AARON PATCHIN. JACKSON PATCHIN. Burnside, Nov. 28, 1855.

A VALUABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE.

I desire to sell my property in Tyrone City,
Blair Co. Pa., commonly known as the Tyrone City Hotel. Comprising as follows:

One large three story brick house. Sixty feet, two fronts, and finished off in complete style. A large and extensive stable, an excellent wash house and other necessary out-buildings. There is also, on the same Lots, one frame house, with out-buildings attached, now renting for one hundred and thirty dollars per annum. The whole stands upon three valuable Lots as in the plot of said town, and affords several very eligible loca-tions for store, offices, &c., &c. The whole will be sold on reasonable terms. And to any person, desiring an investment, or speculation, now is the chance. Private reasons cause me to sell this val-uable property, which is every day increasing in value. Inquire of Galeb Guyer, or the subscriber J. D. STEWART.

Clearfield Nov. 14, 1855. IMPORTANT TO HOUSEKEEPERS AND FRUIT GROWERS .-- ARTHUR'S PAT-

ont Air-Tight Self-Sealing Cane and Jars, for Preserving Fresh Fruits, &c.—This invention for which a patent has been obtained, commends itself to the attention of Housekeepers and others. on account of its great simplicity, and the effectual manner in which it accomplished a very desirable and useful object

The cans and jars are constructed with a chan-nel around the mouth, nerr the top, into which the cover fits loosely. This channel is filled with a very adhesive cement, prepared for the purpose and allowed to harden. In order to seal the vessel hermetically, it is only necessary to heat the cover slightly, and press it into place. It may be opened with as much case as it is closed, by slight-ly warming the top. The ordinary tin cans, used for the same purpose for which this is intended, cannot be closed, as is well known without the aid future service. By this simple contrivance, the process of her-metical scaling is placed conveniently within the reach of every individual; and fruit, regetables and butter (if properly prepared) may be kept, with their natural flavor unimpaired, for an in definite length of time. THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE, 1855-6 .--THE TRIBENE is now in the middle of its afteenth year, Vol. XV, of its weekly issue commenced on the 1st of September last. The American public need not now be made acquainted with a character or claims to consideration. With but a subordinate regard for prudence, policy and popularity, it has aimed to stand for Righeousness, for Truth, for Humanity, against fortified Iniquity, Fraud and Oppression. There is not a slave trader on this Continent, the he may never read anything but his bills of sale and notes payable, who dees not know and hate the TRIBUNE; there is not an extensive fabricator of drugged and poisonous Liquors who does not consider it a very dangerous and immoral paper, and wonder whylts publication is tolerated in a commercial sotton-buying City like New-York. The Newark Merce ry once forcibly remarked that it had never knews a hard, griping, serowing avarieious employer who was not hostile to the TRIBUNE, nor one eminently generous and kindly who did not like it! Prompt and plain-spoken in its denunciations of iniquity and abuses of power, whilst claiming no exemption from human fallibility, it may have done temporary injustice to individuals, but it has nover been unfaithful to Principle, nor deaf to the eries of the wronged and suffering. In its columns the advocates of novel and unpopular theories comtemplating the melioration of human work, especially those of the voiceless and down-trodden, have ever found andience and hospitality , while it has already resisted, and will persistently combat, every attempt toproscribe and degrade and DUSA OF diversities of Nativity, or Creed In defiance of calumnies the most atrocious, and of holtilities the most deadly and untrue, the Tri-BUNE has grown stendily in public appreciation from the day of its origin. Its means of serving the public have been augmented in proportion .-Instead of a single editor with one or two assist ants, its organization now comprises a numerous body of writers—each fitted by special accomplish-ment and experience for the particular line of discussion to which his pen is devoted; the daily amount of reading matter given more than quadruples that of its earliest issues; a staff of valued correspondents encircles the globe, transmitting early and intelligent narrations of whatever is

Theology alone excepted—firs here the free and most searching dissension.

Attached by profound conviction to the benis

cent policy of Industrial development and Internal Intercommunication whose most conspicuous champion through the last half-century was Hus-BY Chay-imbaed, moreover, with the spirit offerbearance towards our weaker neighbors, and tow-ard the much wronged Abordines of this Continent and of Peace with All which will hallow the name of Whig, the TRIBUNE, while surrendering no jot of its proper independence co-operated ca nostly and ardently with the Whig party to long as its vitality was preserved. When in 1856-7 an attempt was made to interpolate slave-hunting into its croed, we sternly resisted that imposition; when, at the close of the last Presidential canvass, it was seen that a large portion of the Whiga preferred to defeat their own party rather than allow its Anti-Slavery wing to share its triumph. ven under a conservative Chief on a Pro-Slavery platform, we knew and proclaimed that the Whig party was no more. Subsequent events, including the rise and calumniation of the Know Nothing conspiracy, and the speedy absorption therein of the whole force of Pro-slavery Whigism, only con firmed our undoubting anticipations. With no sickly lamentations, therefore, for the inevitably bygone, but with hope, and joy, and sympathy, and words of cheer, have we hailed the beginning and watched the progress of that mighty REPUB LICAN movement which impelled by the perfid: ous violation of the Missouri Compact, and stimulated by the astounding outrages whereof the rights of the Free Settlers of Kansas have been the victims—by repeated and utter vitiation of their elections by an armed mob collected by conspiracy and hurled saddenly upon them from the border counties of the neighboring Slave State, is desifu ed to sweep away the landmarks of old party founds, and unite the true hearts and strong same of the free-souled in one mighty effort to confine the scourge and scandal of our country within the limits of the States which unwisely uphold it. To the success of this effort, the energies of the Tri-bene will be sternly devoted; while the TEMPEN. ANCE REFORM, including the entire suppression I the traffe in intoxicating beverages, will find in it, as hitherto, an earnest and unflinching champion Commencing as a daily folio sheet of moderate size, and with scardely a shadow of patronage, the TRIMUNE is now issued in quarto form Daily (three distinct editions). Semi-Weekly, and Weekly, on a sheet 44 by 34 inches, eight ample pages of six columns each. Its circulation has steadily grown from nothing to the following aggregate: 29,500 copies. 14,175 Daily issues, eve. and morn : Semi-Weekly :

Weely 6,000 Torat. : : : : 186,175 copies We believe no other newspaper in the world has subscription list over half so large as this; and no periodical of any sort can rival it. And while its extreme cheapness rendering an increase of paying readers only as indirect pecuniary advantage to us, has doubtless largely swelled it sub-scriptions list, it would be absurdity not perceive in this upprecedented patronage some evidence of public approval and esteem. TERMS .- The TRIBUNE employs no traveling agents and sends out no papers on trust. If it is not stopped when the term paid to: expires, and the subscriber does not choose further to pay for it, we resort to no legal process to compel him. On the Weekly, we mean to stop every paper on the expiration of the advance payment, awaiting a fresh remittance from the subscriber. If none comes the account is closed. We pay no local agents—wish no money paid to any when the par-er cannot trust him to mail or other wise send it to us; once mailed, its safety is at our risk. (and a se rious risk it often proves); but are grateful to every one who deems it a good work to obtain and forward the names and money of his friends and neighbors. Our terms invariably are—for the DAILY TRIBUNE, one copy, $6 per annum SEMI-WEEKLY, $3; 2 copies for $5; 5 for $11.35.

WEEKLY, $2; 5 copies for $5; 5 for $8: 15 for $12.35. $12, 20 copies to one abbress for $20; larger class $1 cach subscriber. Additions may at all times be made to a club at the price paid by those alreaders. Nor M. No. 154 Nassau St., New York.
