AMERICAN NOMINATIONS. CANAL COMMISSIONER, PETER MARTIN, Of Lancaster County. FOR SENATE, HENRY SOUTHER, Of Elk County. FOR SHERIFF. R. F. WARD. Of Clearfield Borough. Hat diaga: TREASURER. COMP. PHILIP ANTES, Of Lawrence Township. COMMISSIONER. ROBERT MICHAEL, Of Burnside Township. AUDITOR. VALENTINE HEVENER, Of Huston Township.

To THE POLLS ! !- Let every American see that each friend of the cause who is entitled to a vote, is out at the election. Our enemies are making the most desperate efforts to accomplish our defeat. They are traveling the county, slandering our candidates, and misstating our principles. LET EVERY AMER-ICAN BE ON GUARD.

AMERICANS, ON GUARD!- Our friends should not fail, on next Tuesday, to challenge every man who is not known to be a bona fide voter, whether his name is on the Assessor's list or not. MAKE EVERY FOREIGNER EXHI-BIT HIS NATURALIZATION PAPERS! Let firm and determined men be placed at every poll, who have the courage and ability to do their duty. Americans GUARD THE Lor Box-the cradle of your liberties!

THE RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL THE HARVEST HOME .- Notwithstanding the (To VOTERS :- Before depositing our votes on next Tuesday, it becomes us, as American torrents of rain which fell on Wednesday last, course we intend to pursue. For ourself, we estimated that over one thousand people were ntend to vote for the candidates of the American Party :

Because, they are pledged to exert all their nfluence to obtain a modification of our naturalization laws, and to extend the period foreigners have to remain in this country before they are entitled to vote, and exercise the rights of citizensnip.

Because, they are pledged to oppose the encroachments of the Roman Catholic Church, and to denounce its corrupt bargains with political parties, and its attempts to wrest the Bible from our schools.

Because, their election will be a rebuke to the present imbecile Administration for their wanton violation of a solemn compact between sister States ;- for their appointment of James Campbell, a Roman Catholic, to a Cabinet office, in fulfilment of a corrupt and disgraceful bargain with Archbishop Hughes ;- for their appointment of Soule, a French Red Republican as Minister to Spain ;- and for their other foreign appointments, too numerous to mention, by all of which the American people were insulted and disgraced.

Because-we cannot vote for a party that is openly allied with those who have stained our streets with the blood of a protestant for the declaration of his opinions, and prostiluted their official station to the screening of the MURDERER. Because-we cannot vote for a ticket supported by the Catholic organ of this town, which endorsed the sermon of the Roman Catholic Bisl op Young, in which he not only denounced Protestants of every sect, but argued against the reading of the bible by the common people, and its introduction into our schools. Because-we cannot vote for a party, one of whose Governors, granted to William H.Dunn, an unnatoralized foreigner, an order for twenty five stand of arms to shed Protestant Americican blood in the streets of Philadelphia. These are some of our reasons for support. ing the American Ticket, in preference to that of our opponents. We have others, too numerous to mention, but the grand and crowning reason, is, because we are obeying the last great injunction of the Father of his Country, who warned us to "BEWARE OF FOR-MIGN INFLUENCE."

SAMUEL LINN, Esq.-In his last paper, our neighbor down street, opens the thunders of

It was they put upon the great principles embodied tered by the founder and "ather of American in the American Creed. And first we quote Democracy, JEFFERSON. from JAMES BUCHANAN, admitted to be the a blest living statesman in the Democratic party :

> "We ought to use every honest exertion to turn out of pose r those weak and wicked men, who have abandoned the political path marked out for this country by Washington, and whose wild and viscountry by Washington, and whose wild and vis-ionary theories have been at length tested by expe-rience and found wanting. Such was the opinion of James Buchanan.

the Constitution, GEO. W. WOODWARD, well known to the people of this County, as a most Geo. 111. able Democratic Judge, now occupying a seat on the Supreme Bench, offered an amendment to a resolution which had been introduced, tion) as follows-

"Mr Woodward moved to amend the amond ment by adding thereto the words: "and that the said Committee be also instructed to inquire into the propriety of so amending the Constitution as to PREVENT ANY FOREIGNER, who may arrive in this State after the fourth of July, 1841. FROM ACQUIRING THE RIGHT TO VOTE, OR TO HOLD

OFFICE IN THE COMMONWEALTH In support and defence of the above amend ment, Judge Woodward said :- Sir, I appreciate as much as any man living the many political rights and privileges, which I in common with the people of the United States, am now enjoying; and it is my honest impression that we do but squander those privileges in conferring them upon every individual who chooses to come and claim them. He knew that a great portion of those who came among us from foreign countries. consist frequently of THE WORST PART OF THE POPULATION of those countries; that they are unacquainted with the value of these privileges : and that, therefore, they do not know how to use them. I think that in thus conferring them indiscriminately upon all, WE ARE DOING INJURY TO OUR LIBERTIES AND INSTITUTIONS and I believe that, if the time has not yet come, it will speedily come, when it will be indispensably necessary either for this body, or some other body of this State, or of the United States. to inquire whether it is not right to put some plan into exe-cution, by which FOREIGNERS SHOULD BE PREVENT-ED FROM CONTROLLING OUR ELECTIONS, AND BROW-BEATING OUR AMERICAN CITIZENS AT THE POLLS !"

These were the teachings and sentiments of Geo. W. Woodward so early as 1838, and certainly if danger was to be apprehended then, is

But we have not only Senator Clemens endorsing the principles of the American Party. Even the Hon. SoLos BORLAND, long a Democratic Senator, and recently Minister Plenipotentiary under President Pierce, has come out in favor of the American cause! Having recently become editor of the Little Rock Gazette, the oldest Democratic paper in the State, he has made a declaration of principles, from which extract the following :

But as JEFFERSON, the auther of the Declaration of American Independance, may also be too much of an old fogy for the Democracy, let us hear what MADISON said :

You may wake up when the sun of freedom has gone down and darkness covers our once bright and beautiful country! Be careful or you will wake up when it is too late! too late! too late!-The die is cast-the nation is dead-every star in the galaxy of liberty is extinguished-and the Stars and Stripes that we have looked at with wonder, delight and joy, no longer wave, but lie Such is the fate of this torn and rent in pieces ! nation unless the people wake up to the protection of their rights. The child is listening to my voice to-day, who, unless there is a waking up, will live to see America wrapped in her winding sheet, and tyrants hold a jubilee over a fallen republic

THE NEWS-Sebastopol is in ruins. The following telegraphic despatch, received by Lord Panmure from Gen. Simpson, appeared in the English morning journals of the 11th instant: "Sebastopol is in possession of the Allies. The enemy, during the night and morning, evacuated the south side, after exploding their magazines and setting fire to the whole town. All the men-of-war were burnt during the night, with the exception of three him until the doctrine was! acknowledged as a steamers, which were playing about the harbor. The bridge communicating with the north wAll men are created free and equal, and enside is broken." Gen. Simpson regrets that the casualties in the attempt on the Redan were somewhat heavy, but there wos no general officer killed. The plan of the battle appears to have been as follows :- The place was attacked in four directions. The British troops attempted the storming of the Redan; the French attacked the Malakoff. The extreme right of the French made a diversion on the little Redan; and a united attack of the English, French, and Sardinians was made on the Central Battery. All the attacks were made simultaneously with great spirit and energy; but the one which was most eminently successful, was led by Gen. Bosquet and Gen. M'Mahon on the Malakoff. Both the Redan and Contral Bastion were at times in the hands of the storming parties, but so accurately did the guns of the Russians cover these, that as soon as the English had gained possession of them it was found impossible to hold them .--The following despatch is from Prince Gortschakoff, and is dated the night of the 9th. The garrison of Sebastopol, after sustaining an internal fire, repulsed his assaults, but did not drive the enemy from the Malakoff Tower .-Our brave troops, who resisted to the last extremity, are now crossing over to the northern part of Sebastopol. The enemy found nothing in the southern part but blood stained ruins. On the 9th of September the passage to the northern side was accomplished, with the loss of 100 men. We left, I regret to say, 600 men previously wounded, on the southern side. The intelligence of the fall of Sebastopol was received in London with demonstrations of great joy. At the various theatres and places of public amusement, the fact was efficially announced, and the bands at each place immediately played the national anthems of England and France, and throughout England the demonstrations were general. On the night of the 8th inst., whilst the Emperor of the French was at the door of the Theatre Italien, at the moment the carriage containing the Ladies of Honor of the Empress stopped at the entrance of the theatre, an individual who was standing in the trottoir discharged, without taking aim, two pocket-pistols at the carriage. No one was struck. The man, who had more the appearance of a maniae than an assassin, was immediately arrested. The name of the individual arrested is Bellemarre. He s about 22 years of age, and was born at Rouen.

Correspondence of the Jam PHILADELPHIA, Sept 28. 1

The all absorbing event of the week been the grand turn-out of the Masonic Order upon the occasion of the dedication of their new Temple. About 5000 of the brethren were on parade, dressed in their usual regalia. and our city was alive with strangers, to the detriment of our housekcepers, who found that a large influx of humanity creates a correspondent demand for eatables and prices for sundry articles, such as butter, meat, &c. took a sudden rise for the time. But the demonstration-it was everything that was expected ; the day was beautiful, though rather warm, and every one seemed in a peculi 1 good humor. Chestnut street was pretty well filled up for three squares above and below the Hall, and throughout the line of march the speciators were very numerous. The parade occupied about two miles of the street at once. in other words it was that long, and many a "Brother" who had come from the country son suit them; for they say such sentiments felt rather sore by evening from so much tramping over the stones.

The ceremonies were of the most imposing order, and long will be remembered by those who participated in them.

We are fairly at work preparing for the election, and never were the prospects of the A. merican party so cheering as they are now here,-almost confident of success, we work with something to encourage us, and the news from other places only serve to inspire us with fresh vigor ; to shew how the old Gibraltar of Whig Principles can now shine as the Gibraltar of Americanism. Our old State House will peal forth a call to which as Americans we will respond, and united strive to join our voice to the chorus "America for ever."-Down-down-with the heartless Tyrant," will be our watchword, as manfully we deposite each vote, to rebuke our President and his minions, and assert the undeniable right of every American Citizen to the writ of Habeas Corpus.

Republicans and Americans striking at the same foe, must unite in the common cause. and with one effort, consign to oblivion the authors of the Nebraska Outrage, the whole party of Pierce and Locofocoism of the country. Let the noble old Keystone clear herself of the matter, and by our united votes on the 9th of October, place only those in office who will keep a solemn compact when made, and respect the rights of American citizens. This is the last appeal to the hardy lumbermen of Clearfield, to show which side they are on. There is no middle path now to pursue. Are you in favor of sustaining the noble Mag na Charta, issued by such men as Jefferson and Adams ; sanctioned and fought fer by a Washington, and triumphantly sustained by component part of American lite and liberty ? dowed with certain inalienable rights, among these are Life, Liber'y and the pursuit of happiness." Vote then, the American ticket, the whole ticket, and you show your devotion to the land of Washington, and the cause he so nobly labored for. Your opponents are unquestionably striking at the very foundation of our government, (and if it is not a good one. where shall we find a better ?) and instead of making a Republic, they are giving us over to the tender mercies of foreign Monarchists, who understand not our principles, or if they do, detest them because liberty of thought and opinion is stamped upon them. To the polls, then, every son of America, and rout this foreign army. Now, or neverbe Freemen or be Slaves. Let the sound arise from Clearfield. "Americans never will be slaces," and from the home of our late Governor, let a substantial rebuke be pronounced. Delay not for one moment, but decide quickly and act promptly, every role is needed, for life and liberty are at stake. Thoroughly opposed as the American party is, root and branch, to the late usurpation of tyrannical power by Judge Kane, place your vote against that attempt to introduce the voice of an autocrat among us, for no one knows when he is safe, if this dangerous principle be allowed. FINALLT, let every one think well, and determine to do his duty. ".Imerica expects every man to do his duty." See, then, OLIVER. that no one neglects it. OLD-TIME KNOW NOTHINGS .- There seems to have been Know Nothings among the Patriots of the Revolution,-in sentiment at least if not in name. In an oration delivered at the request of Congress by Gen. HENRY LEE, Dec. 20, 1799, on the death of WASHINGTON, Mr. Lee used the following language : "Methinks I see his august image, and hear falling from his venerable lips these deep sinking words : Cease, sons of America, lamenting our separation! Ge on, and confirm by your wisdom the fruits of our joint councils, joint efforts, and common dangers ! Reverence religion, diffuse knowledge throughout your land, patronize the arts and sciences. Let liberty and order be inseparable companions. Control party spirit, the bane of free governments. Observe good faith to, and cultivate peace with all nations. SHUT UP EVERY AVENUE TO FOREIGN INFLU-ENCE ; contract rather than extend national connection; rely on yourselves only. BE A-MERICANS IN THOUGHT, WORD AND DEED. Thus will you give immortality to that Union, which was the constant object of my terrestrial labors; thus will you preserve undisturbed to the latest posterity the felicity of a people to me most dear; and thus will you supply (if my happiness is now sought by you) the only vacancy in the round of pure bliss high heaven bestows." Such were the sentiments of one of the purest Patriots of the Revolution. "Be americaus in thought, word and deed !" In other words, let "Americans Rule America !" We have no doubt that if this lamented patriot, HENRY LEE, were living, to advocate Americanism now, as he did in his day and generation, the Patriol and Union would denounce him as a "secret sworn conspirator and trai-

the country was represented. The meeting was organized by the election of SAM'L SEBRING as President. with a long list of Vice Presidents and Secretaries, which, we regret to say, we have lost or mislaid. E. S. DUNDY, Esq. was called upon, and addressed the meeting in an eloquent and appropriate speech. He was followed by M. A. FRANK, Esq. in an able argument on the great issues of the present contest. We were then called upon, and the meeting on the ground adjourned, after partaking of a magnifichnt dinner, prepared by Mr. JOHN SHETTER, for the occasion. The dinner was good, the martial music was good, the officers were good, and the effect of the meeting was good. In the evening a large and enthusiastic meeing assembled in New Washington, at which Mr. JAMES KELLY presided. It was most emphatically, one of the best political meetings we have ever attended. The people of Burnside township are up and doing, and the locofocos may expect to hear news from the upper end,' on next Tuesday, that will make them tremble in their boots.

During the day, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted : Resolved. That we fully endorse the platform framed at the Reading Session of the American State Council, and adopt it as the declaration of principles of the American par-

Resolved, That we ratify and endorse the nomination of HENRY SOUTHER, of Elk County, as the American candidate for the State Senate, and that we pledge him our hearty and undivided support.

Resolved, That we have the fullest confidence in the honesty, integrity, and pure Americanism of each and every candidate on our county ticket, and that we will leave no effort unspared to secure their triumphant election.

CONTEMPTIBLE .- The opposition are circulating the most attrocious and contemptible slanders about our candidates thro'out the county. Now we have not said one word of a personal character about any man on their ticket. We have treated them, at all times and under all it not still, more to be feared now ? What circumstances, with that respect which we be Democrat desires better authority?

In the Convention of 1837 and 38 to reform

DESPERATE EFFORTS .- The "monkey show," after a year's quiet preparation, started out again yesterday, and will exhibit itself during the week in every section of the County. In other words, the Locofoco stump speakers have started to hold meetings in every nook and corner of the County. They are almost frightened 'out of their boots,' and are making a desperate effort, as a sort of forlorn hope, to frighten the Americans out of the order. They will very likely discover before they get back, that our men are not afraid of "buggaboos," and if we are not mistaken, they will be sent home with "drooping tails."

THE WORK GOES ON .- From every part of the county we have the most cheering news, and we cannot for a moment doubt the success of our ticket upon next Tuesday. The reports that come in from the various Councils show a most astonishing increase, and it will only require that the votes are all polled to insure a glorious victory. The American feeling is thoroughly arroused, and THE PEOPLE seem determined to come out from the tyranny of old party organizations, and whip the combined forces of Locofocoism, Roman Catholicism, and every other ism that looks to political supremacy in our country. The "Americans are on guard," and they will achieve a glorious victory in the name of "GOD, AND OUR NATIVE LAND !"

HENRY SOUTHER, Esq.-On Tuesday last. we learned for the first time, that an election for a candidate for Senate had been held in the Order in Elk. M.Kean, Potter and Tioga, and that HENRY SOUTHER, of Elk, had received the solid vote. He is, therefore, the candidate instead of Mr. Lucas, who received the vote of the Order in Jefferson and Clearfield.

In raising Mr. Souther's name, though Mr. Lucas was our first choice, we can most cheerfully pledge him our earnest and hearty support. We know him to be an able lawyer, a firm and unwavering opponent of the Kansas-Nebraska iniquity, and a thorough American. opposed to foreign influence and the encroachments of political Catholocism. We have the fullest confidence in his honesty, integrity and ability. He will undoubtedly receive the entire American vote of Clearfield.

BEWARE OF LAST CARDS .- Our friends will reccollect the lying circulars and pittiful appeals circulated by the Locofoco leaders on the eve of the last election. This will no doubt be repeated during the present week. and no effort will be spared to accomplish their unholy schemes. Let every American beware, and treat such things with scorn and contempt. Believe no story, however plausible, which may be circulated between this and the election, to effect the result. Their 'magnificent constellation' of stump orators, are again 'spreading themselves' this week, and are making desperate efforts to enlighten their fellow citizens. Of course they will not hesitate to tell any story that will best subserve their purposes. Their conduct last fall, ought to put every one on guard, and no man should permit himself to be deceived by their specious tales. Let each man carefully examine the principles of both parties, and then go to polls and deposit his vote for the his pent up wrath upon the devoted head of SAMUEL LINN, Esq., because he had the unprecedented impudence to reply to a speech of His Holiness, Ex-Gov. BIGLER! In his estimation, Gov. Bigler is something more than a mere man, and is therefore not to be treated as other public speakers. He is to be regarded as infullible, a sort of Locofoco Pope, of whom it is the most henious crime to speak in the manner that we speak of other men. And because "Sam Linn" had the temerity to "pitch into him," after he had clearly laid himself open to attack, he is to be tried by the two great "cardinals" of the "orgin," and his conduct pronounced a "disgrace to the dignity of the bar," and a "stain to the character of a lawyer and a gentleman !"

If Gov. Biglef was insulted by Mr. Linn's speech, his "fellow citizens of Clearfield" are to blame for having received it with shouts of applause! Every sally was greeted with enthusiastic cheers, and the fact is, that nearly all those who were present, expressed the opinion that his "grandiloquence" didn't get more than half as much as he deserved. If Gov. Bigler was "goose" enough to get up on the stand and compare himself to "Joseph, who wore the coat of many colors, and was sold by his brethren," is Mr. Linn to be denounced for carrying out the illustration? The "saints" of the "orgin" had better let "Sam Linn," as they call him, alone, or they might get their fingers bit. "Sam's" not a boy to be trifled with, and though he don't lay any claims to .. infallibility," or to be treated as a peg above ordinary humanity, yet we expect he has no notion of being stigmatised as a "braggart" and "buffoon" by every petty "hanger on," "lick spittle," and "stool pigeon" of Ex-Gov. Bigler.

VALENTINE HEVENER .--- In the last number of the "orgin," is a letter purporting to be written by VALENTINE HEVENER, the American Candidate for Auditor, declaring that he is not a member of the Order, and that he intends to support the Democratic ticket. It is only necessary for us to say to our friends, that not one word of that letter was ever written by VALENTINE HEVENER, and that on the evening of the day when it purports to have been written, he was sitting with us in the American Council in this town, which met in the office of E. S. Dundy. He then and there expressed his entire willingness to have his great body of our convicts and paupers is Americanism avowed, and to be run as a candidate on the American ticket. When Locofocoism is driven to such an extremity, it must indeed be in a hard strait. and all their circulars, letters, and appeals should be treated in the same way with this, as a vile forgery. In this instance especially. their anxiety caused them to overstep the mark, for any man who is acquainted with Mr. HEVENER, knows that the language attributed to him in that letter never eminated from his brain. He is a true American, and will be triumphantly elected on next Tuesday;

NEW CANDIDATE .- The Republican State Committee met at Harrisburg on Thursday iast, and after conferring with committees of other parties opposed to the present Adminis-tration and the Kansas Outrage, withdrew the ers. In the N. Y. Northern Dispensatory, in name of PASSNORE WILLIAMSON as a candidate for Canal Commissioner, and nominated in his

of our readers will see before the election, which occurs on next Tuesday, and we desire to arge upon every one who professes the principles we advocate, to be carnest, active, and vigilant in their support. We know that many persons, look upon this election as unimportant and trivial-a mere county affair that cannot effect the great principles of our party .-This is a fatal mistake. If we desire to secure the success of those principles we must not neglect the means by which it is to be accomplished, and the very first and most important, is to fill every office with those who are pledged to their support.

There is no office in the gift of the people. however paltry, that has not some influence attached to it, which will tell with effect for whatever cause it may be wielded. It is, therefore, all important that this influence should be exerted in behalf of the great principles we positive ones, would, in our opinion, leave it no profess. Let every one, therefore, who feels the attainment of any good ends of a public naty, be at his post on next Tuesday. Leave no effort untried to bring out every vote, for if will ever remain valuable, all the practical issues, this be done, the contest may be close but not doubtful. If every American vote is polled between it and the only other party, its great an on next Tuesday, the result will assuredly tagonist, the old Whig party, have been settled prove a glorious victory. AMERICANS to the RESCUE!

PLAIN FACTS .- We have repeatedly published undeniable statistics, showing that the composed of foreigners, and as the election is fast approaching, we append some additional facts, which we commend to the perusal and consideration of every tax-paver :

The number of paupers relieved at the Alms House in Adams county, Pa., from Jan. 1, 1855, to Sept. 1, 1855, was, according to a register kept by the steward, 391, of whom three hundred and sixty onewere Foreigners. Of these 284 were Germans, 60 Irish, 9 English, 2 French and 1 Hungarian. Thirty were Amer- ing for the moral, social, and political welfare of ican born. The number of days charged against the American pacpers is 180 ; against the Foreign born, 1889.

During July last, the number of inmates in the Blockley Alms-House in Philadelphia, was 1903, of whom 1302 were Foreigners. In the King's County Alms-House, New York, there were 1533 inmates, of whom 921 were Forcigners. In the hospital, at the same July 1196 were relieved, of whom 830 were Foreigners.

At the Jersey City Prison, the commit-

In view of the foregoing objectionable things. which we find in the present creed of the so-cal led Democratic Party as now organized, and which have been interloped among its original doctrines. we can no longer consent to be a member of it, and do not besitate to say so.

But besides these grounds of positive objection to it, as a party, there are other objections. of negative character, which, even in the absence of onger necessary, indeed, absolutely worthless for that while its principles, as the foundation of all good government, are unquestionably sound, and of legislation. or of Executive administration, which, since its origin, have been in cont oversy and disposed of, and are no longer before the country. As a useful political organization. therefore, it has answered all the good purposes it was capa-ble of—its proper nission is ended; and like all other things which have fully performed their functions and lived out their day, it will be continued only to cumber the ground, or be perverted to mischievous ends. And that it is thus very rapidly falling a prey to such perversion, we have already sufficiently indicated our belief.

Where, then, are we to go? This inquiry is answered by the American Party. which we find, though almost full grown, like Minerva when she leaped into life from the brain of Jove, yet young, fresh from the people, vigorous, and untainted with corruption; and better than the rest, with a political creed, leaving out of view all the old is ues which, having formetly divided preceeding parties, were either long since settled or are effete. his country. Upon this platform we have taken our stand.

We have not much more space to devote to the subject, and will close by a few quotations. from such old fogies, as WASHINGTON, JEFFER-
