HON. LAVID BARCLAY.

The Clearfield Republican, of last week, is down, "like a thousand of brick," on Hon. D. Barclay, the member of Congress from this district, for doing an act, than which there is not one in his whole official career more in accordance with the wishes of a majority of his constituents-namely, for moving a reconsideration of a vote which resulted in the House and unprincipied classes of both Europe and adopting the bill to admit Kansas under the Topeka or Free Constitution. The contortions of the Republican are as amusing, as its wailings are plaintive and vengeful in turn, and the Honorable gentleman had better look to and all its most illustrious privileges overhis own safety lest, under the scathing and withering fire of our neighbor, he sink into his political grave, "without benefit of clergy," or privilege of resurrection.

If we recollect aright, this is the same "Hon. D. Barelay," who, the Republican last winter said, was "made the object of the most intemperate and vindictive abuse by both the Know Nothing and Abolition organs of this district," "allogether without cause," and that it was "unfair and unmanly" to charge him with betraying the principles of those who it alleged abused him at that time. So long as he stuck to and carried out the views of such Locofocos as the editor of the Republican, he was regarded by the latter as all right-a good and Reeder, one of Pennsylvania's noblest sons, consistent man-a paragon of uprightness, and tyrannical Shannon, who is now at the head of a perfect political Israelite in whom there was the slave power in Kansas, with his horde of the Americans and Freesoilers, to whom he in a great measure owed his election, it made commander Summer would not burn the prono difference-he was doing service to the perty, and kill the people of Kansas with as Domocratic party, which was all-sufficient to | much haste as Pierce required, he was removexcuse him in the eyes of the immaculate edexcuse him in the eyes of the immaculate ed-iter, for the commission of a multitude of sins of a like nature. At a later date, however, Mr. Barclay manifested a disposition to waver in his subserviency to the Slavery Extensionists, and in about five weeks from the time when our down-town "neighbor" took him under his special protection, he placed himself, by interrogating Mr. Aiken regarding his views on Americanism, which the Republican alleged was the ERTY OF THE PRESS," to every citizen. But cause of Banks' election, in an "inexplicable position," which the editor "deeply regrets." But the latter, in the plenitude of his forbearance, was willing to wait and hear the explanation of Mr. Barclay, who, he said, "until within a few days of the end of the struggle, was among the most steadfast in resisting the schemes of the Republicans and Know Nothings, and then only gave signs of restiveness by favoring the plurality rule." "And who would not grow restive in a nine week's contest of this kind ?" asked the editor of the Republican, who was still willing to apologise for him, hoping, no doubt, by the practice of leniency to bring him back into the fold of the faithful. But, alas! for the uncertainty of human calculation ! those hopes have been frustrated-the Democracy, pure and undefiled, have at last been "betrayed"-Mr. Barclay has committed a grievous sin-the guillotine is erected, and his head is in imminent danger. For our part, we believe, so long as Mr. Barclay votes in favor of admitting Kansas with a free constitution, he will be acting in accordsace with the views of a large majority of his honest, competent, and great man, who has peller, and on board there was a safe belonging constituents, and the dictates of humanity and justice; but by doing so, he would undoubtedly arouse the irate feelings of the editor of the Republican, who would heap malediction after malediction upon his devoted head until, in the agony of his heart, Mr. Barclay will, like Cardinal Wolsey, be constrained to exclaim :

MR. EDITOR .- Our third charge against the chief Magistrate of our Republic is that of "official dishonesty," in removing competent and honorable men, and promoting armed ruffians to office.

This charge no American, that knows any thing about the Pierce administration will deny, for with few exceptions, all the appointments from the Cabinet, down to a post-masters clerk, are selected from the masses of the foreign population, and from the pro-slavery, incendiary border-ruflian class of inhabitants, so much so, that the present Administration has become noted both in Europe and America, for its hostility to almost every form of Protestant virtue, and the Ministers of the Gospel of all anti-Roman Catholic denominations, are everywhere condemned, and from the Executive to the lowest Administration paper, are forbid to either speak or write against the burning wrongs of the Pierce dynasty, under the pains and penalties of the most tyrannical rebuke, and withering censure. of the people expect, when the nine-tenths of selves, and that they will give up the fortress Indeed until he was fourteen, Col. And to complete his reign of terrer Pierce has not only removed good men, from the smaller offices of the Territorial government, and put bad men in their places, but he has even took from the Governor's chair, (for

LATER FROM KANSAS. Meeting of the Free State Legislature .- Disper-

sion of the Legislature by Col. Sumner. St. Louis, July 9 .- We have advices from Topeka to the 4th inst. A Convention met there on the 2nd, and passed resolutions in favor of the Republican nominations, and denunciatory of the Democrats, and appealing There were about 800 present, all armed .--Marshall Donaldson and Judge Elmore read the President's February proclamation, also, Gov. Shannon's proclamation, and one issued by Mr. Woodson, Secretary of the Territory, together mith a note from Col. Sumner, saying he would prevent the meeting of the Legislature. They were, however, unheeded.

Both branches of the Legislature met on the 4th. The same day Col. Sumner entered the town with 200 dragoons, and planted two cannons at the head of Kansas avenue. While the troops were drawn up before Constitutional Hall, where the Legislature was assembled. Col. Summer told the citizens he would not disarm them or break up the Convention ; but he had orders to dissolve the Legislature, and should do so.

Col. Sumner repaired to the Hall or Representatives, and said : "I am called upon to perform the most painful duty of my life, under the authority of the President of the United States. I am here to dissolve the Legislature. In accordance with my orders, I command you to disperse. God knows I have no party feelings in the matter, and I will have none, while I hold my present position in Kansas. I have just returned from the border, where I have been sending home the Missourians ; and I am now here with instructions to disperse the Legislature. I again command you to disperse." Judge Schuyler asked if they were to understand that they were to be driven out at the point of the bayonet. Col. Summer replied : "I will use the whole force under my command to enforce my orders." The House then dispersed. A similar scene was exacted in the Senate Chamber, ending in the dispersion of that body.

The Convention are preparing resolutions, endorsing the State Government and the Topeka Constitution. The fears of invasion kept large numbers from attending.

In addition to the Pennsylvania papers before noted as supporting Fremont, we have now the names of all the opposition papers in
