EQUESTRIANISM EXTRAORDINARY .- A COTTESpondent of "Life Illustrated," gives the following as a portion of the experience of a cadet at West Point :

"When I came back from furlough my class had ridden for a year, I only for a week or two. to a paying business. Nothing daunted, however, by this, and blindly trusting to fortune and my own powers, I NEW FIRM.—HARTSHORN & M'CRACKEN buckled on a pair of rusty spurs, bound myself securely to an enormous sabre with a ponderous iron scabbard, and sallied forth. Dragoon brought me a raw-boned, vicious looking animal, which, after some preliminary difficulties, I succeeded in mounting.

" 'Trot!' Horse started; so did I, half off my saddle. I had never been taught to keep my heels well out, and accordinaly my spurs NEW ARRIVAL. went in. Horse 'went in' too. Motion peculiar. FOUND HIS FATHER .- "My son, can you take a trunk for me up to the hotel ?" said a passenger stepping from a boat on the levec, to a ragged looking youngster, who sat balancing on the tail end of a dray.

"Your son ?" cried the boy, eyeing him from head to foot. "Well, I'll be dod drapped if I ain't in luck. Here I've been trying to find goods usually kept in a Country Store. daddy these three years, and all of a sudden up comes the old hoss himself, and knows me right off. How are you?" stretching out a muddy looking paw.

The traveller was nonplussed. Between a smile and a frown, he inquired: "What is your name, sir ?"

"My name. So you don't know. Well, its nothing for people in these parts to have so many children that they don't know their names. My name's William but some folks call me ragged Bill, for short. What the other part is I reckon you know, if you don't you said town, and affords several very eligible locamust ax the old 'oman."

towards the hotel, mumbling to himself:

"Well this is a go. The old gemman come home at last. Good clothes, big trunk, must have the tin. Well I am in luck."

There is a fast boy out in Madison, the capital of Wisconsin, who, if he gets no backsets, will scarcely fail to reach Congress or the penitentiary, one of these days.

His school teacher, a young lady, was prosccuted by his parents for pretty severely welting the young rascal's back for his conduct. The case went up to court, and the verdict of the jury was in effect, "served him right." We give a portion of the boy's testimony, the wit of which atones for his rudeness.

"I asked her to do a sum for me, and she

"What was the sum ?" asked the counsel for the defendant.

"To subtract nine from twenty eight."

"Could you do that without her assistance?" "I suppose I could; but the arithmetic said I couldn't subtract nine from eight without borrowing 10, and I didn't know where the d-I to borrow it."

AND HE PLAYED, &c .- We see by a hooppole county paper that a "gemman" of color has been enlightening the residents of that Preserving Fresh Fruits, &c.—This invention for which a patent has been obtained, commends itdistrict by an eloquent and powerful display of oratorical genius never before heard in that on account of its great simplicity, and the effectusection of the country. He closed by saying to his audience that they "would mount on weagles 'ings, and sore to de land ob catfish and eels, whar de graby runs down bofe sides yer mouf. Yea, verily, de day will come when you all will mount on de weagles 'ings, and play upon de harp ob a thousan' strings!"

WHAT FOOLS men are, to lament because they are not as well off as "that fellow across the street." The richest man in town will be so much injured in opening as to be useless for forgotten in fifty years from now, as the mason who built the Rocky Mountains. In 1843 we attended the funeral of a millionaire. We visited his grave recently, and what do you suppose we saw? Four bob-tailed pigs rooting the soil from his grave. And this was the end of all his influence-a neglected grave, with four stub-tailed pigs rooting up the soil. So passes the glory of the world.

It is related of Johnson-"rare Ben Johnson"-that going home in his wagon, one hot day, he fell asleep. Some young scamp, passing that way, unhitched his nag, and sending the poor beast a roaming, drew the wagon to the fence. After a time Ben awakes. He wonders, and, wondering, exclaims : "Am I Ben Johnson, or am I not. If I am Ben Johnson, I have lost a horse; if I am not Ben Johnson, I have found a cart."

ILLUSTRATING A POINT .- Sir Fletcher Norton was noted for his want of courtesy. When pleading before Lord Mansfield on some question of manorial right, he chanced unfortunately to say, "My lord, I can illustrate the point in an instant in my own person. I myself have two little manors." The Judge immediately interposed, with one of his blandest smiles, "We all know it, Sir Fletcher."

Pappy's description of a fiddle can't be beat, he says-"It was as big as a turkey and as fat as a goose-he turned it over on its back, and took a crooked stick, and drawed it across its by belly, and, O, St. Patrick, how it did squall!" | feb13

IMPORTANT TO HOUSEKEEPERS AND FRUIT GROWERS.---ARTHUR'S PATent Air-Tight Self-Sealing Cans and Jars, for self to the attention of Housekeepers and others, al manner in which it accomplished a very desirable and useful object

The cans and jars are constructed with a channel around the mouth, nerr the top, into which the cover fits loosely. This channel is filled with a very adhesive cement, prepared for the purpose and allowed to harden. In order to seal the vessel hermetically, it is only necessary to heat the cover slightly, and press it into place. It may be opened with as much ease as it is closed, by slightly warming the top. The ordinary tin cans, used for the same purpose for which this is intended, cannot be closed, as is well known without the aid of a tinnsr; are difficult to open, and are generally

By this simple contrivance, the process of her metical scaling is placed conveniently within the reach of every individual; and fruit, vegetables and butter (if properly prepared) may be kept with their natural flavor unimpaired, for an in definite length of time.
