THYATIRA.

Fvery fact that elucidates the fulfilment of prophecy is worthy the attention of all students and observing men. The developments are sometimes almost startling, and always interesting and profitable as matters of general knowledge. This site of one of the seven churches of Asia, was built by Seleneus Nicatur, perhaps about two hundred and ninetytime of peace. After he had achieved many triumphs over his enemies, he formed an alliance with Sandrocothus, an Indian King, in connection with whom he conquered Antigobefore Christ. Syria and part of Phrygia, and for our bed-fellows. all of the provinces, finally, between that and India, fell into his hands.

until the shadow falls across their own path, hiding forever from their eyes the traces of the loved ones, whose living smiles were the five years before the Christian era, during a sunlight of existence. Death is the great antagonist of life, and the cold thought of the tomb is the skeleton of all feasts. We do not want to go through the dark valley, although its passages may lead to paradise; and, with nus in a final battle, called the battle of Ipsus, Charles Lamb, we do not want to lie down in which was fought about three hundred years the muddy grave, even with kings and princes

TIME NEW-YORK TRIBUNE, 1855-6 ... THE TRIBUNE is now in the middle of its ff. teenth year; Vol. XV. of its weekly issue commenced on the 1st of September last. The American public need not now be made acquainted with character or claims to consideration. With bat . subordinate regard for prudence, policy and pop-ularity, it has aimed to stand for Righeousness for Truth, for Humanity, against fortified Iniquity. Fraud and Oppression. There is not a slave-trader on this Continent, the' he may never read anything but his bills of sale and notes-payable, who does not know and hais the TEIEUNE; there is not an extensive fabricator of drugged and polsesous Liquors who does not consider it a very day. gerous and immoral paper, and wonder whyits publication is tolerated in a commercial, cettonbuying City like New-York. The Newark Mercary once forefbly remarked that it had never known a hard, griping, serewing avaricious employer who was not hostile to the Triauxe, nor one eminently generous and kindly who did notlike it! Prompt and plain-spoken in its demociations of iniquity and abuses of power, whilst claiming no examp-tion from human fallfolity. It may have done temponery injustice to individuals, but it has never been unfaithful to Principle, nor deaf to the

the advocates of novel and unpopular theories conemplating the melioration of human wees, asp ially those of the voiceless and down-trodden, have ever found andience and hospitality ; while it has already resisted, and will persistently combat, every attempt toproscribe and degrade any class because of diversities of Nativity, or Creed In defiance of calumnies the most atrocious, and of holtilities the most deadiy and untrue, the Tat-BUNE has grown steadily in public appreciation from the day of its origin. Its means of serving the public have been augmented in proportion. Instead of a single editor with one or two assist ants, its organization now comprises a numerous body of writers-each fitted by special accomplish-ment and experience for the particular line of discussion to which his pen is devoted ; the daily amount of reading matter given more than quadruples that of its carliest issues; a staff of valued correspondents encircles the globe, transmitting early and intelligent narrations of whatever is most worthy of attention; while Politics, Legisla-tion, Literature, Art. History-in short, whatever affects the social well-being of mankind, Polemic Theology alone excepted-finds here the freest and most searching dissentation. Attached by profound completion to the benificont policy of Industrial development and Intern-Intercommunication whose most conspicuous hampion through the last half-century was HES. av ULAY-imbued, moreover, with the spirit offorcarance towards our weaker neighbors, and toward the much wronged Aborigines of this Continent and of Peace with All which will hallow the name of Whig, the Tuinuxs, while surrendering no jot of its proper independence co-operated ca nestly and ardently with the Whig party so long as its vitailty was preserved. When in 1850-2 an attempt was made to interpolate slave-hunting into its creed, we sternly resisted that imposition when at the close of the last Presidential canvass, it was seen that a large portion of the Whigs preferred to defeat their own party rather than allow its Anti-Slavery wing to share its triumph, even under a conservative Chief on a Pro-Slavery platform, we knew and proclaimed that the Whig party was no more. Subsequent events, including the rise and calumniation of the Know Nothing conspiracy, and the speedy absorption therein of the whole force of Pro-slavery Whigism, only confirmed our undoubting anticipations. With no ickly lamentations, therefore, for the inevitably bygone, but with hope, and joy, and sympathy, and words of cheer, have we hailed the beginning and watched the progress of that mighty REPUB-LICAN movement which impelled by the perfidi-ous violation of the Missouri Compact, and stimuated by the astounding outrages whereof the rights of the Free Settlers of Kanaas have been the victims-by repeated and utter vitiation of their lections by an armed mob collected by conspiracy and hurled suddenly upon them from the border counties of the neighboring Sleve State, is destined to sweep away the landmarks of old party Silver Desert do.; Silver Tea do.; Gold Pens and founds, and unite the true hearts and strong arms found found cases; Gold Pens and Silver do.; together of the free-souled in one mighty effort to confirm of the free-souled in one mighty effort to confine the scourge and scandal of our country within the limits of the States which unwisely uphold it. To he success of this effort, the energies of the Tat-SUNE will be sternly devoted; while the TEMPER. ANCE REFORM, including the entire suppression of the trafic in intexicating beverages, will find in it, as hitherto, an earnest and unflinching champion. The surrounding scenery of this city is exceedingly beautiful. The mountains on either side ranging with the wide plain in which the City stands with their beautiful undulations covered with Cyprus trees, presented to the eye a fine view of a few miles in the distance, while the City itself is litterally embosomed in trees and groves of Cyprus and Poplar. The buildings being of white marble, surrounded and overhung with the deep and paler green foliage of those splendid arbor trees, present altogether the most delightful view. There is no place in this country would present any resemblance except New Haven or Cleveland, and t. ey only some slight resemblance in regard to the trees with their green foliage. But the Divine testimony is that this church repeated net, and accordingly the candlestick is removed out of its place. Like the other places Clearfield and vicinity. mentioned, this is a standing monument of Divine displeasure, and a testimony to the New Testament scripture.

There is a melancholy and yet hopeful feeling steals over the imagination in the contemplation of those once splendid and populous cities, now all dilapidated and wasted, if not entirely ovarthrown and destroyed. While we linger upon the scenes of falling cities, as they pass away before invading armies, wasting pastilence, or overwhelming earthquakes, horses on the premises. as direct judgment of Heaven in fulfilment of threatings revealed; we may anticipate the advantage of the fact in future attempts to -oread the Gospel in those cities, that monn- than 50 cents at RICHARD MOSSOP'S. memal testimony stands all around asserting the immaable truth of the scriptures; and tradition adds here voice to give confirmation to the trath of these assertions, together forming a glare of light flaming in the face of infidelity that will oblige it to retire from the face of common sense in silence and shame.

: 186,175 copies. TOTAL. : We believe no other newspaper in the world has a subscription list over half so large as this ; and no periodical of any sort can rival it. And while its extreme cheapness rendering an increase of paying readers only as indirect pecuniary advantage to us, has doubtless largely swelled it subscriptions list, it would be absurdity not perceive in this unprecedented patronage some evidence of public approval and esteem.

TEEMS .... The TRIDUNE employs no traveling agents and sends out no papers on trust. If it is not stopped when the term paid for expires, and the subscriber does not choose further to pay for it. we resort to no legal process to compolition the Weekly, we mean to stop every paper on the expiration of the advance payment, swaiting a fresh remittance from the subscriber. If none comes the account is closed. We pay no local agents-wish no money paid to any when the payer cannot trost bin to mail or other wise s ud it to us; once mailed, its safety is at our risk (and age rious risk it often provesi; but are grateful to every one who deems it a good work to obtain and for-ward the names and money of his friends and DIA SEC
