July 15, 1854. RESOLUTION, PROPOSING AMEND-MENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION

OF THE COMMONWEALTH. Resolved, by the Senate and House of Represen-tatives of the Common wealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendments are proposed to the Constitution of the Commonwealth, in accordance with the provisions of stitution to be designated as article eleven, as follows :--ARTICLE XI.

meet expenses not otherwise provided for ; but the aggregate amount of such debts, direct and contingent, whether contracted by virtue of one or more acts of the general assembly, or at different periods of time, shall never exceed seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and the money arising from the creation of such debts, shall be applied to the purpose for which it was obtained, or to repay the debts so contracted, and to no other purpos whatever. SECTION 2. In addition to the above limited ower the state may contract debts to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, defend the state in war, or to redeem the present outstanding indebtedness of the state; but the money arising from the contracting of such debis, shall be applied to the purcase for which it was raised, or to repay such debts, and to no other purpose whatever. SECTION 3. Except the debts above specified, in sections one and two of this article, no debt whatever shall be created by, or on behalf of the state. SECTION 4. To provide for the payment of the present debt, and any additional debt contracted as aforesaid, the legislature shall, at its first session, after the adoption of this amendment, create a sinking fund, which shall be sufficient to pay the according interest on such debt, and annually to reduce the principal thereof by a sum not less than two hundred and fifty thousand dollars which sinking fund shall consist of the net annual income of the public works, from time to time owned by the state, or the proceeds of the sale of the same, or any part thereof, and of the income or proceeds of sale of stocks owned by the state. ogether with other funds, or resources. that may be designated by law. The said sinking fund may be increased, from time to time, by assigning to it any part of the taxes, or other revenues of the state, not required for the ordinary and current expenses of government, and unless in case of war. nvasion or insurrection, no part of the said sinking fund shall be u ed or applied otherwise than in extinguishmont of the public debt, until the a-mount of such debt is reduced below the sum of five millions of dollars. SECTION 5. The credit of the commonwealth shall not in any manner, or event, be pledged, or loaned to, any individual, company, corporation, or asso-ciation ; nor shall the commonwealth hereafter be-borough, or township; or of any corporation, or association ; unless such debt shall have been con- tive. tracted to enable the state to repel invasion, sup-
