HOME FACTS AND FANCIES.

WANTED-A couple bushels of good potatoes, at this office. Don't everybody come at once. "One at a time," is the way.

Exhibition .- As will be seen by a notice in to-day's Journal, an exhibition of the students of the Clearfield Institute is to be given in the Town Hall, in this borough, on the evening of the 14th instant.

ACCEPTABLE .- We received a letter a few days since containing a piece of paper "billus. trated" with a number of X's. If any of our friends are burthened with that kind of stuff, we have capacity for a little "more of the same sort."

Is there is any virtue in the old adage that when "March comes in like a lion, it will go out like a lamb." we may soon look for an end of the existing severe winter, for more disagreeable and blustery weather could not well be than prevailed during the first three or four days of the present month. The winds were high, and the snow, which fell in consideroble quantities, was driven wildly about and by forming into drifts has obstructed the roads very much. The first fall of snow this winter was the night after Christmas, since which time large quantities have been added. During the period from Christmas until now, but little thawing has occurred-there being only two days, we believe, in which it was perceptible to any extent, and then not enough to completely "settle down" the snow. Much inconvenience has been experienced by those engaged in making timber and in conveying it to the river banks, by the great depth of the snow, and there is little doubt that but for it much more lumber would have been taken to market than will be the ensuing season. If 'this snow should happen to pass off with rain or a sudden thaw, much damage may be extion along the streams.

RANDOM THOCOHTS .- A short time ago, we were sitting at the casement in the moment when the chime of the "church-going bell" broke the quiet which is wont to prevail on the day set apart for the service of Omnipotent Jehovah. Soon the bustling throng was gliding past: here an aged sire-the hear of years had marked his locks once dark as the raven's plumage-his step was unsteady-the light of his eye was not as vivid as erst-calmness and content sat upon his brow; there a fairy being, with quick-beating pulse, bouvant spirits, and high hopes. Happy, indeed, is her present existence; but, alas, as years begin to thicken on her, anxieties and perplexities will arise-sorrow may usurp the abode of bliss, and misery dispel the brightest anticipations. Close upon these comes a stately, queen-like form, with beauty stamped on her fincaments; and anon one upon whom the world has beamed less brightly. Here goes one of the proud "lords of creation ;" there passes a "lone, lorn widow," with grief and poverty as her portion. The passers-by have become multitudinous, all hurrying to the sanctuary, where the gospel is to be expounded and its precepts taught. What a motley crew they are-and what a variety of thoughts are here "cribbed-up, cabined and confined."-Here will be found avarice and selfishness, as well as holy and plous reflections and hopes of a bright immortality-beneath the gaudy vestment as well as the homely garb may throb many a wicked heart and dwell many an unrighteous thought. Strange things, indeed, often transpire in the gorgeous temples of this world. Whilst a highly-perfumed, kid-gloved scion of fallen Adam will cause a score of pewdoors to fly open as if by magic, a plain, unostentatious man, though he may be "a whale in a fish-pond," intellectually considered, will scarcely attract the chilling attention of a bur-Ir sexton, who bows him into an obscure and uncomfortable seat! Would the meek and lowly Nazarine, who preached "good will to all men," make such distinctions / Does HE require that frail humanity should be superbly attired with glittering diamonds and rustling silks, and make an ostentatious display, in order to secure an entrance to that happy place,

In Torkey, whenever a storekeeper is convicted of telling a lie, his house is painted black, to remain so for one month. If there were such a law in force in this country, what a sombre and gloomy appearance some of our towns would present.

Non-INTERCOURSE .- The House of Representatives of Georgia, by formal resolution. have declined to hold intercourse with Vermont, and instructed the Governor accordingly. They will neither receive messages nor send them.

WRECK AND LIVES LOST .- The ship Great Duke, of Boston, from New Orleans for Liverpool, was wrecked Feb. 9th, and Capt. Sampson and twenty-nine men were drowned. The tion, but only to inform Mr. Marcy that such pected to result to property of every descrip. > When Edward Everett was entertained at a ublic dinner before leaving Boston, Judge Story gave as a sentiment-"Genius is sure to be rewarded where Ever-ett goes." Everett responded-"Law, equity and jurisprudence; no efforts can raise them above one Story." Of this amount $1000 was paid in cash, and the remainder sccured by a mortgage on his farm. The counsel put in a plea of insanity, and Fyler was sent to purchase the Hermitage and present it to to the Lunatic Asylum. The mortgage is now about due, and the holders, on proposing to fore-close it, were met with the defence that if the maker of it was insane when the murder was committed, could he have been sane at the time of giving the mortgage? It looks as

CAUSE OF THE COLD .- In a communication to the Scientific American, Mr. T. Barrows, of Dedham, Mass., alluding to the intense cold of this winter, states that he never saw the sky so brilliant and clear by day and night before. He attributes the cause of the cold to the hundreds of thousands of tons of powder which have been burned at Sevastopol, and other, places, having put into circulation large quantities of nitrous gas. "If saltpeter and salammoniae," he says, "be put into a given quantity of water at 50deg Fah., it will reduce its temperature 50deg." He therefore concludes that the gases of the exploded gunpowder named have exerted a great cooling influence upon the atmosphere, both in Europe and America. On account of the pure cold air this winter, he is of opinion that cholera, yellow fever, and the potato rot will not be so prevalent during the present, as in former years.

We see that bill No. 268, a supplement to the charter of the borough of Curwensville, in this county, passed its several readings in the State Senate, on last Thursday.

THE CHINESE are queer people. At Pekin there is a phalanstery called the "House of Hen Feathers," where the poor are lodged for one fifth of a farthing per night. It is simply a vast hall thickly strewn with feathers. Men, women and children all lie down together in the beauty of communism : an immense coverlet is then let down over the party, with holes through which the sleepers put their heads, so as not to be sufficated. At daylight the phalansterian canopy is hoisted up, after a signal on the tam tam, to invite holders to draw back their heads or swing.

The police were called upon to disperse the crowd.

THE WISCONSIN GOVERNORSHIP .- The Juliciary Committee of the Wisconsin Senate have made a report upon the contested election case between Barstow, the occupant of the Gubernatorial chair, and Mr. Bashford, the Republican claimant, in which the whole question is elaborately reviewed. The Committee came to the conclusion that Mr. Bashford is entitled to the office-having received 35,872

In Chicago Miss Lizzie Tattle cowhided a fellow boarder named William Graves for circulating reports prejudicial to ber character. She walked into the parlor, took him by the collar, and laid it on good. If there were more women like Lizzie able and willing to defend their honor against the misrepresentations of scoundrels, some of the ill bred loafers who delight in making remarks degrading to women would be apt to take up some other trade. THE HAWAHAN NATION .- The Polynesian says that the Hawaiian nation, which 70 years ago was estimated variously at from 200,000 to 400,000, now only counts 72,000, a decrease within this period of at least 2-3. Vast tracts of land do not harbor a human soul; fertile kalo lands, once under cultivation, are left to the rule of grass and weeds. The island of Kanai, remarkable for the productiveness of its soil, and capable to sustain a population of at least 100,000, contains only 6000.

INFORTANT TO HOUSEKEEPERS AND FRUIT GROWERS .-- ARTHUR'S PATent Air-Tight Self-Sealing Cans and Jars, for Preserving Fresh Fruits, &c.-Thus invention for which a patent has been obtained, commends itself to the attention of Housekeepers and others, on account of its great simplicity, and the effectu-al manner in which it accomplished a very desirable and useful object

The cans and jars are constructed with a chan nel around the mouth, nerr the top, into which the cover fits loosely. This channel is filled with a very adhesive coment, prepared for the purpose and allowed to harden. In order to scal the vesset hermetically, it is only accessary to heat the cover slightly, and press it into place. It may be opened with as much ease as it is closed, by slightly warming the top. The ordinary tin cans. used for the same purpose for which this is intended. Nov. 14, '55.-3t* MISSES' FLATS,-trimmed and untrimmed,cannot be closed, as is well known without the aid of a tinnsr; are difficult to open, and are generally so much injured in opening as to be useless for June 27, 55.] future service. DRY GOODS A large assortment just re-

By this simple contrivance, the process of hermetical scaling is placed conveniently, within the reach of every individual; and fruit, vegetables and butter (if properly prepared) may be kept with their natural flavor unimpaired, for an indefinite length of time. For sale by MERRELL & CARTER.
