AFFAIRS AT HOME.

THE WEATHER moderated considerably last week, and the snow thawed enough to destroy the sleighing, which had continued during a of a year. Monday was "frisky as a flirt;" near noon a general breeze was raised in the shape of an equinoxial storm.

It is feared that the severe and continued cold of the present winter has killed the peach trees in this section of country. Examinations have exhibited the fact that the bark on trees tested is dry and has apparently no vitality, and the more tender branches seem to be completely dead.

THE RIVER .- The water, within the last few days, has been raising the ice on the Susquehanna, not enough, however, to break it, tho' we may look for a general "break-up" in a short time. It is unsafe to cross on the ice now; we have heard of several sleighs and sleds breaking through. Caution should be used, as fatal accidents might readily result and squirting of tobacco juice. from crossing.

wensville, where they were joined by a number more, and then returned to this place .-The whole party stopped at the hotel of G. D. Lanich, where an excellent supper had been prepared for the occasion, and to which all did ample justice. The party consisted of about sixty ladies and gentlemen, all of whom, after spending an agreeable evening, went home well pleased.

ANTI-ADMINISTRATION .- In pursuance of notice previously given, a public meeting, composed of persons opposed to the present National Administration, was held at Clearfield on the afternoon of Saturday the 19th inst., to choose delegates to the State Convention, to be held at Harrisburg on the 26th, which is to carry out the Union movement originated by the opposition members of the Legislature. The meeting was organized by appointing Gen. A. M. Hills, President; Philip Antes and O. Hoyt, Vice Presidents; and S. B. Row, Sec'y. The meeting proceeded to elect delegates, which resulted as follows :- Senatorial delegate, Henry Souther, Esq., of Elk Co.; Representative delegate, J. B. McEnally, of Clearfield; and in case of his absence, Gen. A. M. Hills to act in his stead. The meeting then adjourned.

Thus ends, says a Boston paper, one of the most melancholy affairs that has transpired in this city for a long time.

It is recorded as a fact that an engineer on one of the Eastern Railways, on approaching a sixteen foot draw, with his engine, tender, a baggage car and two passenger cars, at the rate of 40 miles an hour, and discovering to at which he will always endeavor to make his his horror, when within a quarter of a mile of t, that the draw was open, instantly realized that to break up in time was absolutely impossible, and "opened wide" rushing over the gap at the fearful rate of 80 or 90 miles an hour, with his train, safe and sound !

THE ACCIDENT AT PHILADELPHIA .- We last week mentioned that a lamentable accident had occurred on the Delaware, on Saturday evening, the 15th inst., 'at about 81 o'clock, by the burningfof the steam ferry boat, New Jersey.

She started from the foot of Walnut street, for Camden having on board, according to the estimate of Capt. Corson, over 100 persons, quite a number being women and children. The boat on reaching the eastern channel, was unable to proceed further, in consequence of THE ANNUAL VALUE of poultry in the United | the ice. She was then run back to the western channel and up along the Island, the intenof New York expends yearly, $1,500,000, in tion of the pilot being to take her round the Island. When opposite Chestnut street the SEVENTY-THREE BATTLES were fought during alarm of fire was given, and in a moment all was terror and consternation. The shricks of the women and children fell fearfully on the ear. When near Arch street, within 10 or 15 feet of shore, she became unmanageable, and taking a sudden turn towards the stream, the passengers were seized with a fresh alarm, and a great number leaped into the water, and some upon cakes of ice. The burning boat drifted back to the Island again, and was finally carried near to the Jersy Shore, where she burnt to the water's edge. About 30 lives
