Some of the newspapers have started the report and it has been industriously circulated, with a view to injure the peoples candidate for the Presidency, that he is a catholic. "A lie will travel ten leagues, while truth is putting on her boots;" but the annexed statement, made by Mr. Nelson, a gentleman who was raised and educated with Fremont, will fully arrest this falsehood. It was published in the New York Times of the 21st of July last, and is as follows :-

"In the Morning Express of Saturday, Mr. Brooks asserts that Col. Fremont received his education in a Roman Catholic Institute, in Charleston, S. C., under the late Bishop England. Although opposed to the party which nominated him-in justice to himself and the memory of his mother-I brand those assertions as utterly false from beginning to end. Born in Charleston, I have known him from my earliest days. He was my schoolmate for many years. I was a member of the same Sunday School class with him; and while he was a member of the Junior Class, of Charleston College, he was my most intimate friend. I was standing within a few feet of him when he was confirmed in the Protestant Episcopal Church by the Bishop of South Carolina. I can youch that he never had his foot inside of the Catholic Institute spoken of; and I am sure he never spoke to Bishop England in his life. He was born a Protestant, educated a Protestant, and has more of a Protestant principle about him than the editor of the Express.

Respectfully yours, J. G. NELSON." If anything was needed to convince any one that Col. Fremont is a Protestant, the following must be conclusive :-

New York, Thursday, July 16, 1856. To the Editor of the Evening Post : DEAR SIR-An undue importance seems to be attached to Mr. Fremont's religious position by some portion of our fellow citizens. and as there are a few persons whose minds are exercised, permit me to say that some time since, receiving letters from Ohio, saying that it was being industriously circulated that Mr. Fremont was a Catholic, I went to him and asked him the question : "Are you a Roman Catholic?" He replied, "I AM NOT; I was bred in the Protestant Episcopal Church, where I still belong. My children have been bap-as a good wife should." Respectfully yours, C. W. Elliott, No. 136 East Eighteenth St.

The Boston Pilot, the Catholic organ of the United States, of the 5th July, says:-"In reply to many inquiries, we would state that Fremont is not a Catholic." The Pitot contained the original charge that Fremout was a Catholic.

IMPORTANT TO HOUSEKEEPERS AND FRUIT GROWERS, --- ARTHUR'S PATent Air-Tight Self-Sealing Cans and Jars, for Preserving Fresh Fruits, &c.—This invention for which a patent has been obtained, commends it-self to the attention of Housekeepers and others. en account of its great simplicity, and the effecturable and useful object

The cans and jars are constructed with a chan-nel around the mouth, near the top, into which the cover fifs loosely. This channel is filled with a very adhesive cement, prepared for the purpose and allowed to harden. In order to seal the vessel hermetically, it is only necessary to heat the cover slightly, and press it into place. It may be opened with as much case as it is closed, by slightly warming the top. The ordinary tin cans, used for the same purpose for which this is intended, cannot be closed, as is well known without the aid of a tinner; are difficult to open, and are generally so much injured in opening as to be useless for

By this simple contrivance, the process of her metical scaling is placed conveniently within the reach of every individual; and fruit, vegetables and butter (if properly prepared) may be kept, with their natural flavor unimpaired, for an in definite length of time. For sale by

RESOLUTION, PROPOSING AMEND-OF THE COMMONWEALTH.

Resolved, by the Senate and House of Represen-tatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendments are proposed to the Constitution of the Commonwealth, in accordance with the provisions of the tenth article thereof.

There shall be an additional article to said cor titution to be designated as article eleven, as fol-

ARTICLE XI. OF PUBLIC DEBTS. Section 1. The state may contract debts, to supply casual deficits or failures in revenues, or to meet expenses not otherwise provided for; but the aggregate amount of such debts, direct and contingent, whether contracted by virtue of one or more acts of the general assembly, or at different periods of time, shall never exceed seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and the money arising from the creation of such debts, shall be applied to the purpose for which it was obtained, or to repay the debts so contracted, and to no other purpose

Section 2. In addition to the above limited power the state may contract debts to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, defend the state in war, or to redeem the present outstanding indebtedness of the state; but the money arising from the con-tracting of such debts shall be applied to the purose for which it was raised, or to repay such lebts, and to no other purpose whatever. Section 3. Except the debts above specified, in sections one and two of this article, no debt whatever shall be created by, or on behalf of the state Section 4. To provide for the payment of the present debt, and any additional debt contracted as aforesaid, the legislature shall, at its first sesion, after the adoption of this amendment, create a sinking fund, which shall be sufficient to pay the accraing interest on such debt, and annually to reduce the principal thereof by a sum not less than two hundred and fifty thousand dollars; which sinking fund shall consist of the net annual income of the public works, from time to time owned by the state, or the proceeds of the sale of the same, or any part thereof, and of the income or proceeds of sale of stocks owned by the state, together with other funds, or resources, that may be designated by law. The said sinking fund may be increased, from time to time, by assigning to it any part of the taxes, or other revenues of the state, not required for the ordinary and current expenses of government, and unless in case of war, invasion or insurrection, no part of the said sink-ing fund shall be u ed or applied otherwise than in extinguishment of the public debt, until the amount of such debt is reduced below the sum of five millions of dollars. Section 5. The credit of the commonwealth shall not in any manner, or event, be pledged, or loaned to, any individual, company, corporation, or asso-ciation; nor shall the commonwealth hereafter be-come a joint owner, or stockholder, in any company, association, or corporation.

Section 6. The commonwealth shall not assume the debt, or any part thereof, of any county, city. borough, or township; or of any corporation, or association; unless such debt shall have been contracted to enable the state to repel invasion, suppress domestic insurrection, defend itself in time of war, or to assist the state in the discharge of any portion of its present indebtedness.

Section 7. The legislature shall not authorize any county, city, boreugh, township, or incorpora-ted district, by virtue of a vote of its citizens, or otherwise, to become a stockholder in any compaassociation, or corporation; or to obtain money or loan its credit tion, institution, or party.

SECOND AMENDMENT. There shall be an additional article to said constitution, to be designated as article XII, as follows: OF NEW COUNTIES.

No county shall be divided by a line cutting off over one-tenth of its population, either to form a new county or otherwise.) without the express assent of such county, by a vote of the electors thereof; nor shall any new county be established, containing less than four hundred square miles.

THIRD AMEADMENT. From section two of the first article of the contitution, strike out the words, "of the city of Phi adelphia, and of each county respectively; from section five, same article, strike out the words, "o Philadelphia and of the several counties; from section seven, same article, strike out the words. "neither the city of Philadelphia nor any," and insert in lieu thereof the words, 'and no;" and strike out section four, same article, and in lieu thoreof insert the following:

Section 4. In the year one thousand eight hun dred and sixty-four, and in every seventh year thereafter, representatives to the number of one hundred, shall be apportioned and distributed equally, throughout the state, by districts, in pro-portion to the number of taxable inhabitants in the several parts thereof; except that any county containing at least three thousand five hundred taxables, may be allowed a separate representation; but no more than three counties shall be joined, and no county shall be divided, in the formation of a district. Any city containing a suffi-cient number of taxables to entitle it to at least two representatives, shall have a separate representation assigned it, and shall be divided into convenient districts of contiguous territory, of equal taxable population as near as may be, each of which districts shall elect one representative."

At the end of section seven, same article, insert these words "the city of Physical Phys these words, "the city of Philadelphia shall be di-wided into single senatorial districts, of contigu-

ons territory as nearly equal in taxable population is possible; but no ward shall be divided in the formation thereof." The legislature, at its first session, after the a loption of this amendment, shall divide the city of Philadelphia into senatorial and representative districts, in the manner above provided; such distriets to remain unchanged until the apportionment in the year one thousand eight hundred and

FOURTH AMENDMENT.

To be section XXVI, Article 1. The legislature shall have the power to alter, revoke, or annul, any charter of incorporation hereafter conferred by, or under, any special, or general law, whenever in their opinion it may be injurious to the citizens of the commonwealth; in such manner, however, that no injustice shall be done to the corporators.

IN SENATE, April 21, 1856 Resolved. That this resolution pass. On the first amendment, yeas 24, nays 5. On the second amendment, yeas 19, nays 6. On the third amend ment, yeas 28, nays 1. On the fourth amendment,
