Americanism; it wears upon its unhallowed lips the vow to overturn the liberties of this country, and to make the Pope Supreme Ruler. Such is the "San Fedisti," and yet with a full knowledge of its existence in this country, the lips of the Democratic editors are hominically sealed with regard to the designs and operations of this "secret political organization"—Telegraph.

PAPACY AND REPUBLICANISM.—Every day we have more convincing reasons to assert the antagonism of the Roman Church to American Republicanism. The Hickman (Ky.) Times states that a Roman Catholic priest, living in that county, preached a sermon near Wilburn a few days since, in which he attempted to prove that a Republican Government was wrong in principle, in practice and in morals; that it was contrary to the laws of God and nature, ruinous to the interest of the true Church, (the Roman Catholic), and that all who were members of that Church should do everything in their power to break down and destroy any such government.

LIBERTY TO THINK BUT NOT TO SPEAK.

Louis Napoleon, Emperor of France, in answer to a monarchical of the Protestants in that country, praying for permission to exercise the right of conscience in matters of religion, he recognises the rights of liberty of conscience in his subjects, but not liberty of worship. "Most liberal monarch."

MORE RAILROAD TROUBLES.—We learn from the Clinton (Mich.) Express, that one of the contractors on the Oakland and Ottawa railroad, named Gray, on Thursday last had some difficulty with some Irishmen in his employ, in the course of which he was obliged to resort to fire-arms in self-defence. Three Irishmen were shot but none dangerously wounded.

BIBLE SOCIETY MEETING.
