THE JOURNAL.

Our citizens and merchants who desire to purchase jewelry and silver ware, should not fail to embrace the earliest opportunity to visit Avise's cheap "watch and Jewelry store" opposite the Mount Vernon House, Philadelphia. They will find him a gentleman in every particular, and so have their wants supplied at a lower price than at any other establishment. We can confidently recommend him to our readers.

We call the attention of our readers to the card of J. B. Wing Esq, in another column, Mr. Wing, has had a great deal of experience in timber land, and is possessed of much re liable information in regard to our own county. Those having business in his line, cannot entrust it to better hands.

CF Clearfield county is without a Drug Store, or might as well be, and our country merchants who wish to purchase such articles, are compelled to go or send to Philadelphia. We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement in another column of Mr. SAMUEL BERLIN, who has opened a large and splendid establishment at Tyrone. When you go over mand, in behalf of the city and the public, there give him a call.

Our renders will see by a notice in another column that Havs Monnow, has purchased the entire stock of tools &c of John R. Morrow, and will continue to earry on the Cabinet Making in all its branches at the old to be patronized.

These desiring to go into the Daguerrectype business, can purchase a first rate aparatus by applying to D. S. Moore. See card.

CF Watermen, and others who find it necessary to stop in Philipsburg, will see by refforence to a card in another column, that J. G. RUNE, of the "Philipsburg Exchange," is prepared to accommodate them. Give him a call

Those wanting to sell lumber, or purchase merchandise on good terms, are recommended to call at the store of Hon. A. K. WRIGHT, on Second street. See card.

BF Those of our merchant friends who desire to lay in a first rate stock of Drugs and Chemicals, and to buy from a first rate firm, to the City, at RESSELL & SCHOTT'S.

It frequently happens that when our people are returning from the East they find the Stage full, and are compelled to walk or lie over at Tyrone. These difficulties will now be obviated since James Chowrnen has opened his new Livery Stable, where horses and buggles may be had at all times on reasonable terms.

27 What Clearfield merchant is not acquainted with Jiz. Daugneary, and where will you find a better fellow? He may always be found at the corner of 3d & Race, Philadelphia, ready to supply his friends with a first rate artiele of Tobacco and Cigars. See Card.

17 It isaid the "Nix-Weisers" were about New Washington at the late Election. We don't know how that may be, but we do know that D. S. PLOTNER keeps one of the best Temperance Hotels in the three counties. Give Archbishop of New York. I mean by ownerhim a call. See card in another column.

The best natured, cleverest pair of fellows in the " Wild Cat district,"-Frenchise & Foster, have opened a Livery Stable in Curwensville, and are prepared to accommodate the public with all sorts of Vehicles, &c., on to do so, at his own good will and pleasure. I reasonable terms. Viva la Good Intent.

The construction of the Railroad to Tyrone, would enable our citizens to make their purchases at the "Tyrone City Drug Store," with greater facility. But as this consumation so devoutly to be wished has not yet come to pass, our friend Dr. Marrin has very properly taken the difficulties of access into consideration, and reduced the profits on his goods. It is now emphatically the best and cheapest Drug Store in the country. Call and see,

By a card in another column the numerous friends of E. L. BARBETT, will observe that he has changed his House, and may now be found at 73 Market street, Phil'a. Enoch is a clever fellow, has a large number of friends in Clearfield County, and ought to do well. We wish him abundant success, and are glad to hear he is with a good firm. Go and see him.

In passing through Philipsburg, some time ago, we had occasion to stop with David Jourston, who keeps the 'Philipsburg Hotel,' and we must say, we never sat down to a better table, or met with a more gentlemanly, accommodating landlord. We advise all our friends who are fond of good accommodations to stop with 'Squire Johnston. See notice.

Some time in March, says the Daily News, Senator Brooks, of New York, made a speech in the Senate on the Church property question, in which he stated that Archbishop Hughes held about $5,000,000 of property in his own right, and urged this as one reason why the bill should pass. In reply to this speech the Archbishop wrote a long letter in which he makes a proposition, by way of denial, that if Mr. Brooks' statement is true, he will take $2,000. 000 of that sum and appropriate it as follows: $100,000 to erect a building for a public library; $1,000,000 to be expended in books and furnishing the same, and the $500,000 remaining to be invested for the support and perpetuity of the establishment. Mr. Brooks accepts he letter in a letter to the Courier & Enquirer, in which paper Archbishop Hughes' letter first appeared. The following is Brooks' letter :-ARCHBISHOP HUGHES, SENATOR BROOKS, AND A QUESTION OF VERACITY. To the Editors of the N. Y. Courier & Enquirer:-From the pressure of official duties at Albany, up to a late hour on Saturday evening, I have only this moment been able to give a full perusal to the letter signed of John, Archshop of New York," in reply to a speech of mine delivered in the Senate on the 6th of March last. I write now, not to answer the question of veracity between the Archbishop and myself, and not to comment upon the peculiar temper and language of the Archbishop's epistle, -but to say that I accept and deand in perfect good faith,-if the promise was made in perfect good faith,-the offer of that Public Library which is tendered in my name. not for the use of any one profession or lass of men, but for all mankind."

As a condition of this pledge, I am to show that Archbishop Hughes is, or was, on the 6th of March last, the owner, in his own name, and in this city, of a large amount of Real stand. Hays is a clever fellow and deserves Estate; and to show, also, that this Property is, or was upon the record, legally his own, to dispose of by assignment, by will, or otherwise, as he may or might direct.

I assume, notwithstanding the reasons for believing otherwise, that in making his offer, the Archbishop does not mean to conceal the truth, omit the truth, or to resort to any subterfuge whatever. I assume, too, that he agrees with me that the true definition of a lie is an "intention to deceive," and that he also agrees with the moralist, Wm. Paley, who lays it down as an axiom, that one may state nety-nine facts, and yet not utter the whole truth, because one truth added would change the whole basis of the ninety-nine facts.

On this presumption I shall maintain, at my earliest liesure, the spirit, substance and reality of all that was asserted by me in the speech now in controversy upon the subject of Church Property in this city. And in order that this question may be met fairly at the start, and in order that the City of New York may be put in possession of the promised Public Library, I sy, that one arbitrator shall be named by Archigettidg forward supplies this season. Prices bishop Hughes, one by myself, and that the in the Spring, are informed, by a notice in two thus selected, shall jointly elect a third, in the optnion of those competent to judge, whose duty it shall be to decide, not merely will be considerably lower than last year.—
Whether I have stated the truth, or whether Timber will scarcely realize one-half of last furniture, such as Tables, Eed-steads, Cupboards, House, near Frenchville, is prepared for their Archbishop Hughes has equivocated or omitreception by the proprietor Jenn W. RIDER. | ted the truth, but also upon the claim of New It John's 'sour krout' is as well 'seasoned' as | York City to that Public Library, in which I ready for the arbitration, and shall be ready with my facts. Very respectfully,

ERASTUS BROOKS. Bishop Hughes responded to this in a letter, from which we quote the following:-"Senator Brooks thinks he has discovered a should call 138 Market St., on their next visit way of twisting out of the awkward position into which he rushed with eyes open and mille: propense. He proposes an arbitration, for sooth. With what a show of artlessness he attempts to evade the direct issue of veracity involved in the controversy, I know, of my own knowledge, that in three statements above refered to, Senator Brooks has taken as a great liberty with truth as if he had said that two and two make seven. "Arbitration is unnecessary. If I am the owner of whole squares of ground, Mr. Brooks can show from the records of the city, or indicate by physical inspection where they are. If he fails to do this, while his proofs, if he has any, are so undeniable and so within his reach, then the public will not fail to perceive that Mr. Brooks in his place as Senator has made a statement which is false, and was intended to be injurious. So if I received any conveyance of property from trustees, the records cited by Mr. Brooks in the Senate will bear him out .-Merchants and others desiring to pur- If he fails to produce those records, then the public will perceive that his statement is a false-clusion that Senator Brooks is-what he is."

Mr. Brooks has in another letter undertaken tic, characteristic, but not ill tempered remarks, he states his purpose and meaning as follows: "What I meant and mean by the ownership of real-estate, is what the law means by it, and therefore, we can have no misunderstanding of ideas. I mean that the legal title is vested in John Hughes. I mean by John Hughes, the ship of real-estate,' the legal right to controll. possess and use it-by assignment, by will, or otherwise. I mean, that if the Archbishop, John Hughes, were to die without a will- or to change his faith, or should choose to dispose of his property to his own heirs, or for his personal advantage, that he has the legal power mean, that, in tact and in act, by the Baltimore Ordinances of 1849 and 1852, by prior claim and subsequent determination, he and other Archbishops and Bishops, own, assume control and direct the temporalities of the Church, its lands, its estates and its entire property. I mean, speaking now after an examination of legal records and indentures, that the conveyances to the Archbishop are sto him, his heirs, or assignees' and no others. I mean, of course, also, that no trust is specified in the deed, and that the conveyances, without such specification of trust, would, in case of his death, go to the next of kin. I think I am understood and that no one will accuse me of seeking a loophole of escape, or with any desire to occupy an equivocal position."

"Now for the record, in part." Here follow copies of cleven records of conveyance, absolute and exclusive, in favor of John Hughes,' and to all appearance they are actual title deeds of valuable property, amounting in all to upwards of $125,000, which, Mr. Brooks says is only the beginning of the end. Under this explicit statement the Archbishop finds at last that it is himself who is in the wkward position,' and he accordingly endeavors in a reply to 'twist out' by saying that the matter at issue is in regard to the declaration that he was in possession of church property valned at $5,000,000, conveyed by trustees, and not to his ownership of real-estate property in New York city. And in this connection he says: "In reference to my ownership of real-estate properly, as Mr. Brooks calls it, there is no questeen. The title of many Catholic-Churches in the city of New York is vested in me, and so far I am the owner. My intention is, even, to should induce us to be cautious, and endeavor tional lots, or accepting the gift of them, as I add to this property by purchasing such addito purchase cheap and substantial goods. Those may find from time to time to be destrable for merchants who have this object in view, when | the purpose of providing religious instruction | the purpose of providing rengious instruction for the wants of the Catholic flock committed for the wants of the Catholic flock committed to my charge. If Mr. Brooks will examine the records of the city of New York three months.

TAYLOR'S Whelesale Boot. Shoe and Straw records of the city of New York three months.

Coon this time he will probably find conveyancas made to me by parties who have the right to sell or bestow, as they think proper."

He then refers to the ten records of conveyances noted in Mr. Brooks' letter, and says that several of them are leases, not conveyances, of property; that one is from the assignee of a bankrupt board of trustees, and two other duplicates. Mr. Brooks has published a rejoinder to the above letter of the bishop's, in which he says:

"The Archbishop conveyed the idea, and meant to convey the idea, and was so understood by the public, that un was not the owner of Church property in this city and elsewhere. Driven from this position by the record transcribed from the Register's office, showing the actual conveyances of property to him, he now with more boldness than ever, admits the truth of what I said on this ponint, and declares that the question between us "'s not in regard to ony such thing as his ownership of Reat Estate Property in this city!" As to the record proving the property to have been leased instead of conveyed. Mr. Brooks contends that it makes very little difference, from the fact that the leases are for 999 years. at one cent a year. This he considers equivalent to a conveyance. That the Bishop should Mr. Brooks intimates is a quib! le, and then proceeds to show that the duplicates appear on the records. Mr. Brooks concludes his letter citing eleven additional deeds of conveyance to the Bishop, and states that the value of the property thus conveyed is very different now to what it was when the conveyance was made. What cost $70,000 a few years ago, is worth $400,000 now, and what cost $10,000 then has sold for $40,000 since.

THE LUMBER TRADE.

The Columbia Spy says: Since our last, the rafts from above have been coming in and passing down in scarcely undiminished quantity. On Saturday and Sunday the Pine Creek delegation' appeared in great numbers, and the river presented as animated an appearance as we have yet observed. Our anticipations concerning the unusually large supply have been more than realized, and still raft after raft is passing down, and the river continues in excellent rafting condition. Below this the channel of the river has been blocked up several times by the staving of lumber on its way down. At other lumber stations the same large supply is noticeable. Thus, the pay it unless compelled by law.

Marieltian says of the lumber there:

FLEMMING & FOSTER.

The river is literally crammed with rafts for about four miles along the shore. To persons who have never seen it, it is worth coming to see. Never before has such a quantity been here at one time. Principally all timber.

All accounts concur concerning the unusual quantity for the market this year. The Port Deposit correspondent of the Elkton Whig says: Of timber there will be an unprecedented quantity, the high price of that article for the propose, preliminary to all public controver. past year having caused unusual exertions in will be considerably lower than last year .-

The Pittsburg Chronicle states that immense quantities of rafts and boats of lumber are coming down the Allegheny river. The Wrightsville Star says:

Timber seems to have receded most in price, is we are informed that sales have been made at $8 per M. for the best quality, such as commanded from $16 to $18 last season.

There have been several sales of lumber made here, conditionally-the purches to pay the regular market rates after they become dixed. The reported sales that have been made without such understanding, have been below the prices of last year about $2 a $3 per thousand feet. The heavy manufacturers, however, continue to hold out for last year's prices.

ANOTHER VICTIM .- Following closely upon Mr. Polk's proscription by the Pierce, Forney & Campbell dynasty at Washington, comes his announcement by telegraph on Thursday last: "Samuel York Atlee has been removed from a Clerkship in the office of the Sixth Auditor of the Treasury, for being, as is alledged, tinetured with Know-Nothingism."

STATE OFFICERS IN CONN .- Hartford, May 2. The Legislature, in Convention this morning, elected William Minor, Know Nothing, Governor of Connecticut. The vote stood-Minor, 177; Ingham, Dem., 70. The other Know Nothing State officers were also elected. The Governor delivers his message this afternoon. good, and will not be slow in coming to the con-
