Jingle, jingle-fast it flies, Shooting shafts from roguish eyes Careless archers I'll be bound, Little heeding whom they wound; See them with capricious pranks, Ploughing now the drifted banks, Jingle, jingle-mid the gice. Who among them cares for me?

Jingle, jingle-on they flow. Caps and bonnets white with snow, And the faces swimming past-Nodding through the fleecy blast; Not a single robe they fold To protect them from the cold. Jingle, jingle-'mid the storm, Fun and frelic keeps them warm.

Jingle, jingle down the hill, O'er the meadows, past the mill, Now 'tis slow, now 'tis fast, Winter will not always last; Every pleasure has its time, Spring will come and stop the chime. Jingle, Jingle-clear the way, 'Tis the merry, merry sleigh.

ONE OF THE SPEECHES .- Job Kolick was relled throat, and lungs as large as two bushel baskets, enabled him to electrify his constituents up to a fighting point in less time than it would take for a Susquehanna raft to go, over Niagara Falls. His great speech delivered in Bob Stubb's ten acre lot, was a crusher. For the sake of posterity we give an extract:

"FELLOW-CITIZENS!-You might jist as well try to dry up the Atlante ocean with a broom straw, or draw this 'ere stump from under my feet with a harnessed gad-fly, as to convince me that I ain't gwine to be elecated this heat. My opponet don't stand a chance-not a snift. Why he ain't as intellectual as a common sized shad. Fellers, I am a hull team with two bull dogs under the wagon and a tar bucket-I am. If there's anybody this side of whar the sun begins to blister the earth that kin wallop me, let him show himself-I'm ready. Boy's I go in for the American Eagle-claws, lastin' button holes, of I don't knock down, off. All the parties were connected with the drag out, and gouge everybody as denies it."

Now's THE TIME .- This, we were reminded the other day, is Leap Year, and if the girls could induce congress, or the respective State Legislatures, to pass some such act as the following, enacted by the Scotch Parliament in 1288, specially for Leap Year, they might get many a bachelor in a tight place. Suppose they try:

"It is statut and ordaint that during the rein of her maist blissit Megestie, ilk fourth year, known as Leap Year, ilk maiden ladyel of bespeak ye man she likes; albeit, if he refuses be, except and awis if he make it appear that he is betrothit to ane ither woman, that he

An innocent and pure minded Jonathan, in a warm argument with a John Bull, on our national institutions, was endeavoring to floor his antagonist, who had sneeringly remarked that fortunately the Americans couldn't go further westward than the Pacific shore.' Yankee searched his pregnant brain for an instance, and triumphantly replied, 'why good | gracious, they're already leveling the Rocky-Mountains, and carting the dirt out west; I had a letter from my consin last week who is living two hundred miles west of the Pacific shore-on made ground.

AUDACITY .- The Boston Gazette has the following; -- Another attempt has been made to day (Saturday,) to coerce or trifle with the freedom of the press. An editor, residing in Dover street, found that some wretch had rolled a barrel of apples into his premises, a bribe probably intended to stop his mouth against some diabolical project to him at present unknown. To show his just indignation he knocked in the head of the barrel at a single blow, and is now waiting to find out the perpetrater of this base effort to barricade his door, when justice will be fully meted out.

proximation to truth, the human family inhabiting the earth has been estimated at 700,000,-000; the annual loss by death is 18,000,000. Now the weight of the animal matter of this immense body cast in the grave, is no less than 924,000 tons, and by its decomposition produces 9,000,000,000,000 cubic feet of gaseous matter. The vegetable productions of the earth clear away from the atmosphere thus generated, decomposing and assimilating them for their own increase. This cycle of changes has been going on ever since man became an occupier of the earth. He feeds on the lower rect I animals, and on the seeds of plants, which, i due time, become part of himself. The lo animals feed upon the herbs and grasses, in their turn, become the animal; then death, pass again into the atmosphere, ready once more to be assimilated by the earthy or body substance alone ren teenth year; Vol. XV, of its weekly issue commenced on the 1st of September last. The American public need not now be made acquainted with its character or claims to consideration. With but a subordinate regard for prudence, policy and popularity, it has aimed to stand for Righeousness, for Truth, for Humanity, against fortified Iniquity, Fraud and Oppression. There is not a slave-trader on this Continent, tho' he may never read anything but his bills of sale and notes-payable, who does not know and hate the TRIBUNE, there is not an extensive fabricator of drugged and poisonous Liquors who does not consider it a very dangerous and immoral paper, and wonder why its publication is tolerated in a commercial cotton-buying City like New-York. The Newark Mercu-ry once forcibly remarked that it had never known a hard, griping, screwing avaricious employer who was not hostile to the TRIBUNE, nor one eminently generous and kindly who did notlike it! Prompt and plain-speken in its denunciations of iniquity and abuses of power, whilst claiming no exemption from human fallibility, it may have done temporary injustice to individuals, but it has nov-er been unfaithful to Principle, nor deaf to the ries of the wronged and suffering. In its columns he advocates of novel and unpopular theories contemplating the melioration of human wees, aspecially those of the voiceless and down-trodden. have ever found audience and hospitality; while it has already resisted, and will persistently com-bat, every attempt toproscribe and degrade any, class because of diversities of Nativity, or Creed.

In defiance of calumnies the most atrocious, and of holtilities the most deadly and untrue, the Tut-BUNE has grown steadily in public appreciation from the day of its origin. Its means of serving the public have been augmented in proportion. Instead of a single editor with one or two assistants, its organization new comprises a numerous body of writers—each fitted by special accomplish-ment and experience for the particular line of discussion to which his pen is devoted; the daily amount of reading matter given more than quadruples that of its earliest issues; a staff of valued correspondents encircles the globe, transmitting early and intelligent narrations of whatever is most worthy of attention; while Politics, Legisla-tion, Literature, Art. History—in short, whatever affects the social well-being of mankind. Polemic Theology alone excepted-finds here the freest and most searching disseussion.

Attached by profound conviction to the benifi-ent policy of Industrial development and Internal Intercommunication whose most conspicuous champion through the last half-century was HEXmy CLAY-imbued, moreover, with the spirit of forbearance towards our weaker neighbors, and toward the much wronged Aborigines of this Continent and of Peace with All which will hallow the name of Whig, the TRIBUNE, while surrendering io jot of its proper independence co-operated ea nestly and ardently with the Whig party so long as its vitality was preserved. When in 1850-2 an attempt was made to interpolate slave-hunting into its creed, we sternly resisted that imposition; when, at the close of the last Presidential canpreferred to defeat their own party rather than allow its Anti-Slavery wing to share its triumph, even under a conservative Chief on a Pro-Slavery platform, we know and proclaimed that the Whig arty was no more. Subsequent events, including the rise and calumniation of the Know Nothing conspiracy, and the speedy absorption therein of the whole force of Pro-slavery Whigism, only confirmed our undoubting anticipations. With no sickly lamentations, therefore, for the inevitably bygone, but with hope, and joy, and sympathy, and words of cheer, have we halled the beginning and watched the progress of that mighty REPUB-LICAN movement which impelled by the perfidious violation of the Missouri Compact, and stimu-Watches, Jewelry, and Silver-ware—the largest, rights of the Free Settlers of Kausas have been the victims-by repeated and atter vitiation of their watches, gold lockets, gold chains, gold Pens, rings, breast-pins, spectacles, silver forks, bracelets, sleeve buttons, could nine, our vince. ed to sweep away the landmarks of old party fewls, and unite the true hearts and strong arms of the free-souled in one mighty effort to confine he scourge and scandal of our country within the limits of the States which unwisely uphold it. To the success of this effort, the energies of the Tat-BUNE will be sternly devoted; while the TEMPER-ANCE REFORM, including the entire suppression of the trafic in intoxicating beverages, will find in it. as hitherto, an earnest and unflinching champion. Commencing as a daily folio sheet of moderate ze, and with seardely a shadow of patronage, the TRIBUXE is now issued in quarto form Daily (three distinct editions), Semi-Weekly, and Weekly, on a sheet 44 by 34 inches, eight ample pages of six col-umns each. Its circulation has steadily grown from nothing to the following aggregate Daily issues, eve. and morn : 29,500 copies.

Semi Weekly : 186,500 California edition : : : 6,000 TOTAL, : : : 186,175 copies. We believe no other newspaper in the world has subscription list over half so large as this; and no periodical of any sort can rival it. And while extreme cheapness rendering an increase of paying readers only as indirect pecuniary advantage to us, has doubtless largely swelled it sub-scriptions list, it would be absurdity not perceive in this unprecedented patronage some evidence f public approval and esteem. TERMS ... The TRIBUNE employs no traveling agents and sends out no papers on trust. If it is not stopped when the term paid for expires, and the subscriber does not choose further to pay for it, we resort to no legal process to compel him. the Weekly, we mean to stop every paper on the expiration of the advance payment, awaiting a fresh remittance from the subscriber. If none comes the account is closed. We pay no local agents-wish no money paid to any when the payor cannot trust him to mail or other wise and it to us; once mailed, its safety is at our risk, (and a serious risk it often proves); but are grateful to every one who deems it a good work to obtain and forward the names and money of his friends and neighbors. Our terms invariably are—for the DAILY TRIBUNE, one copy, $6 per annum. SEMI-WEEKLY, $3; 2 copies for $5; 5 for $11.25. WEEKLY, $2; 3 copies for $6; 5 for $8; 10 for His table shall always be supplied with the best 12; 20 copies to one address for $20; larger clubs SI each subscriber. Additions may at all times be made to a clab at the price paid by those alrea-dy in it. GREELY & MCHLEATH. Nov. 21.] No. 154 Nassau St., New-York.
