Though their efforts have chanan; in a great measure failed, the fact cannot be disguised that in a few localities they have succeeded in stirring up a wrong feeling. The "the Union." means which they are using, are certainly calculated to sustain the well-earned reputation of the Locofocos for being adepts in political chicanery and trickery. When they thought that Fillmore was the man against whom they had to contend, their blows were all aimed at him -they stigmatized him as the "dark-lantern" candidate, the nominee of the "midnight catal. lers,39 &c. But finding, after Fremont was "tility. It California be trammeled with a nominated, that this mode of warfare was calculated to unite the Opposition forces on the latter, they found themselves necessitated to change their assault, and aim their shafts at Fremont instead of Fillmore. There were "Union." some obstacles in the way, but the cunning of the Locofoco wireworkers did not fail in devising a plan by which they might be overcome, and the idea of creating a schism in the Opposition ranks, by fostering an irreconcilable third party movement, evidently suggested itself as being the most practicable. For the purpose of accomplishing this end, we have "tion of the Union." reason to believe the political jugglers of the

WHO ARE THE DISUNIONISTS! -

The cry of "Abolitionists" and "Disunionists" is at present raised against the support-South go hand in hand against Fremont, and then admitted :or Buchanan.

Wendell Philips, the head and front of Abolitionism, in an oration on the 4th of July, in which the character, chances and principles of the several Presidential candidates were reviewed, came to the conclusion that it will best suit the object of his party to have the Democrats succeed. He says he infinitely prefers the election of Buchanan to that of Fremont, "because if would most certainly lead to a Dissolution of the Union !" Wendell ought to know.

The New York Anti-Slavery Standard, the organ of the Garrisonian Abolitionists, and a warm advocate of the dissolution of the Union, takes strong ground against the Republican party. It gives, in its leading article a week ago, an extract of a letter from a relear sighted Abolitionist in Massachusetts," who says that the success of the Republicans "will in its benumbing and satisfying influence retard the movements of the slave's redemption.". So Parker Pillsbury, a prominent Disunionist, in a speech at Framingham on the 4th of July, declared his preference for the election of Buchanan, "because it would tend to promote and influence the Anti-Slavery agitation, while that of Fremont would tend to a cessation of it."

Thus it will be seen that the Garrisonian Abolitionist, such as Wendell Phillips and that stripe of Disunion wishers, prefer the election of Buchanan to Fremont, because they see in it a more certain cause that will rupture the Union.

When we turn to the South, we find that the disunionists support Buchanan with one accord. The Charleston Mercury, a prominent supporter of Buchanan, alluding to the Sumner affair, and the unanimity with which it has been applieded at the South and condemned at the North, says :

"We rejoice at any event which makes common cause at the South, and foreshadows ther destiny as a seperate and independent large majority against the party which supports Buchanan and upholds the policy of the esent National Administration. Nothing is needed but Union and united action on the part of those who oppose it to insure success. Being united on the State ticket, our success as to it becomes morally certain. Our success in the State as to the Presidency becomes equally certain by united action. It is ascertained that such united action can be attained by a Union Electoral ticket, which will give to both Mr. Fillmore and Mr. Fremont electoral votes in proportion to their strength. We firmly believe that such a union will be formed and that the State will be carried against Buchanan. But to secure this we should all lend our efforts to promote harmony of feeling, and concert of action. Those who oppose this are in reality working for Buchanan, whether they mean it or not. It is now the object of our opponents to foster division among us, and the better to accomplish their purpose they enlist when they can politicians n our our own ranks to carry out their plans. Some who are hopest in their convictions may be ensuared by such devices without fully comprehending the scheme. It must, however, be evident to every thoughtful mind that to create hostility between us is to aid Buchanan, and that whoever seeks to do it is workng against us, and not for us.

We therefore recommend to all who are opposed to the party supporting James Buchanan, without regarding their preference as to Fillmore or Fremont to form Union Clubs, in every township and Borough, agreeing upon the following principles: 1st To oppose the Election of James Bu-
