MARRIED,

On Sanday evening, 6th inst., by the Rev. L. L. Still, Col. WM. TEN EYCK, to Miss JENNY, daughter of John D. Thompson, Esq., all of Curwensville.

With the above notice we received a delicious cake. We tender our congratulations to the Col. and his "better half," wishing them unbounded felicity and prosperity-for none deserve it more. The Col. is one of our best friends ; but he never informed us that he had the "heart disease" so severely as to require a resort to the Thompsonian mode of treatment. We have no doubt the cure is permanent .--We wish that we

DIED: .

On March 2nd, JOHN INCREASE, son of John and Elizabeth Orr, of Bell township, aged 8 years, 8 months and 12 days. On the 5th of April, Joux LITZ, son of Da-

The workmen had not excavated to any great depth before they made an opening into a cave. Some little exploration was made directly after the opening, but not sufficient to determine the extent. One large chamber was found near the opening, which was found to contain a large number of grotesque figures and pendants of stalactite from the dome of the cavern. It is the intention of the Major, as soon as opportunity offers, to have this natural curiosity thoroughly explored.

MELANCHOLY CASE OF INSANITY .- The Greenfield Gazette says that Alexander Wheelock, of Orange, who has of late exhibited strong symptons of insanity, recently went to Boston and purchased two expensive coffins, two pairs of grave-stones and a revolver. Soon after his arrival home, he attacked his wife, discharging three barrels of the revolver at her, but without effect. His revolver was taken from him by force. Soon after he attacked his wife with a club, slightly injuring ber. He then attempted to take his own life by cutting his
