

THE ERIE RAILROAD CASE.

THE E. & N. E. RAILROAD CO. vs. JOSEPH CASEY.—In the Supreme Court.—The Erie and North East Railroad was chartered on the 12th of April, 1842. The charter contained this clause, "that if the said Company shall misuse or abuse any of the privileges hereby granted, the Legislature may resume the rights and privileges granted to said Company."

On the 10th of October, 1854, the Governor approved this act on the 6th of October, and appointed Mr. Casey Commissioner to take charge and custody of the road. Before actual possession was taken, the Company applied to the Supreme Court for an injunction against the Commonwealth alleging, 1st. That the Act was unconstitutional.

2d. That the forfeiture of the Charter, if any had occurred, had been waived by the State. 3d. That the Acts alleged by the State against the Company were not sufficient ground of forfeiture to justify the repeal of the charter.

On the 10th of October, the opinion of the Court was delivered by Justice Lewis, and Justice S. W. Wilkins. The Court held that the Act was unconstitutional, and that the forfeiture of the Charter, if any had occurred, had been waived by the State.

This morning the effort to call up the House Bill was renewed, but ineffectually. A motion to suspend the orders of the day, that it might be considered, was lost—yeas 11, nays 21.—Subsequently, at the sessions, a direct motion to take it up was—yeas 12, nays 20. And this afternoon the consideration of the House Bill was fixed for Tuesday next, after the license bill read in by Mr. Wilkins.

AFFAIRS IN WASHINGTON.—Jan. 21.—It is understood beyond dispute that but for Mr. Walker's revolutionary movements, Nicaragua and Great Britain would before now have concluded a treaty satisfactory to the former with regard to the Mosquito Territory and kindred questions, and at the same time not conflicting with the Clayton-Bulwer treaty.

The hundred votes cast for Mr. Smith, of Virginia, for Speaker this afternoon, were by the friends of Messrs. Orr and Fuller, with Mr. Wheeler added. Messrs. Arley, Hickman, Williams, and Haven voted with the triumphant opposition. The plurality will again be voted on to-morrow, with a biter prospect of success than heretofore.

According to an official despatch just received from Stockholm, the Swedish Government has removed the import and export duty from various kinds of iron.

In the Senate, to-day, Mr. Seward made an able speech on Central American affairs, enforcing the Monroe doctrine in forcible language, and alluding to the possibility of a war with England. Concerning the present conflict now convulsing Europe, he says the British administration has long been unfaithful to the cause of free institutions in Europe, and the French empire is, in my eyes, a hateful usurpation.

IMPORTANT TO HOUSEKEEPERS AND AIR-TIGHT SEALING.—ARTHUR'S PATENT AIR-TIGHT SEALING CANS AND JARS, for Preserving Fresh Fruits, &c.—This invention for which a patent has been obtained, commends itself to the attention of Housekeepers and others, on account of its great simplicity, and the effectual manner in which it accomplished a very desirable and useful object. The cans and jars are constructed with a channel around the mouth, near the top, into which the cover fits loosely. This channel is filled with a very adhesive cement, prepared for the purpose and allowed to harden. In order to seal the vessel hermetically, it is only necessary to heat the cover slightly, and press it into place. It may be opened with as much ease as it is closed, by slightly warming the top. The ordinary tin cans used for the same purpose for which this is intended, cannot be closed, as is well known without the aid of a tinner, and difficult to open, and are generally so much injured in opening as to be useless for future service. By this simple contrivance, the process of hermetic sealing is placed conveniently within the reach of every individual, and fruit, vegetables, and butter (if properly prepared) may be kept, with their natural flavor unimpaired, for an indefinite length of time. For sale by MERRELL & CARTER. Clearfield, Sept. 19, 1855. If
