UNION ELECTORAL TICKET.

Ticket in Pennsylvania, has been received with much favor, wherever made known :-

Pennsylvania is entitled to 27 electors. Let a Union Convention be called. Let the friends of Fillmore and Donelson, and of Fremont and Dayton, meet together, and agree upon 26 common electors to be placed on each ticket. Let the Fillmore and Donelson ticket be completed by adding to the 26 common electors a 27th in favor of Fillmore and Donelson. Let the Fremont and Dayton ticket be completed by adding a 27th in favor of Fremont and Dayton. In this way the Opposition would be united as to 26 electors, and would certainly elect those 26. Each ticket would show the preference of every voter. It would indicate the number for Fillmore and the number for tration will be held near the residence of C. Fremont. Every Fillmore ticket counted according to this plan must have the 26 common electors upon it, as well as the Fillmore electer. And so must every ticket counted for eral speakers will be in attendance to address Fremont have the 26 common electors upon it, as well as the Fremont elector. Otherwise, the friends of Buchanan might interfere with DELEGATE CONVENTION. - A Mass the result by voting for one of the 27th elec-Convention of those opposed to the Pierce tors, in combination with 26 Buchanan elecand Buchanan Democracy having been called tors. Let the 26 common electors be pledged to meet in Clearfied on Tuesday of August | to divide their electoral votes between the different Opposition candidates above named in gate Convention for forming a County Ticket | proportion to the strength of each in the Opposition ranks, as indicated by the result at

This plan avoids objections which apply to nearly every other, and combines advantages possessed by no other. Among those advan-

1. It does not leave the voter in uncertainty August, and each select three delegates to meet | as to the result of his vote. Every Fillmore vote would count for Fillmore, and every Fre-19TH DAY OF AUGUST, AT 2 O'CLOCK, P. M. mont vote for Fremont. So far as Fillmore votes are polled will Fillmore electors be electransact such other business as will be brought ted, and so far as Fremont votes are polled will Fremont electors be elected.

2. It would involve no sacrifice of principle or feeling. It would not be a yielding up of either Fillmore or Fremont, but it would be giving to each as many electoral votes as his strength entitles him to receive. 3. The zeal of the respective friends of Fillmore and Fremont for their favorite candidate would not, under such an arrangement, be an element of weakness to distract the opposition ranks, and thus increase Buchanan's chance of success, but rather an element of strength, the more certainly insuring his defeat.

4. It is an arrangement so just to all, that none can object to it except those who wish to give the State to Buchanan.

STILL THEY COME !- The Norristown Herald, the senior editor of which is a Whig and the junior an American, the Delaware Co. Republican, an old line Whig paper, the Lehigh Valley Times, recently a Stockton paper, the Erie True American, the Meadville Spirit of the Age, and the York Advocate, all in this State, have within the last two weeks run up the Fremont and Dayton flag.

July 15, 1854. RESOLUTION, PROPOSING AMEND-OF THE COMMONWEALTH.

Resolved, by the Senate and House of Represen-tatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendments are proposed to the Constitution of the Com-monwealth, in accordance with the provisions of the tenth article thereof.

There shall be an additional article to said constitution to be designated as article eleven, as fol-ARTICLE XI.

OF PUBLIC DEBTS. Section 1. The state may contract debts, to supply casual deficits or failures in revenues, or to meet expenses not otherwise provided for; but the aggregate amount of such debts, direct and contingent, whether contracted by virtue of one or more acts of the general assembly, or at different periods of time, shall never exceed seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and the money arising from the creation of such debts, shall be applied to the purpose for which it was obtained, or to repay the debts so contracted, and to no other purpos whatever.

Section 2. In addition to the above limited wer the state may contract debts to repel invaon, suppress insurrection, defend the state in war, or to redeem the present outstanding indebtedness of the state; but the money arising from the con-tracting of such debts, shall be applied to the purpose for which it was raised, or to repay such debts, and to no other purpose whatever. Secricx 3. Except the debts above specified, in ections one and two of this article, no debt whatever shall be created by, or on behalf of the state.

SECTION 4. To provide for the payment of the present debt, and any additional debt contracted as aforesaid, the legislature shall, at its first session, after the adoption of this amendment, create a sinking fund, which shall be sufficient to pay the accruing interest on such debt, and annually to reduce the principal thereof by a sum not less than two hundred and fifty thousand dollars which sinking fund shall consist of the net annual income of the public works, from time to time owned by the state, or the proceeds of the sale of the same, or any part thereof, and of the income or proceeds of sale of stocks owned by the state, together with other funds, or resources. that may e designated by law. The said sinking fund may be increased, from time to time by assigning to it any part of the taxes, or other revenues of the state, not required for the ordinary and current expenses of government, and unless in case of war, invasion or insurrection, no part of the said sinking fund shall be u ed or applied otherwise than extinguishment of the public debt, until the amount of such debt is reduced below the sum of five millions of dollars.

Section 5. The credit of the commonwealth shall not in any manner, or event, be pledged, or loaned to, any individual, company, corporation, or asso-ciation; nor shall the commonwealth hereafter become a joint owner, or stockholder, in any company, association, or corporation.

Secretor 6. The commonwealth shall not assume the debt, or any part thereof, of any county, city, borough, or township; or of any corporation, or association; unless such debt shall have been contracted to enable the state to repel invasion, suppress domestic insurrection, defend itself in time of war, or to assist the state in the discharge of any portion of its present indebtedness.

Secretor 7. The legislature shall not authorize any county, city, borough, township, or incorporated district, by virtue of a vote of its citizens, or otherwise, to become a stockholder in any company, association, or corporation; or to obtain money for, or loan its credit to, any corporation, association, institution, or party.

SECOND AMENDMENT. There shall be an additional article to said constitution, to be designated as article XII, as follows: ARTICLE XIL

OF NEW COUNTIES No county shall be divided by a line cutting off over one-tenth of its population, either to form a new county or otherwise.) without the express assent of such county, by a vote of the electors thereof; nor shall any new county be established, con-taining less than four hundred square miles.

THIRD AMEADMENT. From section two of the first article of the contitution, strike out the words, "of the city of Phitadelphia, and of each county respectively;" from section five, same article, strike out the words, "of Philadelphia and of the several counties;" from section seven, same article, strike out the words, "neither the city of Philadelphia nor any," and insert in Heu thereof the words. 'and no;" and strike out section four, same article, and in lieu thereof insert the following: Section 4. In the year one thousand eight hun dred and sixty-four, and in every seventh year thereafter, representatives to the number of one hundred, shall be apportioned and distributed equally, throughout the state, by districts, in pro-portion to the number of taxable inhabitants in the several parts thereof; except that any county containing at least three thousand five hundred taxables, may be allowed a separate representation; but no more than three counties joined, and no county shall be divided, in the formation of a district. Any city containing a sufficient number of taxables to entitle it to at least two representatives, shall have a separate representation assigned it, and shall be divided into convenient districts of contiguous territory, of equal taxable population as near as may be, each which districts shall elect one representative. At the end of section seven, same article, insert these words, "the city of Philadelphia shall be divided into single senatorial districts, of contigu-ous territory as nearly equal in taxable population but no ward shall be divided in the rmation thereof." The legislature, at its first session, after the adoption of this amendment. shall divide the city of Philadelphia into senatorial and representative districts, in the manner above provided; such disremain unchanged until the apportionment in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four. POURTH AMENDMENT. To be section XXVI, Article 1. The legislature stall have the power to alter, revoke, or annul, any charter of incorporation hereafter conferred by, or under, any special, or general law, whenever in their opinion it may be injurious to the citizens of the commonwealth; in such manner, however, that no injustice shall be done to the corporators.

IN SENATE, April 21, 1856 Resolved, That this resolution pass. On the first amendment, yeas 24, nays 5. On the second amendment, yeas 19, nays 6. On the third amend ment, yeas 28, nays 1. On the fourth amendment,
