PENCIL NOTES.

Here-the glorious Fourth. Exciting-the hog quetsion.

Laid low-our potatoes by the storm on Sunday Coming down-the price of butter, and the cod-

Small affair-the locofoco delegate election on Saturday. Looked scaly.

Poor buisness-writing anonymous letters to frighten people. It wont pay.

Interesting-the matter on our fourth page, appropriate to the day. Read it.

Rich-the idea that 'hard times' don't effect printers. If you think so come and try it.

Still sound on the goose question-Ex-Governor

Johnston. He wont go the Slavery Platform. High-the mercury, and the fellow that cracked his head and his bottle by falling on the board walk last week.

Good and cheap-the new lot of books and stationary just recieved by our friend Tommy Robbins, over the way.

Out-the Regulars this morning celebrating the Fourth. The Band also, has been discoursing sweet and appropriate music.

Going up-the price of eggs, and Isaac Johnston's brick house, which will be a handsome improvement on that corner.

Query.-Is the bridge across the river at this place to be re-built? We hav'nt heard anything on the subject lately.

Democrat. If he dont look out his pumpkin head will cave in. It needs baking badly. Erhibation .- The pupils of the Clearfield Insti-

28th ult... by the shock of an earthquake. More of them .- Two thousand five hundred and forty-four emigrants arrived at New York, on Saturday, from Europe, on board of various emigrant-

Degree 'conferred .- At the recent commencement of Princeton College, the degree of L. L. D. was conferred upon Gov. Pollock, who is a graduate of that institution.

Decidedly rich-the dutch exhibition in the street yesterday. There was a considerable crowd present, and all appeared to be delighted with the movements of the animal.

Closed-our office to day, the whole establishment having determined on a regular, full-blooded out and out, thorough going jubilee. Wake, snakes, and clar do kitchen!

Want endorse it-The American Executive committee of Alleghany County, refuse to endorse the platform of the late National Convention. They can't swallow the slavery plank.

Large tree .- It'is said an oak tree near Raleigh, Carolina, at the sun's meridian, covers a space of nine hundred feet. It would afford shelter for four thousand five hundred men.

Coming at last .- After a very learned consultation of physicans at Paris, it has been formally announced that the world may soon look for the advent of a young Napoleon. The Empress is enciente.

Fishing party .- On Saturday last the 'temporary firm' of Carscadden, Hills, Mossop & Co., went into a trout fishing speculation, down at Lick Run. They succeeded in bringing home about six doxen of "Speckled beauties."

A " good egg"-our friend Maj. F. N. Bell, of Tyrone, whose advertisement will be found in another column. We found it, Frank, after a long hunt, stuck away back where the devil didn't think of looking for it.

the Journal for sale or rent. . So say the locofoco papers. They had better not cackle before the egg is laid. It's a poor business, and only characteristic of chickens that defile the nest.

Pleasant-to spend about three dollars for boards, work half a day in the hot sun to erect a pig-sty, and then have your hog stolen just as you think you have him safe and sound. If it is not enough to make a fellow swea--t, what is?

The question settled .- The Boston Post ventures to make the statement that "the next National Democratic convention will nominate Franklin Pierce for re-electeon." We sincerely hope they may. He will be beaten as unanimously as he was elected before.

Celebrations .- We learn that there will be celebrations to day, in this place, Curwensville, and Lumber city. We are glad that the day is not to be passed over without some demonstration on the part of our people that they have not forgotten the memory of their patriotic sires.

Generally Celebrated-this day throughout the entire country Not for many years has there been such an almost universal observance of the Fourth of July. Thousands of freemen will today pour out the thanks of grateful hearts for their liberty and independence.

"Waste paper letters."-Two letters, mailed for and received at the Baltimore (Md.) Post Office. were sold among some waste paper, and lately found at the mill of Mr. Wilhelm, in Baltimore county. One contained $25 and the other $434, and were found by two of Mr. Wilhelm's employees.

A villian-the fellow that stole our pig on Saturday night. A man who will steal a pig from an editor would take the pennies off a dead nigger's eyes, steal his grand-mother's knitting kneedles, and sell his fathers dead body for soap fat. Hanging would be too good for him-he ought to have Quite unnecessary.-There is a sign hanging over the door of a mantua maker's shop, in Troy, N. Y., the concluding portion of which reads thus : " N. B. Dresses made lower than ever." All we have to say is, that if they make them much lower, the dry goods stores had better shut up, as there will be no demand for the article.

Did it, by the powers !- Our friend of the Star-Spangled Banner, has put his head in the noose matrimonial. We hope he will never have cause to regret it, and that ere long he may be blessed with any quantity of sweat little cherubs to make follow his example. Wont some of the girls give

FUSION STATE CONVENTION IN VERBONT .-The Free Soil, or Fusion State Convention, assembled on Wednesday, at Durlington .-About 350 delegates were present. Alexander Sabine, Esq., presided. The State ticket of last year was unanimously re-nominated, as follows:-For Governor, Stephen Boyco Lient, Governor, Ryland Fletcher; Treasurer, M. Bates. The convention was addressed by Ommons, vary-the fact that we have offered the President, Hon. S. Merrill, P. Baxter and others. The resolutions commend the secession of the Northern delegates from the Philadelphia Convention, declaring the time for compromise with slavery to have passed, and strongly denounce the Nebraska-Kansas sct. The seventh resolution was as follows:

Resolved. That the Prohibitory system adopted in this State has, by its salutary influence commended itself to the support of the people, and that we are opposed to any alteration of the existing law on that subject, except such as may be necessary to give it greater The Convention was harmonious through-

THE INDIANS IN TEXAS .- The Indians seem to get credit for some robberies and murders in Texas which they do not commit. A Mr. Walker at Dripping Springs, forty miles west of Austin, being attacked by five men, apparently Indians, and killed, a negro who was with him at the time escaped, reached a settlement and reported the circumstances. A party then pursued the murderers, killed four and gave chase to the fifth, who being wounded, was captured while attempting to cross the river. But the water washed off his paint and showed him to be a white man in disguise. On washing the faces of the four dead ones they also were found to be white men. The prisoner said that there was in the mountains a party of one hundred, who had been committing depredations on the frontier, all of which have been charged upon the Indians .-Walker, after being killed, was robbed of sixty dollars. This discovery accounts for numerous mysterious murders.

SECRET COUNCIL IN BALTIMORE. - Archbish op Kendrick, says the New York Crusader, has convoked in his palace a secret council of the Bishops of his province, where business of high importance will be transacted by the help of a dozen of pro-consuls of his holiness in the United States. As long as the high representatives of the Pope in America hold secret meetings, no Anti-American politician or editor has a word in condemnation-even Barnard and Beale are as silent as blind mice; but when Americans unite in private councils, loud are the imprecations against them, and they are called midnight assassins, murderers, traitors, Christless, Godless and ruffians! We hope that the Catholic press will have no more abuses for the Know Nothings, as we believe they have the same right as foreign Bishops, to meet privately on any part of their native

MURDER IN CINCINNATI.

National Convention in our last, together with ticulars of a deadly encounter between Ansundry seceding declarations, protests, and proceedings of a public meeting, all which indicated very plainly that on the exciting subject of slavery the new page is a control of a deadly encounter between Andrew Cunningham and John Fowler, which rested in the death of the latter. It appears that Cunningham was a partner in the firm of Saybold & Saybold Seybold, & Co., in the edge-tool manufactur- Michael Connelly, and sent to jail for selling a that fine grist mill, lumbering establishment, and a unit, and the voice of the press, coming ing and grinding business, Mrs. Seybold carfrom all quarters in this State, shows that rying on the business in the name of her de-Pennsylvania will probably stand upon the ceased husband. ARE ROMAN CATHOLICS AMERICANS?-We recently asked, "who are Americans?" and expected that some kind friend of the American cause would favor us by drawing the line of fied that the subscribers purchased about three accurately between a native born American weeks ago, two-thirds of all the grain in the and a Jesuistical foreigner. The learned Dr. Murray, the stalwart champion in the arena prainst Romanism (as "Kirwan,") has just against Romanism (as "Kirwan,") has just given a brief answer to our question, and has given it interrogatively. He says:

"Can men who believe in the spiritual power of bishops and priests to do all that they threaten, and who fear their curses as they do the curse of God, and who place submission to their superiors and belief in God in the same catagory; can men who implicitly obey the Office of James Wrigly, and two doors south of their hishops, who implicitly obey the Pope, the Office G. R. BARRETT, Esq. be American citizens, and true patriots?-They must be either false to their country, or false to their church. THE " PLATFORM" IN DELAWARE. - The Delaware Republican, published in a slave State. says the people of the North and West cannot be rallied to the support of a platform which asserts that the laws in regard to slavery shall remain unclianged,-that Congress ought not o legislate on that subject within the territoies of the United States, nor the District of Columbia,-declares that it would have been the height of folly for the Northern delegates to have acquiesced in those provisions, or remained in the Convention, and candidly adds - If slavery is a . social and a political evil. as Southernmen as well as Northern ones have declared, our friends of the South should give way, and not attempt to extend or perpetuate it by any additional law."

HISS IN DANGUR .- The Newburyport Herald says :- We learn that Mr. Joseph Hiss, late representative of Boston, came near suffering serious injury, if not death, at the Ocean House, on Wednesday night. Mr. H. was in town, preparory to lecturing upon the doings of the Legislature, stopping at the Ocean House, and retired at night with a spirit lamp burning, with the wick well up. In the morning the room was full of snoke, and Mr. Hiss himself the color of a coal man. Politico-Religious .- On the 11th inst. the nembers of the Methodist E. Church assembled in mass meeting, at Centerville, Monroe county, Va., to take into consideration a letter recently written to the Richmond Enquier, charging that the members of that and other churches of the Bultimore Conference, were controlled in their votes by the church. The latter on secognszing the Bishop, got down unon his knees and kissed the Bishop's hand. When he got through with his menial service, he turned round to another gentleman with whom he was acquainted, bidding him the time of day and extending his hand to give the usual 'shake.'
