TONICS WON'T DO!—They never did do more than give temporary relief and they never will. It is because they don't touch the CAUSE of the disease. The CAUSE of allague and bilious diseases is the atmospheric poison called Miasm or Malaria. Neutralize this poison by your NATURAL ANTIDOTE, and all diseases caused by it disappear at once. Rhodes' Fever and Ague Cure is this Antidote to Malaria, and moreover it is perfectly harmless medicine. The certificate of the celebrated chemist, J. R. Chilton, of New York, to this effect, is attached to every bottle, therefore if it does not good it can do no harm. This is more than can be said of Quinine, Arsenic, or any tonic in existence, as their use is ruinous to the constitution and brings on DUMB AGUE, which never allows a person to feel perfectly well for a single moment. Illustration of these truths I annex some extracts from a letter just received from a Physician. GEORGETOWN, OHIO, March 17, 1856. JAS. A. RHODES, Esq.—Dear Sir: Yours of 2d inst. is at hand. The Cure arrived late last year, it was greatly increased from the fact that the medicine had been introduced which was growing in favor with the public, as being better than using Quinine, not knowing, I presume the remedy they used to escape the fact of the disease, and the drug itself. The remedy (known as "Smith's Tonic") would invariably break an ague, but it did not cure it, as it would return with renewed vigor. This one circumstance I deemed in your favor, if I could institute a comparison between it and your cure. The following is the result: Three persons took your "cure," all of which were cases of "Quotidian Intermittent Fever," of many weeks standing. They had used Quinine, Cassia, and other remedies, occasionally missing a chill, but it was (as in all such cases) slowly wearing them out, and laying the foundation of other and severer maladies. I did not hesitate in ordering the "cure" in all three cases with your remedy, after "Smith's Tonic" had failed. I think there will be no difficulty now in giving your "Cure" the vantage ground of any other remedy, now in use here, &c. Rhodes' Fever and Ague Cure, or Antidote to Malaria, the only harmless remedy in existence, is equally certain as a preventive, as a "cure." Take it when you feel the chill coming on, and you will never have a single one. JAS. A. RHODES, Proprietor, Providence, R. I. For sale by Druggists generally. apr23-2m

FOR SALE.—The subscriber offers for sale his farm, containing about 62 acres, with about 25 acres cleared and under good cultivation, having thereon erected one 2-story house and barn, situated one and a half miles above Clearfield town, opposite the new bridge. For terms apply to the subscriber on the premises. MILO HOYT, May 14-1f

NOTICE.—The undersigned deems it his duty to give notice to the public that in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the General Assembly, passed the 20th day of April, A. D. 1856, that it was a misdemeanor to pass, exchange, put in circulation, transfer or cause to be issued, paid out, passed, exchanged, circulated or transferred, any bank note, note, bill, certificate, or any acknowledgment of indebtedness whatsoever, purporting to be a bank note, or of the nature, character or appearance of a bank note, or circulated for circulation as a bank note, issued or purporting to be issued by any bank or incorporated company or association of persons not located in Pennsylvania, of less denomination than five dollars. That every person who shall violate the 98. section of the aforesaid act, shall be taken and deemed to be in contempt of court, and upon conviction thereof in any criminal court, in this Commonwealth, be fined in any sum not less than one dollar, and not more than one hundred dollars. The public will therefore take notice, that the Constables of the several townships in this county, will hereafter be required (according to the aforesaid Act of Assembly,) to make return of all persons guilty of such violation, and they shall be sworn to do so, from and after the August court. THOMAS J. McCULLOUGH, District Attorney, July 23, 1856.
