"UNIFORM PAPER MEASURE."

The bill "to establish a uniform paper measure," pending in our legislature, provides that hereafter a ream of paper shall contain twenty quires of twenty-four sheets each; that blank books shall contain twenty sheets to the quire, and be distinctly marked with the manufacturer's name and the number of quires. The penalty for violating any of these provisions is fixed at fifty dollars, one-half to the county, and one-half to the informer. The object of this bill is to guard against the fraud practised by paper mongers, who sell what's called OF We call the attention of our readers to "short count reams," or reams, the quires of the card of J. Scarcity of Grain in Kentucky. Some idea of the inconvenience, if not absolute suffering, occasioned by the scarcity of grain in portions of Kentucky, may be formed by a perusal of the following paragraph, that

The county authorities of Carroll and Trimble in Kentucky, have sent agents out to purchase corn, which is to be sold at cost delivered to persons able to pay for it, and on a credit to those who are unable to pay now. Trimble county has two depots on the river, one at Garratt's landing, the other at Milton. Yesterday five hundred bushels, the first arrival, was divided out in lots none to exceed fitteen bushels to one person. The scene yesterday at Milton was lively; town crowded with people. Some dissatisfaction was expressed on account of the security required by the county officers for repayment in November. Many were unable to give the security, others would fitable to call and purchase goods from F. M. not; both went away without corn. We understand Trimble county has more corn on the

George W. Jones, son of William and Catharine Jones, of this place, after a short illness of 4 days, in Carroll Co., Ohio, April 10th, aged 34 years. The deceased was a Mexican soldier; in the hour of danger, when his country called for help, he entered the arena of mortal conflict, and amidst the struggles and dangers of that eventful period, battled nobly for his country's rights. After his discharge, he removed to Ohio, where he applied his mind to the study of medicine. In the winter of 853, he attended the Electic Medical College at lincinnati. A short time since he commence practicing medicine at Harlem Springs, in Ohio He remained there but a few months, when death struck the fatal blow, and his hopes for this life were blighted.
