

THE JOURNAL.

AFFAIRS AT HOME.

On Sunday the 4th day of May next, the Rev. C. Diehl will preach his farewell sermon, at 11 o'clock in the morning, in the Lutheran Church in Clearfield Borough, and in the afternoon at 3 o'clock, at Kyles's Meeting house in Bradford township.

THE RIVER RAFTING.—The unusual quantity of water in the Susquehanna and its tributaries, has retarded rafting operations very much. A great number of rafts have passed this place last week but, we understand, had to tie up between here and Lock Haven. The Lock Haven Watchman, of the 22d, says, that speculators, pilots, &c., are about in considerable numbers, but that nothing can yet be judged certainly as to the probable prices, though good square pine timber is held at eight, ten and twelve cents, and oak at four cents and that there is a good prospect that better prices will be obtained this year than last.

THE MIDDLETOWN GEN.—The 23d, says, "the river is now too high for the landing of rafts. A number, however, landed last week at Portsmouth, and several passed through for the lower market.

THE RIVER IS IN GOOD RUNNING CONDITION now at this place. In fact, most, if not all, of the rafts have passed down.

GAS LIGHT.—One of our exchanges says: "The New York gas company announce that after November 1st they will reduce the price of gas from $3 to $2.50 per 1,000 feet."

THIS REMINDS US of a proposition we heard spoken of the other day to get up gas works in Clearfield. It was said that a number of our citizens have already engaged, or agreed to have the light-giving air introduced into their houses. The Court House, Churches and Hotels will doubtless all have it; and if the works are got up without unnecessary expense for extravagant buildings, &c., doubtless it will make the stock of the company good, and add much to the conveniences of our town into the bargain.

BAD CONDITION OF BRIDGES.—Our supervisors of roads will find plenty to do in repairing the bridges over the small runs along the various roads through the county. We hear that many of the bridges are either entirely gone, or else in a situation to make it dangerous for horses to cross on them. The loss of a horse on such a bridge would make the supervisors or company owning the bridge liable for damages.—A hint, &c.

NEW OIL CROWN.—We observed the Odd Fellows last week furnishing their Hall with a splendid oil-cloth carpet, which will add much to the neatness and comfort of the Lodge.—The goat will be kept in the ante-chamber hereafter.

For the "Raftsmans' Journal," PLANTING TREES.—Mr. Editor—I observed last week that a number of persons were engaged in planting trees along the foot-walks, and was pleased to see them make choice of the sugar-tree. In my humble opinion, however, fruit trees would be more preferable.—Just for a moment imagine yourself standing on a May day, at the head of Market street, looking down towards the river, and all along, on both sides, hundreds of apple and peach trees, in full bloom, spreading their fragrance on the valley's air, and beautifying the town, and tell us if your opinion then don't coincide with mine. But further on in the year, let these trees be found bearing loads of delicious fruit, and the charm will be still greater.—Strict borough laws could be enacted to protect the trees from the depredations of such as would feel disposed to destroy them, and the value of property would be much enhanced by this orchard improvement in all the streets.

ECONOMY.

TOMY FRIENDS IN CLEARFIELD COUNTY.—With much reluctance I have to bid you adieu. My sojourn with you, as a Missionary, for upwards of three months, has endeared you to my heart, and I had fondly hoped to be left to stay in this county the year out; but it has been ordered otherwise. I have been called back to Harrisburg, to assist in editing and publishing our church organ, the "Church Advocate." I endeavored to preach the truth amongst you, and did so without money and without price; while the extreme personal kindness received at the hands of many of you was an abundant compensation. May the Lord be with you all. I shall endeavor to have another teacher sent in my place, as soon as one can be found who can be spared. Very affectionately yours, &c. J. F. WELSHAMER, Sr., Missionary from the "Church of God," Clearfield, Pa., April 26, 1856.

A HUMAN LIFE SAVED! DOWAGIAC, Mich., March 11, 1856. J. A. RHODES, Esq.: Dear Sir—As I took your medicine in consequence of "no cure no pay," I take pleasure in stating its effects as reported to me by three brothers who live in this place, and their testimony is a fair specimen of all I have received. Mr. Conklin told me—I had taken nine bottles of Christ's Ague Balsam, and continually run down while using it until my lungs and liver were congested to that degree that blood discharged from my mouth and bowels, so that I thought it impossible to live. I had taken another medicine which the doctors told me they could not cure me, but I must die. Nothing did me any good until I got Rhodes's Fever and Ague Cure, which at once relieved me of the distress and pain in my stomach and pain in my head and bowels, and produced a permanent cure in a short time. H. M. Conklin says—I had been taking medicine of good as a doctor as we have in our country, and taken any quantity of medicine and specifying without any good result, from 20th August to 10th December. But seeing how nicely it operated on my brother, I got a bottle of Rhodes's Fever and Ague Cure, which effected a permanent cure by using two-thirds of a bottle. S. M. Conklin was not here, but both the other brothers say his case was the same as H. M.'s. I sold the medicine to both the same day, and the cure was as speedy from the same small quantity, and I might so specify. Yours with respect, A. HUNTINGTON.

The above speaks for itself. Good proof as it is, it is of no better tenor than the vast number of like certificates that have been published, and still greater amount that continually pouring in to me. One thing more. Last year I had occasion to caution the public in these words: "I notice one firm who have taken one of my general certificates, and attribute to the same their cure from their medicine, and then with brazen impudence send their pamphlet with the exclamation: 'Let the proprietor of any other medicine say as much for his as I do for mine.' I shall endeavor to say that the quantity referred to the same 'Dr. Christ's Ague Balsam' that is mentioned in the above certificate. There are several other industrious people who are applying to their poisonous trash all that I can do to prevent it. I shall endeavor to have certificates to Malaria, except the certificates of cures, and the certificate of the celebrated Chemist, Dr. James R. Chilton, of N. Y., in favor of its perfectibility. These will always bear a distinguished mark, and will be a guarantee to the public. J. A. RHODES, Proprietor, Providence, R. I. apr23-56-3m
