CLEARFIELD BOROUGH .- Strolling about town a few days since, we incidentally commenced counting the number of stores, shops, &c., and found that there were eight dry goods stores, one drug store, two book and stationery stores, five tailoring establishments, five boot and shoe shops, three saddle and harness shops, three cabinet and chair-making establishments, one foundry, four wagon-makers' shops, two printing offices, one crockery, one tin-ware manufactory and stove depot, four blacksmith's shops, one clock and watch-maker, one livery stable, and three hotels. There may be some more establishments which we tailed to observe. We have residing in the town two preachers, though there are five churches here, four physicians, one dentist, and nine lawyers in active practice. We know of no way in which these several branches of industry can be made to extend their business operations more readily than by informing the public at large of what is done, and manufactured, and where. And how can this be done more easily than by a system of liberal advertising? A newspaper is the medium which has conducted many a man to fortune, and to make use of this convenient and economi- to-day." cal vehicle of carrying himself into notoriety.

HAVE WE AN ENGINE AMONG US ?- This query suggested itself to us by reading accounts of a large number of fires which have occurred recently in different places, and by which an immense amount of property has been destroyed. We believe there is no engine, or any other kind of apparatus in our town, by means of which a fire could be extinguished. The large number of wooden buildings here would facilitate the destruction of a large portion of the town, should a fire break out on a stormy day. The necessity of having a good engine must, therefore, be apparent to every Property holder and business man in the place. What shall be done in the matter? Will we do without an engine, and by so doing leave the town as food for the devouring element whinever it may happen to burst forth? Or shal we have an engine and other fire extinguishing apparatus among us soon? We shall

Mr. Trepannier, the clerk of the First District Court, was shot and stabbed several times by a party of Sicilians. Much fighting, stabbing and shooting occurred throughout the day. Three Sicilians were killed.

THE House Committee of Investigation into the assault committed by Brooks on Mr. Sumner, made a report, and the majority of the committee recommend the expulsion of Brooks for his unmanly and disgreceful conduct. As it requires a two-thirds' vote to expel a mem ber, the South Carolina bully may possibly manage to secure enough votes to prevent it.

THE editor of the Utica Herald says that he once knew a wild widow who cut out her own daughter in the good graces of her lover and married him herself. To obtain revenge for this unmotherly trick, the daughter set her cap for the young man's rich father, (of whom he was the only heir,) and actually married him and had children, to the infinite annoyance of the other parties. This occurred in Onondago county, New York.

Our Foreign Relations .- The French Minister. Washington, June 3 .- Several days ago Count Sartiges received through the Post Office a newspaper containing a letter from a Washington correspondent, treating of the settled antipathy of foreign Governments towards conduct of the foreign Representatives in their intercourse with society and our public men, red which letter was superinduced by the alinsulting language against our Government, and especially against albg the newspaper in question, bore the seal of the State department. On Saturday Count Sartiges called on Mr. Marcy, indignantly complaining of the insult, and demanded that its suspected author be banished, intimating that in the event of failure to do this, he would demand his passports. Mr.Marey, of course, disavowed all knowledge or responsibility concerning the letter, and expressed regret that anything had happened to occasion offence. Here was a dilemma, but Count Sartiges was apparently satisfied, and the Secretary released from his unpleasant position, by the author, who was a Government employee, but who did not send the letter to Count Sartiges, promptly resigning his office.

THE LOCK HAVEN AND TYRONE RAILROAD.-In the Whig of the 21st ultimo, we asked the question-"What has become of the President and Directers of the Lock Haven and Tyrone Railroad?" When we made the inquiry we expected that some one, "booked up" on the subject, would give us the desired information, but we are as deep in the fog now as then. Early in the spring a meeting of the stockholders was held at Lock Haven, when there was a President and Board of Directors elected, and also a Chief Engineer appointed. Now, we would like to know why the President and Directors so elected, do not order the Engineer to go on and locate the road .-They certainly know that they are the persons to act in the matter, and that the stockholders expected them to act when they elected them. Several months have passed away since their election and they have not even held one meeting, nor done anything to further the project. In justice to the stockholders they are bound to give some reason why they do not go on with the work .- Bellefonte Whig.

A HUMAN LIFE SAVED! Dowagiac, Mich., March 11, 1856.

A. RHODES, Esq.: Dear Sir—As I took your dicine to sell on consignment, "no cure no pay." I take pleasure in stating its effects as reported to me by three brothers who live in this place, and their testimony is a fair specimen of all I have re-W. S. Conklin told me-"I had taken nine bot tles of Christie's Ague Balsarn, and continually run down while using it until my lungs and liver were Congested to that degree that blood discharged from my mouth and bowels, so that all thought impossible for me to live through another chill The doctors too did all they could for me, but tho I must die. Nothing did me any good until I got lieved me of the distress and nausea at my stomach and pain in my head and bowels, and produced a permanent cure in a short time. H. M. Conklin says : "I had been taking medi cine of as good a doctor as we have in our county without any good result, from 25th August to 17th December. But seeing how nicely it operated on my brother, I got a bottle of Rhodes' Fever and A gue Cure, which effected a permanent cure by ut ing two-thirds of a bottle. S. M. Conklin was not here, but both the other brothers say his case was the same as H. M. sold the medicine to both the same day, and the cure was as speedy from the same small quantity and I might so specify. Yours with res A. HUNTINGTON The above speaks for itself. Good proof as it it is of no better tenor than the vast number of lik certificates I have already published, and the stigreater amount that is continually pouring in to me One thing more. Last year I had occasion to can tion the public in these words :- "I notice one fir ho have taken one of my general circulars, se stituted the name of their nostrum for my medpumphlet with the exclamation. Let the proprieto any other medicine say as much if he dures '& Now I take pleasure in saying that the cauti referred to the same "Dr.Christie's Ague Balsam that is mentioned in the above certificate.

There are several other industrious people wh are applying to their poisonous trash all that publish about my Fever and Ague Cure, or Ant dote to Malaria, except the certificates of cure and the certificate of the celebrated Chemist, Dr. James R. Chilton, of N. Y., in favor of its perfec ly heremiess character, which is attached to every potile. These will always serve to distinguish my medicine from imitations. JAS A RHODES.
