AFFAIRS AT HOME.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE .- Next Sunday, being the 13th inst., by Divine permission, services will be resumed in the Episcopal Church in this borough. The recent death of John Litz, one of the Sunday School scholars of the church. will furnish a solemn occasion for a special address to the scholars of the Sunday School, in the afternoon at three o'clock. The parents and relatives of the deceased, and all his associates, are earnestly and respectfully invited to attend.

MONTELIUS & TEN EYCK, in Curwensville, have recived their spring stock of goods, and say they are determined to "do things up brown," in the way of selling cheap goods of a superior quality. See their advertisement in to-day's Journal.

Several other new advertisements appear to which attention is also directed.

OPENED OUT, AGAIN!-The Mansion House In this place having been taken by Samuel Evans, was opened out on Monday for the accommodation of the public. We have no doubt that Mr. Evans will make a popular landlord and will cater to the wants of his customers in the best manner.

GONE AT LAST .- On Sunday last the anxiously awaited and long looked for breaking up of the ice on the Susquehanna took place. On Monday the construction of rafts commenced, and in a day or two they will be gliding down the river in great numbers.

THE ROADS are in a very bad condition. The mails arrive here semi-occasionally, averaging about two in three days between this and Tyrone. Don't know how they are in some directions, as there are places we havn't heard from for about a week or so.

RAIL ROAD MEETING .- Pursuant to general notice, a meeting of the friends of the Tyrone and Clearfield Railroad was held at Shimmel' School House, in Boggs township, on Saturday, 29th day of March. It was organized by calling Jonas H. Peters, Esq., to the chair, and appointing Maj. D. J. Hough and James Turner, Esq., Presidents; Mr. C. J. Hinds was elected Secretary. The President, on taking the chair, stated the object of the meeting, and in a few pertinent remarks, urged upon all present the advantage of subscribing to the stock of the road. On motion, James E. Montgomery, Esq., of Philipsburgh, addressed the meeting at some length, and was followed by Maj. Hough, in answer to a general call, and by Col. B. C. Montgomery, a member of the Philadelphia Bar. After which the subscription books of the company were opened and a number of shares were subscribed, with pledges of others when the company is organized. On motion, the proceedings of this meeting be signed by the officers, and ordered to be printed in the "Clearfield Republican," "Raftsman's Journal," and "Iron Democrat," of Tyrone. On motion the meeting adjourned with three good and hearty cheers for the success and perpetuity of the Tyrone and Clearfield JONAS H. PETERS, Pres't.

D. J. Hough, James Turner, Vice Presidents. C. J. Hines, Secretary.

MARRIED,

On Sunday evening, 6th inst., by the Rev. L. L. Still, Col. WM. TEN EYCK, to Miss JENNY, daughter of John D. Thompson, Esq., all of Curwensville.

With the above notice we received a delicious cake. We tender our congratulations to the Col. and his "better half," wishing them embounded felicity and prosperity-for none deserve it more. The Col. is one of our best friends; but he never informed us that he had the "heart disease" so severely as to require a resort to the Thompsonian mode of treatment. We have no doubt the cure is permanent .-We wish that we

A CAVE IN BLAIR COUNTY .- The Hollidaysburg Standard states that recently Maj. B. F. Bell, of Antis township, in order to facilitate the operation for getting limestone to his kiln, located at the foot of a knob, opposite his residence, made an opening near the apex of the knob, so as to be enabled to slide the stones to the top of the kiln. The workmen had not excavated to any great depth before they made an opening into a cave. Some little exploration was made directly after the opening, but not sufficient to determine the extent. One large chamber was found near the opening, which was found to contain a large number of grotesque figures and pendants of stalactite from the dome of the cavern. It is the intention of the Major, as soon as opportunity offers, to have this natural curiosity thoroughly ex-

MELANCHOLY CASE OF INSANITY .- The Greenfield Gazette says that Alexander Wheelock, of Orange, who has of late exhibited strong symptons of insanity, recently went to Boston and purchased two expensive coffins, two pairs of grave-stones and a revolver. Soon after his arrival home, he attacked his wife, discharging three barrels of the revolver at her, but without effect. His revolver was taken from him by force. Soon after he attacked his wife with a club, slightly injuring ber. He then attempted to take his own life by cutting his throat with a razor, but was frustrated in the attempt.
