THE JOURNAL.

Those of our readers who so frequently have occasion to visit Tyrone, will find it profitable to call and purchase goods from F. M. Bell & Co. See card in another column.

After their withdrawal, those who remained reception by the proprietor John W. Rider. If John's 'sour krout' is as well 'seasoned' as Mother Moore's, we have no doubt he'll get lots of custom.

Those of our merchant friends who desire to lay in a first rate stock of Drugs and Chemicals, and to buy from a first rate firm, should call 138 Market St., on their next visit to the City, at Russell & Schorr's.

Land speculators will see an opportunity offered them, by the Orphans' Court Sale advertised in another column.

my We publish this week, the Receipts and Expenditures of Clearfield County, which will be found interesting.

It frequently happens that when our people are returning from the East they find the Stage full, and are compelled to walk or lie over at Tyrone. These difficulties will now be obviated since James CROWTHER has opened his new Livery Stable, where horses and buggies may be had at all times on reasonable terms.

What Clearfield merchant is not acquainted with JIM. DONALDSON, and where will you find a better fellow? He may always be found at the corner of 3d & Race, Philadelphia, ready to supply his friends with a first rate article of Tobacco and Cigars. See Card.

Merchants and others desiring to purchase Tin and Sheet Iron ware, will find excellent terms afforded by LYMAN GILBERT, at his Wholesale Factory, No. 16, Market street, Harrisburg, Penn'a. Price lists furnished on application, post-paid. See advertisement.

It isaid the "Nix-Weisers" were about New Washington at the late Election. We don't know how that may be, but we do know that D. S. PLOTNER keeps one of the best Temperance Hotels in the three counties. Give him a call. See card in another column.

The best natured, cleverest pair of fellows in the "Wild Cat district,"-FLEMMING & Forrer, have opened a Livery Stable in Carwensville, and are prepared to accommodate the public with all sorts of Vehicles, &c., reasonable terms. Viva la Good Intent.

The construction of the Railroad to Tyrone, would enable our citizens to make their purchases at the "Tyrone City Drug Store," with greater facility. But as this consumation so devoutly to be wished has not yet come to pass, our friend Dr. Manrin has very properly taken the difficulties of access into consideration, and reduced the profits on his goods. It is now emphatically the best and cheapest Drug Store in the country. Call and see.

By a card in another column the numerous friends of E. L. BARRETT, will observe that he has changed his House, and may new be found at 73 Market street, Phil'a. Enoch is a ciever fellow, has a large number of friends in Clearfield County, and ought to do well. We wish him abundant success, and are glad to hear he is with a good firm. Go and see him.

A young man who understands the tailoring business, will find a good berth, either as a partner or foreman, with D. S PLOTNER, at New Washington, after the 1st of May next.

Dr In passing through Philipsburg, some time ago, we had occasion to stop with DAVID Jourston, who keeps the Philipsburg Hotel, and we must say, we never sat down to a better table, or met with a more gentlemanly, accommodating landlord. We advise all our friends who are fond of good accommodations to stop with 'Squire Johnston. See notice.

The general complaint about shard times should induce us to be cautious, and endeavorto purchase cheap and substantial goods. Those laying in their stock, will do well to call at PAUL & TAYLOR'S Wholesale Boot, Shoe and Straw Goods Wharehouse, No. 255 Market St., Phil'a.

The best Tobacco establishment in Phil adelphia is that of FRISMUTH & BROTHER, 10. Third St., five doors below Race. They keep every variety of tobacco and cigars. The best Havanas, Regalias, Principes, &c., are directly imported, by themseves, and can be confidently relied on as the genuine article.

Our friend the Brigade Inspector, at Glen Hope, has just received a new and splendid assortment of goods. Clark is a clever fellow, and we advise all our friends to give him a call.

All lovers of good oysters, sardines, &c., should call at the new Restaurant, in the basement of Hemphill's Hotel, where our friend CHARLEY GREAFF, will be delighted to accommodate them. Charley's sound on the "goose question." See Card, in another column.

UF It is feared that the result of the Election in New York has proved unfavorable, but the result of an examination of Jas. B. GRA-HAM's splendid assortment of fall & winter goods at his store in Grahampton, will prove highly satisfactory. Call and try it.

We presume most of our citizens reccollect an estimable young man named J. B. Booke, formerly of this county. He may now be found at the large and splendid Boot and Shoe House of Boker, BROTHERS & JONES, No. 158 & 160 Market St., Philadelphia, where he field acquaintances and to accommodate them with a cheap and elegant stock of city and eas- by the mysterious power of an organization beyond

UNITED STATES SEEM TOR.

We amounced in our last that the Convention of the Senate and House, after two unsuccessful ballots, had adjourned until next Tuesday, and promised to give the particulars this week. On the Friday evening previous to the meeting of the Convention, the American Caucus met to nominate a can-Raftsmen, who are going down the river | Conrin 46. At this point, about thirty members withdrew from the Caucus, the reasons for which will be found in their Protest, appended to this artiproceeded to a seventh ballot, when Gen. Sixon CAMERON, was declared the nominee of the Ameri-

> in Caucus; the former agreed to support Mr. Thos-W. WILLIAMS, and the latter, CHAS, W. BUCKALEW. On Tuesday, the House called at 10 o'clock, A. M., the lobbies having been crowded with anxious greatest excitement prevalling among both members and out-siders. A resolution was brought in from the Senate, which had passed that body unanimously, to appoint a Committee to investigate certain charges of bribery connected with the elecion of United States Senator.-It gave rise to an > passed with but one member voting in the negative. At twelve o'clock, the Speaker and members of the Senate, entered the Hall, and the Legislature resolved itself into a Convention to elect a Senator. On the first ballot, CAMERON had 58 votes, CHAS. R. BUCKALEW, 28 votes; THOS. W. WILLIAMS, 3 votes; JAMES VEECH, 7 votes; DAVID WILMOT, 9 votes; J. PRINGLE JONES, 11 votes, and seven scattering.

> A resolution was then introduced to adjourn for three weeks, but was disagreed to. On the second ballot Camenon had 59 votes. Necessary to choice, 66. A resolution was then introduced to adjourn for two weeks, which was carried by four votes, and the Convention adjourned.

> It is exceedingly difficult to predict what may be the result, though we incline to the belief that General Camenon will be elected. The following is the Protest of the bolters:"

High convictions of duty impel the undersigned to submit to their fellow-citizens the following statement .- At the commencement of the present Session of the Legislature, the friends of the American Organization, in the House of Representatives, reolved to act as an independent party. As such, hey mut in easieus, and determined to admit mone to their deliberations but such as were known to be true to the great principles of that Organization. In vindication of those princeiples, they also de-termined to support no man for any office in the gift of the Legislarure, who was not equally known to be true to them, as well as to the interests of the ommonwealth. At the Conventional Caneus, held o nominate a candidate for State Treasurer, memers of the American Organization were refused admittance, simply because they had refused to coote for its capeus nominées. But at the caucus eld on the evening of the 9th inst, those who had een refused admittance to the previous cancus were found in attendance; and some who were only known as bitter enemies of the American Organization, were with us directing and controlling toe nomination of one of the most intriguing, if not the most corrupt politician in the State. A resolution and their own co.es indefinitely postponed the con deration of the resolution. nade to proceed to nominate a candidate for the L Senate by a vive voce vote. An amendment was offered, substituting a vote by ballot. The amend ment was adopted and the resolution carried by a who had no right to be present beld a controlling offinence, or the balance of power. Here let us reflect for a moment upon our own osition. There were before that cassus the name friends were urging them as proper candidates There were in that caucus less than twenty men who openly admitted they would you for Sines Canrany. Under these circumstances it seemed scarcely possible that he could be nominated. He was openly repudiated by three-fourths of the members. and certainly we had no reason to four, with thi open avowal of hostility, for almost any other of e many names before as would have been accepblo. It is true they had masked themselves by he secret ballot; but to use this was more an evidence of cowardice than of perfidy. We could no believe that all who had voted for the secret ballot, had done so to hide themselves from their constituents, or to betray us into the support of a man despised and disowned by every political organiation in Pennsylvania. It was not until we bega ballot, that our betrayal became manifest. was then that we discovered the treachery that was pretending to oppose Camegon, and yet hyperitally and secretly voting for his nomination.

The power that controlled that eaucus was to palpable; corruption was behind the throne, and to wonder that its victims skulked behind a secret ote, and covered their deeds from the eyes and cnowledge of all beholders! Were we justified in leaving the caucus when the idence, to our minds, had become domoastrative ould we, as the representatives of an honest con stituency, have served them with fidelity by re-Could we have exhonorated ourselves from the odium of such a nomination if we had lelayed our departure and aided to consummate such a result? Could we have remained in that auens believing ourselves bound by its action, and justified ourselves in voting for a man whose whole history is but the history of intrigue?—a man who has despised all party obligations, and treated all caucuses with contempt.

The inquiry arises, who is Stuon Cameron? As merchants who have this object in view, when with the word. As a politician, he has always pro fessed to be a Democrat, and yet that party only remembers him because of his treachery, and speaks of him as a traitor. As a Whig, it is his boast that he never voted a Whig ticket in his life-that parbeing saved from such a disgrace. As an Ameran and an Anti-Stavery man, let the record speak or itself. At a County Convention, held in the Court House, on the Second day of last September, SIMON CAMERON was a delegate and an active memper. The following resolutions were offered in hand-writing. Certainly, they met with no oppo-

And even if there be any recent recautation got up for the present emergency, there is not characte enough in the man to impose upon credulity itself But do not the people of Pennsylvania expect something more of the present Legislature than the election of "an old political back !" The great political revolution that brought the American party into power, has no parallel in the history of Pennsylvania. struction the people sought when they put their power into the new organization. They determined to re-buke corruption; they did rebuke corruption, and the party in power stands as a monument of that rebuke. Shall the American party then in the face of all its professions and actions, he now made the dis-honored instrument in elevating Sixon Carron to the highest office in its gift? and thus hold him up tion, the American Caucus met to nominate a can-uidate. On the sixth bailot, Camason had 45, and sonification of Americanism! We trust not. We consider him a fit representative of nothing good; and a fit exponet of no honorable principles. As Pennsylvanians, we remember that our State motto as adopted by our ancestors of seventy-six, is VICTUE, LABERTY, AND INDEPENDENCE." We reverence this glorious old motto; and bear in mind that we but recently swore as representatives, to perform our duties as such, with FIDELITY; fidelity o our constituents, fidelity to our native State, and fidelity to the ennobling principles engraven on On Monday night, the Whigs and Democrats met our State escutcheon. Shall we then, or can we, consistently with the oaths we have taken, support a nomination so destitute of every element of virtue, which would disgrace the American Organization and our native State; and which we feel well assured, our constituents will repudiate with scorn spectators during the whole morning, and the and righteons indignation. We recognize no power in any caucus, to require us thus sacrifice our integrity to throw away our self-respet, or to vio-late our oaths; and therefore it is, that in the independence of freemen, we strike down king caucus at the bidding of our country.

Above our venerated motto, and associated with it in all the memories of the past, and our hopes of the future, is the American Exche-our national animated discussion, but on the vote being called, emblem, and our country's pride. It ever adorns our starry flag; and it spreads its "wings of glory over us" as a protecting angel. When we go into the Hall of the House of Representatives, to execute the most important trust confided to us we de-sire to meet something there having some analogy or concordance with these glorious recollections, and these sacred emblems. Grant us this, or some thing approximating this, and all will be well; and our hearts and our hands will be with you, both to do and to dare. But what we say unto one we say unto all invite us not in there to partake of a buzzard's feast. Ask us not to support a nomination brought about, as we believe, by the concentrated and cohesive power of public plunder, and the superadded element of shameless and whole sale private bribery. All countenance and participation in such things as these, we not only most earnestly and peremptority decline, but have pledged ourselves unitedly and determinedly to oppose Such is a brief and hasty outline of our past ac-
