A GOOD OLD ONE.

Subjoin we, one of the best stories "on record." A little old, we grant, but there is a rich burner all through it. Many of our readers will not have seen it before. Here it is: Dr. Mackenzie tells with great good humor an ancedote in the New York Union, which we before heard verbally related. It is all about a cer-After an absence of several years with her leig side for a time on one of their Irish estates?

As the carriages drove up to the masion she noticed several fine looking children about the gife, and having learned that their mother was the wife of the gate porter, she determined to interrogate, her relative to the cause of her fecundity; she, therefore, next day made her way down to the porter's lodge, and commenced her inquiries: 'Whose children are these, my good moman?' 'All my own, my good lady.'

What! three infants of the same age ?" "Yes, my lady, I had three the last time." How long are you married ?' . Three years, you ladyship.' 'And how many children have you ? . Seven, please your ladyship.

- At last came the question of questions - how the came to have the children? The poor woman, not well knowing what this catechism meant, and not well knowing how to wrap up In delicate words her idea of eduse and offeet, blushed and graw confused, and at last, for want of something better to say, replied-

"I think it must be the potatoes, my lady." This unfolded a theory of population quite new to Lady Middleton, who eagerly demanded -The potatoes! Do you cat much of them ? 'Oh, yes, lady, very seldom we have bread, and so take potatoes all the year round.'

Greatly agitated with her new information, the lady further assed; And where do you get office husters; the potatoes?' (We grow them in our little garden, my lady; sure Pat tills it!

OVER TWELVE HUNDRED PAGES! 1-4 Of the very best reading matter that capital can command from original sources, or taste select from the vast mass of available material.

The aim of the editors will be to produce a publication which sholl be valuable in matter, and choice in taste and style; and flatter hiemselves, from the known talents of their contributors, that they will be able to present as many good original articles to his readers as any publication of the day. They shall not, however, hesitate to publish from time to time, articles from English authors, and translations from the best German and French writers, provided the pieces have never before appeared in print in this country. Essays on impor-tant Political Subjects will likewise be inserted. and criticisms on the Literature of America sad the movements of the Age. The Laview Departs ment, in which a large and liberal spirit of criticism will always be maintained, will be extended For the defence of American Diterature the editor will always be ready; the maintainance of a correct tone in the Magazine, they will, if possible, be still more watchful.

EACH NUMBER WILL CONTAIN AN ENGRAVING FROM & PINE STEEL PLATE IN ADDITION TO THE CHOICE. DESIGNS AND ENGRAVINGS OF DEVEROX. who will supply illustrations for the text in the body of the book. The nim of the editor will not be so much to increase the number of his engray. ings, as to secure for those he publishes the ut most finish the artist can give them; for common wood-cuts are so easily multiplied, that the mesi indifferent publication may outrank in dreary dis play the choicest periodical. The Editor does not feel, that with his own readers, he can increase his claims to respect by insisting on any very great superiority of Graham over several similar publications, but thinks he may safely confide in their friendship for the Magazine, and in its past management for its present list, and such increase as naturally grows out of an extended circulation in a country where readers are multiplying so rapidly. Of the January number the first adition will be 30,000 copies, and the editor trusts his old friends will be so prompt in renewing old clubs, and extending the list among new ones, that the first edition shall be but half os what the year will ultimately establish, as the permanent circulation of Wraham." Postage. Subscribers in any part of the United States may now receive the Magazine, by mail, at three cents a number or thirty-six cents a year postage, payable at the Post-office where it is re-
