AFFAIRS AT HOME.

a portion of an address delivered by Hon. J. P. floyt, of this county, before the Centre County Agricultural Society; we will in our next publish the remainder. The subject of the immediate completion of the western end hall of the depot, he saw one man caning an-Agricultural Improvement is one upon which of that road. Crans, Esq., presided. business of lumbering so absorbs the attention of a large proportion of our people that it withholds them from engaging in that pursuit in which alone is centred the permanent has appropriated $15,000 for a school for idiprosperity of any community. After a while, it may be within, comparatively speaking, a few years, the valuable timber susceptible of easy transit to market, with which this region now abounds, will become scarce, and the lumber business much contracted. This is a natural and inevitable result, and when it does come many persons who are now actively engaged in it will have to seek some other vocation. And where is there one which is more honorable and respectable, more promotive of happiness and contentment, or better calculated to bring an individual into affluent circumstances, than that of agriculture? Objections. it is true, may be raised to a mountainous section of country as having many disadvantages; but all these obstacles can be overcome, if properly managed. Massachusetts was at one time a barren, sterile, rocky region, void of cultivation and not producing enough to supply her inhabitants. Now, however, under a system of scientific farming, she has become rich and productive, and her agriculturists are ranked among the best in the country. And why should not similar results be arrived at here where we have the advantage of naturally productive valleys, and adjacent uplands that are susceptible of easy improvement? We know no reason, and if, as we see stated, there are deposits of good lime in the county, the making of rich, productive farms will be rendered the more easy. We trust that those who are more immediately interested in agriculture will exert themselves in arousing the citizens of our county to a proper appreciation of the importance of this subject.

REPROACHING AMERICANS .- Or last Sabbath, we listened to a sermon delivered by Bishop Young, of Erie, in the Catholic church in this place. In the course of his remarks he referred to the Know-Nothing movement, and with all the gravity and solemnity imaginable made the startling announcement that "Jesus Christ was not an American—that he was foreigner and a Jew by birth," and that "the only exclusively American religion was witnessed in the horrid orgies and nasty practices of a sect who had perched themselves on the peaks of the Rocky mountains, and in the valley of the Salt Lake." Are American citizens to be thus reproached for the lewd, sinful and outrageous practices of the Mormons? Are they to be charged with being the cause of these? And who, after all, constitute the mass of this deluded class? Every intelligent reader knows that since their settlement in the Salt Lake valley, their greatest accessions have been from abroad, and it is but recently that we saw mention made of 2000 Europeans being on their way to join this sect in their | the Cincinnati Convention. present home. And yet Americans are to be blamed for 4-the horrid orgies and nasty practices" of these foreign followers of the Motmon prophet! We think, if His Holiness, the Buchanan is supported by the Journal of Com-Bishop, would confine himself to his appropriate mission of "Christ and Him crucified," instead of indulging in slang phrases and abusive epithets of the American people-such as "midnight cabal," "bands of traitors," etc., etc .- it might give less cause for the fault findings and "persecutions" to which he alluded. We have seldom listened to a more Jesuitical bigotry and passions of his audience. While pretending to counsel them to bear, silently, persecution and repreach for Christ's sake, he did not fail to remind them of all that could appeal to their prejudice and arouse their hostility to Americans and Protestants-referring, among other things, to the Louisville efection riots, and representing that numbers of faithful catholics were there shot down in the streets, because they adhered to the religion of Jesus! The Bishop is good at telling his side of the story, and this is a fair specimen of his pacific and charitable admonitions to his flock.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS .- Special attention is directed to the new advertisements in to-day's Journal. The administrators of J. Pearce, dec'd, offer for sale a piece of land in Chest township. A blacksmith is wanted at Grahamton. Jas. M. Kelly cautions the public frightening them, amounts to saught. against purchasing or meddling with a certain span of horses. E. S. Bundy, Esq., publishes an auditor's notice. Jno. Russell, trustee, offers for sale several tracts of land, late the estate of James Moore, dee'd.

A. HUNTINGTON.
The above speaks for itself. Good proof as it is it is of no better tenor than the vast number of like certificates I have already published, and the still greater amount that is continually pouring in to me One thing more. Last year I had occasion to eaution the public in these words :- I notice one firm who have taken one of my general circulars, substituted the name of their nostrum for my medicine, and then with brazen impudence and their pamphlet with the exclamation. Let the proprietor of any other medicine say as much if he dares" We Now I take pleasure in saying that the caution referred to the same "Dr. Christie's Agne Balsam" that is mentioned in the above certificate. There are several other industrious people who are applying to their poisonous trash all that I publish about my Fever and Ague Cure, or Anti-dote to Malaria, except the certificates of cures and the certificate of the celebrated Chemist.
