

THE JOURNAL.

GREAT PENNSYLVANIA CORN CRISIS.—A correspondent writes to the Tribune from Waynesborough, that the corn crops of Franklin and adjoining counties are greater in the aggregate than before fifteen years.

As an evidence of the sport to be had in Texas, we give the following paragraph from the Austin State Gazette: "We frequently hear of fine sport in bear hunting in our upper valley. Some panthers, and, and leopards are occasionally killed. But the last specimen related by the Liberty Gazette, of the top of the last winter, that a Benj. M. Greer, of that county, killed in twelve consecutive mornings, before dinner, thirteen bears, one panther, one wildcat, and seven deer. No wonder a Texan can whip his weight in wildcats."

VILLANOUS ACT.—On Sunday evening, while the minister was addressing the congregation of the M. E. Church at Orange, New Jersey, the galleries were cleared to settle down suddenly, and the pillars to give way. A rush was instantly made for the doors, but fortunately no one was injured. It was afterwards ascertained that some second-story had removed the props which supported the floor of the church no doubt for the purpose of precipitating the congregation into the cellar.

CASUALTY TO HONOR.—Several of the large ship owners of New York have agreed to fix the rates of passage to European ports, in their second cabins, at $18 for adults, and $10 for children under 12 years. In the steerage, $10 for adults, and $5 for children, including provision, which will be furnished by the ship.

A FAIR EXPLANATION.—Mrs. George Nicholas in a letter to the New York Times, gives the following definition of Free Love: "The freedom of love means an elevation of the present standard of morality, and the consecration of the whole love of nature and life to the development of man, and woman, and to a higher civilization."
