THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE, 1855-6 ... The TRIBUNE is now in the middle of its if-teenth year; Vol. XV. of its weekly issue commen-ced on the 1st of September last. The American ced on the 1st of September last. The American public need not now be made acquainted with a character or claims to consideration. With but a subordinate regard for prudence, policy and popularity, it has aimed to stand for Righeousness, for Truth, for Humanity, against fortified Iniquity, Fraud and Oppression. There is not a slave-trader on this Continent, tho' he may never read trader on this continent, tho' he may never read anything but his bills of sale and notes-payable, who does not know and hate the TRIBUNE; there is not an extensive fabricator of drugged and peisonnot an extensive labricator of drugged and peison-ous Liquors who does not consider it a very dan-gerous and immoral paper, and wonder whyite publication is tolerated in a commercial, cotton-buying City like New-York. The Newark Mercu-ry once forcibly remarked that it had never known a hard, griping, screwing avaricious employer who was not hostile to the Triury, per one eminently was not hostile to the TRIBUNE, nor one eminently generous and kindly who did not like it! Prompt and plain-spoken in its denunciations of iniquity and abuses of power, whilst claiming no exemption from human fallibility, it may have done temporary injustice to individuals, but it has never been unfaithful to Principle, nor deaf to the eries of the wronged and suffering. In its columns the advocates of novel and unpopular theories contemplating the melioration of human wees, especially those of the voiceless and down-trodden, have ever found andience and hospitality; while it has already resisted and affile and the second process. it has already resisted, and will persistently com-bat, every attempt toproscribe and degrade any class because of diversities of Nativity, or Creed.

In defiance of calumvies the most atrocious, and of heltilities the most deadly and untrue, the Tai-BEIDLEMAN & HAYWARD—Wholesale Gro-from the day of its origin. Its means of serving the public have been augmented in proportion— Instead of a single editor with one or two assistants, its organization now comprises a numerous body of writers -each fitted by appoint accomplishment and experience for the particular line of discussion to which his pen is devoted; the daily amount of reading matter given more than quest ruples that of its earliest issues; a staff of valued correspondents encircles the globe, transmitting early and intelligent narrations of whatever is most worthy of attention; while Politics, Legisla-tion, Literature, Art. History—in short, whatever affects the social well-being of markind, Polemie Theology alone excepted-finds here the freest

Attached by profound conviction to the benificent policy of Industrial development and Internal Intercommunication whose most conspicuous champion through the last half-century was HEX-BY CLAY-imbued, mereover, with the spirit offorbearance towards our weaker neighbors, and toward the much wronged Aborigines of this Continent and of Peace with All which will hallow the name of Whig. the TRIBUXE, while surrendering no jot of its proper independence co-operated ea nestly and ardently with the Whig party so long as its vitality was preserved. When in 1850-2 an attempt was made to interpolate slave-hunting into its creed, we sternly resisted that imposition; when, at the close of the last Presidential canpreferred to defeat their own party rather than allow its Anti-Slavery wing to share its triumph, even under a conservative Chief on a Pro-Slavery platform, we knew and proclaimed that the Whig platform, we knew and proclaimed that the Whig party was no more. Subsequent events, including the rise and calumniation of the Knew Nothing conspiracy, and the speedy absorption therein of the whole force of Pro-slavery Whigism, only confirmed our undoubting anticipations. With no sickly lamentations, therefore, for the inevitably bygone, but with hope, and joy, and sympathy, and words of cheer, have we hailed the beginning and watched the progress of that mighty REPUR. and watched the progress of that mighty REPUB-LICAN movement which impelled by the perfidi-ous violation of the Missouri Compact, and stimulated by the astounding outrages whereof the rights of the Free Settlers of Kansas have been the victims—by repeated and utter vitiation of their elections by an armed mob collected by conspiracy and hurled suddenly upon them from the border counties of the neighboring Slave State, is destin-ed to sweep away the landmarks of old party feuds, and unite the true hearts and strong arms of the free-souled in one mighty effort to confine the seourge and scandal of our country within the limits of the States which unwisely uphold it. To limits of the States which unwisely uphold it. To the success of this effort, the energies of the Trinux will be sternly devoted; while the TEMPER-ANCE REFORM, including the entire suppression of the trafic in intoxicating beverages, will find in it, as hitherto, an carnest and unflinching champion.

Commencing as a daily folio sheet of moderate size, and with scardely a shadow of patronage, the Trinux is now issued in quarte form Daily (three distinct editions). Semi-Weekly, and Weekly, on a sheet 44 by 34 inches, eight ample pages of six columns each. Its circulation has steadily grewn from nothing to the following aggregate: from nothing to the following aggregate:

Daily issues, eve. and morn: 29,500 copies.

Semi-Weekly : 14,175 Weely : California edition : 186,175 soples. We believe no other newspaper in the world has a subscription list over half so large as this; and no periodical of any sort can rival it. its extreme cheapness rendering an increase of paying readers only as indirect pecuniary advantage to us, has doubtless largely swelled it subscriptions list, it would be absurdity not perceive in this unprecedented patronage some evidence of public approval and esteem. TERMS .-- The TRIBUNE employs no traveling agents and sends out no papers on trust.
