THE RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL,

LATEST FROM KANSAS.

Sr. Louis, Sept.20 .- The steamer Polar Star, from Kansas the 15th inst., reports that Capt. Robinson, with a company of 52 pro-slavery men, attacked a free State force at Grasshopper Falls on the 13th, killing two of their men and capturing their provisions, ammunition and horses. The next day Col. Harvey, with 200 Freesoilers, attacked Robinson's force, who had fortified themselves in a log house at Hickory Point. After fighting two hours and losing 12 men and having several wounded, Col. Harvey proposed an armistice of 30 days, which was accepted. Capt. Robinson lost 3 men killed and had many wounded. Leavenworth was deserted. Governor Geary was at Lecompton.

The Mayor of Wheeling, Va., Alfred Caldwell, Esq., in a proclamation in the Wheeling Times, warns the mobocrifts against disturbing the Republican meetings, and calls on good citizens to aid the sity authorities in quelling disturbances and punishing offenders. A FACT .- The Newport (Ky.) Daily News says : "Since the result in Maine we have no-A pole will be raised on the occasion, and a flag ticed a falling off in the disunion articles and speeches at the South. The cry of "wolf" has had so little effect thus far that they now feel inclined to abandon it. It will avail them very little. There are but few who imagine how strong the Union really is. Those who talk the loudest now of dissolution will be the first to get into the traces after the election."

ANOTHER NEW PAPER,-The first number of Porter's Spirit of the Times," a new sporting paper has been received. It is edited by WM. T. PORTER, whose name is "as familiar as household words" to every gentleman in the Union, who delights in field sports, and manly exercises. The new paper is got up in the best style of the art, and will commend itself to the readers of the old "Spirit," as a friend with whom they have spent many interesting hours. The list of contributors embrace some of the best writers in the country. As a literary journal, the number before us gives evidence that there is much talent employed upon its pages. Its editor has been in the harness for twenty-six years, and is entirely acquainted with the wants of those for whom he caters. Terms, $3 per annum. Address-William T. Porter, New York.

RESOLUTION, PROPOSING AMEND-MENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE COMMONWEALTH. Resolved, by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met. That the following amendments are proposed to the Constitution of the Commonwealth, in accordance with the provisions of the tenth article thereof. FIRST AMENDMENT.

There shall be an additional article to said constitution to be designated as article eleven, as follows :---ARTICLE XI.

OF PUBLIC DEBTS. SECTION 1. The state may contract debts, to sup-ply casual deficits or failures in revenues, or to meet expenses not otherwise provided for; but the aggregate amount of such debts, direct and contingent, whether contracted by virtue of one or more acts of the general assembly, or at different periods of time, shall never exceed seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and the money arising from the creation of such debts, shall be applied to the purpose for which it was obtained, or to repay the debts so contracted, and to no other purpose whatever. SECTION 2. In addition to the above limited power the state may contract debts to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, defend the state in war, or to redeem the present outstanding indebtedness of the state; but the money arising from the con-tracting of such debts, shall be applied to the purpose for which it was raised, or to repay such debts; and to no other purpose whatever. Section 3. Except the debts above specified, in sections one and two of this article, no debt whatever shall be created by, or on behalf of the state. SECTION 4. To provide for the payment of the present debt, and any additional debt contracted as aforesaid, the legislature shall, at its first ses-sion, after the adoption of this amendment, create a sing for d shide that he mendment. a sinking fund, which shall be sufficient to pay the accruing interest on such debt, and annually to reduce the principal thereof by a sum not less than two hundred and fifty thousand dollars ; which sinking fund shall consist of the net annual income of the public works, from time to time owned by the state, or the proceeds of the sale of the same, or any part thereof, and of the income or proceeds of sale of stocks owned by the state, together with other funds, or resources, that may be designated by law. The said sinking fund may be increased, from time to time, by assigning to it any part of the taxes, or other revenues of the state, not required for the ordinary and current expenses of government, and unless in case of war, invasion or insurrection, no part of the said sinking fund shall be u ed or applied otherwise than in extinguishmont of the public debt, until the a-mount of such debt is reduced below the sum of SECTION 5. The credit of the commonwealth shall not in any manner, or event, be pledged, or loaned to, any individual, company, corporation, or asso-ciation; nor shall the commonwealth hereafter become a joint owner, or stockholder, in any company, association, or corporation.

five millions of dollars.

SECTION 6. The commonwealth shall not assume the debt, or any part thereof, of any county, city, borough, or township; or of any corporation, or association ; unless such debt shall have been contracted to enable the state to repel invasion, suppress domestic insurrection, defend itself in time of war, or to assist the state in the discharge of any portion of its present indebtedness. Section 7. The legislature shall not authorize any county, eity, borough, township, or incorpora-ted district, by virtue of a vote of its citizens, or otherwise, to become a stockholder in any company, association, or corporation ; or to obtain money for, or loan its credit to, any corporation, association, institution, or party,

SCARED-A portion of our citizens about 12 o'clock on Monday night, by an alarm of fire. Aroused from sleep, we harried to the place from whence the light proceeded, when we discovered that it was "Reed's old springhouse," on the river bank, which some one must intentionally have set on fire. It was apparent to every one present that we need a agent by this company, gives notice that he will insure Buildings of every description, Goods, &c., good fire-engine in this town. Who will take the lead towards getting one?

A CONVOCATION, purporting to be the National Whig Party, assembled at Baitimore on the 17th inst. It was but slimly attended, and is looked upon as a farce, when it is known that such men as John P. Sanderson, David P. Brown, Ex-Gov, Graham,&c., were the prominent movers. It would be a profanation of the name, to call this a Whig meeting. They adopted, as was to be expected, resolutions in favor of Fillmore, DISASTER AT SEA. - The steamerAsia brought intelligence of a collision between the American ship 'Ocean Home' and the 'Cherubim.' The former sank in 20 minutes, taking down seventy-seven passengers. The Cherubim was but slightly damaged. The second mate, steward and four seamen of the Ocean Home got into the long boat, but their fate is doubtful. The Captain with 20 passengers and the crew were landed at Plymouth.

SwirzenLAND .- An insurrection has taken place in the canton of Neufchatal. The Royalist or Prussian party seized possession of the Chateau and arrested the Counsellor of State. and hoisted the Prussian flag. The Federals subsequently recaptured the Chateau and town, favored with, and the many thankful acknowledgand arrested Count Pourtalist, the Insurgent leader. In the conflict, twelve Prussians were killed.

SPAIN .- The Cholera has disappeared from Madrid, and but few cases are reported in oths er parts of the country. The Cortes has been dissolved by a royal decree, which was well received by the people. Six of the Madrid newspapers have been seized by order of the Government. Ministers have been appointed by the Government to China, Costa Rica and Equador, but a new Minister to Mexico is not to be appointed. It is reported that the Ministers to Washington and Berlin are to be resalled.

THE "LANES."-The Chicago Tribune, in answer to a puzzled inquirer, says : "There are three Lanes, and each of them very unlike either of the others. The first is Colonel James H. Lane, the leader of the Free State men in Kansas. The second is General Lane, Delegate in Congress from the territory of Oregon who was the friend' of Colonel Brooks in his affair with Burlingame. Both these were formerly Democrats. The third is Henry S. Lane of Indiana, an old Henry Clay Whig, and one of the ablest stump speakers in the West. It was he who presided over the Republican Con-... renfon of Philadelphia."

MPORTANT TO EVERY-BODY .- For the last three years, I have been engaged in a business known only to myself, and, comparatively few others, whom I have instructed for the sum of $200 each, which has averaged me at the rate of $3,000 to $5,000 per annum; and having made arrangements to go to Europe next Spring, to en-gage in the same business. I am willing to give full instructions in the art to any person in the United States or Canadas, who will remit me the sum of $1. I am induced, from the success I have been ments I have received from those whom I have instructed, and who are making from $5 to $15 per day at it, to give any person an opportunity to en-gage in this business, which is easy, pleasant, and very profitable, at a small cost. There is positive-ly no humbug in the matter. References of the best class can be given as regards its character, and will testify that they are making from $5 to $15 per day at the same. It is a business at which either ladies or gentlemen can engage, and with perfeet ease make a very handsome income. Several ladies in various parts of New York State, Pennsyl-vania, and Maryland, whom I have instructeb, are now making from $3 to $6 per day at it. It is a general business, and but a few shillings is required to start it. Upon receipt of $1, I will immediately send to the applicant a printed circular containing full instructions in the art, which can be perfectly understood at once.
