MPORTANT TO HOUSEKEEPERS AND FRUIT GROWERS. -- ARTHUR'S PAT- ent Air-Tight Self-Sealing Cans and Jars, for Preserving Fresh Fruits, &c. — This invention for which a patent has been obtained, commends itsolf to the attention of Housekeepers and others, on account of its great simplicity, and the effectu-al manner in which it accomplished a very desi-rable and useful object

The cans and jars are constructed with a chan-nel around the mouth, nerr the top, into which the corer fits loosely. This channel is filled with a very adhesive cement, prepared for the purpose and allowed to harden. In order to seal the vessel hermetically, it is only necessary to heat the cover slightly, and press it into place. It may be opened with as much ease as it is closed, by slightly warming the top. The ordinary tin cans, used for the same purpose for which this is intended, cannot be closed, as is well known without the aid of a tinnsr, are difficult to open, and are generally so much injured in opening as to be useless for

By this simple contrivance, the process of hermetical sealing is placed conveniently within the reach of every individual; and fruit, vegetables and butter (if properly prepared) may be kept, with their natural flavor unimpaired, for an in definite length of time. For sale by MERRELL & CARTER.

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE, 1855-6.-THE TRIBUNE is now in the middle of its afteenth year; Vol. XV. of its weekly issue commenced on the 1st of September last. The American public need not now be made acquainted with a character or claims to consideration. With but a subordinate regard for prudence, policy and popularity, it has aimed to stand for Righeousness, for Truth, for Humanity, against fortified Infquity, Fraud and Oppression. There is not a slave-trader on this Continent, the he may never read anything but his bills of sale and notes-payable, who does not know and hate the TRIBUNE; there is not an extensive fabricator of drugged and poison-ous Liquors who does not consider it a very dasgerous and immoral paper, and wonder whyits publication is tolerated in a commercial, cotton-buying City like New-York. The Newark Mercury once forcibly remarked that it had never known a hard, griping, screwing avaricious employer who was not hostile to the TRIBUNE, nor one eminently generous and kindly who did not like it! Prompt and plain-spoken in its denunciations of iniquity and abuses of power, whilst claiming no exemp-tion from human fallibility, it may have done temporary injustice to individuals, but it has nev-er been unfaithful to Principle, nor deaf to the cries of the wronged and suffering. In its columns the advocates of novel and unpopular theories contemplating the melioration of human woes, especially those of the voiceless and down-trodden. have ever found audience and hospitality; while it has already resisted, and will persistently combat, every attempt toproscribe and degrade any

In defiance of calumnies the most atrocious, and of holtilities the most deadly and untrue, the Tar-sung has grown steadily in public appreciation from the day of its origin. Its means of serving the public have been augmented in proportion .-Instead of a single editor with one or two assistants, its organization now comprises a numerous body of writers—each fitted by special accomplish-ment and experience for the particular line of ready made Clothing, in the most fashionable styles ruples that of its earliest issues; a staff of valued constantly on hand. [Aug. 1, '55,-1y. correspondents encircles the globe, transmitting correspondents encircles the globe, transmitting carly and intelligent narrations of whatever is most worthy of attention; while Politics, Legislation, Literature, Art. History—in elect. whatever affects the social well-being of mankind, Polemie Theology alone excepted—finds here the freest and most searching disscussion.

When in 1850-2 an siery, French. English and German Silk Goods, La attempt was made to interpolate slave hunting inces, Gleves. Bolting Cloths, &c. [Aug. 1, '55.-ly. to its creed, we sternly resisted that imposition; when, at the close of the last Presidential can-vass, it was seen that a large portion of the Whigs preferred to defeat their own party rather than allow its Anti-Slavery wing to share its triumph even under a conservative Chief on a Pro-Slavery platform, we knew and proclaimed that the Whig party was no more. Subsequent events, including the rise and calumniation of the Know Nothing conspiracy, and the speedy absorption therein o the whole force of Pro-slavery Whigism, only confirmed our undoubting anticipations. With no sickly inmentations, therefore, for the inevitably bygone, but with hope, and joy, and sympathy, and words of cheer, have we hailed the beginning and watched the progress of that mighty REPUB LICAN movement which impelled by the perfidious violation of the Missouri Compact, and stimulated by the astounding outrages whereof the rights of the Free Settlers of Kapsas have been the victims-by repeated and utter vitiation of their elections by an armed mob collected by conspiracy and hurled suddenly upon them from the border counties of the neighboring Sluve State, is destin-ed to sweep away the landmarks of old party fouds, and unite the true hearts and strong arms of the free-souled in one mighty effort to confine with a variety of fine Gold Jewelry, Gold Curb the scourge and scandal of our country within the Guard and Foo Chains. Commencing as a daily folio sheet of moderate size, and with scardely a shadow of patronage, the TRIBUNE is now issued in quarto form Daily (three distinct editions), Semi-Weekly, and Werkly, on a sheet 44 by 34 inches, eight ample pages of six columns each. California edition : 186,175 eopies We believe no other newspaper in the world has a subscription list over half so large as this; and no periodical of any sort can rival it. And while its extreme cheapness rendering an increase of paying readers only as indirect pecuniary advantage to us, has doubtless largely swelled it subscriptions list, it would be absurdity not perceive in this unprecedented patronage seme evidence of public approval and esteem. TERMS :-- The Turnens employs no traveling agents and sends out no papers on trust. If it is not stopped when the term paid for expires, and the subscriber does not choose further to pay for it we resort to no legal process to compel him. We pay no local agents—wish no money paid to any when the payer cannot trust him to mail or other wise send it to us; once mailed, its safety is at our risk, (and a serious risk it often proves), but are grateful to every one who deems it a good work to obtain and forward the names and money of his friends and neighbors.
