

THE JOURNAL.

RHODE ISLAND LICENSE LAW.—A new act has been introduced into the Rhode Island Assembly, to supersede the existing liquor law. It provides, in substance, that cities and towns may grant licenses for the sale of liquors in quantities not less than one quart...

THE STAKE.—Senator Atchison has written a letter to some friends of his, in which, after complaining that he and his border ruffians are properly backed up by the South in their attempts to make Kansas a slave State, he adds, in a concluding paragraph: "The stake the border ruffians are playing for is a mighty one. If Kansas is abolished Missouri ceases to be a slave State, and New Mexico becomes a free State; California remains a free State; but if we secure Kansas as a slave State Missouri will not be a slave State, and South California, if not all of it, will become a slave State. In a word, the property of the ruin of the whole South depends on the Kansas struggle."

A GREAT LEGAL LIGHT.—A writer in the Bunker Hill Journal, speaking of James Gerich, Esq., one of the Democratic candidates for the Senate in Middlesex county, says: "He is the man who made the writ against a common carrier for the loss of some goods, and said in it that the goods were to be 'safely carried, insured against all perils save the acts of God and the public enemy, that said goods were lost, damaged, mutilated, hurt, injured, spoiled, and the carrier was held liable for the same by any act of the public enemy, nor by any act of the said God.'" That finishes his career as a legal gentleman.

SEVERAL FOREIGN CATHOLICS were arrested in Baltimore, immediately following the late election for carrying deadly weapons, and pistols were found upon them, bearing the stamp of the U. S. Army at Middletown, Connecticut, and the percussion caps also bore the stamp of the United States. An Administration which places Vessels at the disposal of the Pope's Nuncio, and that forwards Nuns to California free of Charge, under the care and protection of Mail Agents, will not hesitate to place the arms of the country in the hands of the minions of the Pope to intimidate and assassinate Native Americans.

FROM CAMPEACHY.—Violation of the American Flag by the Mexican Authorities.—The brig J. S. Bething, from New Orleans, was quarantined for seven days on her arrival at Campeachy, under the command of the late Captain. On the night of the 3d inst., during the existence of the quarantine, Col. Zelina, a passenger on the brig, was removed by force of arms from the vessel by the orders of General Ulloa, during the absence of the captain, conveyed on board the Mexican war steamer Oajaca, and taken to Sisal.

IMAGINATION.—A man who had been sentenced to death at Vienna, was offered a full pardon if he would consent to pass a night in the bed of a person who had died of cholera. In about four hours he was seized with vomiting, violent cramps, and all the symptoms of cholera. Ultimately, by medical assistance, his life was saved. His astonishment was unbounded when he was informed that the bed was perfectly pure.

FROM NORFOLK AND PORTSMOUTH.—The papers of these two cities speak in encouraging terms of their improved health. Sickness of all kinds was actually in the streets, and cheerfulness, and the streets resounding a cheerful aspect. Absentees, it is not thought, may return with safety where the precaution has been taken to have the premises well aired previous to resuming their occupancy.

POOR OLD GENTLEMEN.—A visitor to the residence of Gen. Cass writes: "The old man 'of old times' in the autumnal glories of a sapient life; is hale, hearty, and worth four millions. His career has, indeed, been successful. He speaks in foreboding language of our national prospects, and is strong in his belief that disunion will yet carry its banner over the Republic."

NEW EXPLANATION OF THE DELUGE.—A scientific explanation of a London Journal, in alluding to the days of Noah, says that, at what is known as "The Flood," it is probable that the poles of the earth were changed, and a dissolution of the polar ice, which deluged the equatorial parts of the earth and whelmed in ruin the human race.

NATURALIZATION.—By the act of 1790, two years were required before naturalization; in 1795, it was raised to five years; and in 1798, during the administration of the elder Adams, to fourteen. In 1802 under Thomas Jefferson, it was brought back to five.

DISSOLUTION.—THE PARTNERSHIP between Joseph and James Hagerty, in the mercantile business at Hancock, Clearfield County, Pa., has been dissolved as of this day (Nov. 14, 1855) by mutual consent. JOSEPH HAGERTY, JAMES A. HAGERTY.

COURT PROCLAMATION.—WHEREAS The Honorable JAMES BURNSIDE, Esq., President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of the County of Clearfield, composed of the counties of Clearfield, Centre and Clinton; and the Honorable RICHARD SEAW and JOHN P. IOTT, Associate Judges of Clearfield county, have issued their process, bearing date the TWENTY-NINTH day of Sept. 1855, to be directed for the holding of a Court of Common Pleas, Orphans' Court, Court of Quarter Sessions, Court of Oyer and Terminer, and Court of General Jail Delivery, at Clearfield, in and for Clearfield county, on the THIRD MONDAY OF DECEMBER next, being the 17th day of the month.

NOTICE IS THEREFORE HEREBY GIVEN, To the Coronor, Justice of the Peace, and Constables and for the county of Clearfield, to appear in their own proper persons with their Lists, Records, Inquisitions, Examinations, and other Remembrances, to do those things which to their offices, and in their behavior, pertains to be done; and Jurors and Witnesses are requested to be then and there attending, and not to depart without leave, at their peril.

GIVEN under my hand, at Clearfield, this 14th day of November, 1855, of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and the eightieth year of American Independence. JOSIAH R. REED, Sh. J. Clearfield, Nov. 14, 1855-56.

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE, 1855-6.—THE TRIBUNE is now in the middle of its 57th local publication, and weekly issues to the amount of the 1st of September last. The American public need not now be acquainted with its character or claims to consideration. With but a subordinate regard for prudence, policy and popularity, it has aimed to stand for the cause of Truth, for Humanity, against fortified Iniquity, Fraud and Oppression. There is not a slave-trader on this Continent, who may never read anything but his bills of sale and notes payable, who does not know and hate the TRIBUNE; there is not an extensive fabricator of drugged and poisonous Liquors who does not consider it a very dangerous and immoral paper, and wender why its publication is tolerated in a commercial cotton-buying City like New-York. The Tribune merely once, for a time, it had never known a hard, grinding, screwing, avaricious employer who was not hostile to the Tribune, nor an ungenerous and plain-spoken in its denunciations of iniquity and abuses of power, whilst claiming no exemption from human fallibility, it may have done temporary injustice to individuals, but has never been unfaithful to Principle, nor deaf to the cries of the wronged and suffering. In its columns the advocates of novel and unpopular theories concerning the melioration of human woollen, especially those of the voteless and down-trodden, have found audience and hospitality; while it has already resisted, and will persistently combat, every attempt to proscribe and degrade any class because of its political activity. In Greece, in defence of calumnies the most atrocious, and of hostilities the most deadly and untrue, the TRIBUNE has grown steadily in public appreciation from the day of its origin. Its means of serving the public have been augmented in proportion. Instead of a single editor with one or two assistants, its organization now comprises a numerous body of writers—each fitted by special accomplishment and experience for his particular department, and discussion to which his pen is devoted; the daily amount of reading matter given more than quadruples that of its earliest issues; a staff of valued correspondents encircles the globe, transmitting early and with the most fidelity, the most worthy of attention; while Politics, Literature, Art, History—in short, whatever affects the social well-being of mankind, Polemic and literary, are treated with here the freest and most searching discussion.

Attached by profound conviction to the beneficent policy of Industrial development and International communication, whose most conspicuous champion it has been through the last year, its policy is imbued, moreover, with the spirit of forbearance towards our weaker neighbors, and toward the much wronged Aborigines of this Continent, and of Peace with all nations, and of the name of Whig, the Tribune, while surrendering no jot of its proper independence co-operated earnestly and ardently with the Whig party so long as its vitality was preserved. When in 1852 an attempt was made to interpolate its name into its creed, we sternly resisted that imposition; when, at the close of the last Presidential campaign, it was seen that a large portion of the Whig professed, but in reality, were in sympathy with the Anti-Slavery wing, we shared its triumph, even under a conservative Chief of a Pro-Slavery platform, we knew and proclaimed that the Whig party was no more. Subsequent events, the rise and fall of the Know Nothing conspiracy, and the speedy absorption therein of the whole force of Pro-Slavery Whigism, only confirmed our unshaking anticipations. With no sickly lament, and without any party feeling, we have bygone, but with hope, and joy, and sympathy, and words of cheer, have hailed the beginning and watched the progress of that mighty REPUBLICAN movement which impelled by the party organization of the Missouri Company, and stimulated by the astounding outrages whereof the rights of the Free Settlers of Kansas have been the victims—by repeated and utter violation of their elections by armed and organized troops, and hurried suddenly upon them from the border counties of the neighboring Slave State, is destined to sweep away the landmarks of old party feuds, and drive the true Whig, strong in the faith of the free-people, into the arms of the Whig party, and the speedy absorption therein of the whole force of Pro-Slavery Whigism, only confirmed our unshaking anticipations.

NEW FIRM.—MERRILL & CARTER, would inform the public, that they have just opened an extensive Manufactory of SHEET-IRON WARE, COPPER, TIN AND SHEET-IRON WARE MANUFACTORY. On Second Street in the borough of CLEARFIELD. where they are prepared to furnish at reduced prices every variety of articles in their line. "Steel, Bar-iron, nails, stoves of every variety, Ploughs and farming utensils; pumps of every description, stove pipe, patent sausage cutters, funnels and self sealing cans kept constantly on hand. All orders for castings for Flour Mills, Saw Mills &c. will be thankfully received and promptly attended to. O. B. MERRILL, L. R. CARTER. Clearfield, Sept. 19, 1855.

IMPORTANT TO HOUSEKEEPERS AND FRUIT GROWERS.—ARTHUR'S PATENT AIR-TIGHT SELF-SEALING CANS AND JARS, for Preserving Fresh Fruits, &c.—This invention for which a patent has been obtained, commends itself to the attention of Housekeepers, and others, on account of its great simplicity, and the effectual manner in which it accomplished a very desirable and useful object. The cans and jars are constructed with a channel around the mouth, near the top, into which the cover fits loosely. This channel is filled with a very adhesive cement, prepared for the purpose and allowed to harden. In order to seal the cans, a large and extensive stable, an excellent vessel, covered with such as is enclosed, by slightly warming the top. The ordinary tin cans used for drying goods, as well as those which cannot be closed, as well known without the aid of a tinner, are difficult to open, and are generally so much injured in opening as to be useless for future service. This simple contrivance, the process of hermetical sealing is placed conveniently within the reach of every individual; and fruit, vegetables and butter (if properly prepared) may be kept, their natural qualities unimpaired, for an indefinite length of time. For sale by MERRILL & CARTER. Clearfield, Sept. 19, 1855.

A VALUABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE.—I desire to sell my property in Tyrone City, Blair Co. Pa., commonly known as the Tyrone City Hotel. Comprising as follows: One large three story brick house, sixty feet wide and thirty feet high, in complete style. A large and extensive stable, an excellent wash house and other necessary out-buildings. There is also, on the same lot, one frame house, with out-buildings attached, now renting for one hundred and thirty dollars per annum. The whole stands upon three valuable lots in the plot of said town, and affords several very eligible locations for store, offices, &c. &c. The whole will be sold on reasonable terms. And to any person desiring an investment on speculation, now is the chance. Private reasons induce me to sell this valuable property, which is every day increasing in value. Inquire of Galeb Guyer, or the subscriber J. D. STEWART. Tyrone City, Sept. 19, 1855-56.
