

IN CLEARFIELD BOROUGH. ON MONDAY, OCT. 20, 1856, (IN THE AFTERNOON.)

THE friends of Free Speech, Free Press and Free Kansas, who are opposed to the election of James Buchanan, will meet in MASS CON-VENTION, at the Court House in CLEAR-FIELD BOROUGH, on MONDAY the 20th day of OCTOBER, in the afternoon.

HON. CASSIUS M. CLAY. OF KENTUCKY.

will POSITIVELY be present to address the people on that occasion, as this meeting has been ap-pointed in accordance with Mr. Clay sown arrange-ments. Other speakers from a distance, whose names will be announced hereafter, are expected to be present to also discuss the great questions involved in the Presidential election. All are invited to attend. Come one, come all. Friends of Freedom, of the Constitution and the Union-all who are apposed to the election of James Buchanan, who is pledged to continue the baneful policy of the present imbecile National Administrationall who desire to restore peace to our country, to he Kansas a free State, and to aid in advancing the principles of Freedom, are urged to attend

UNION ELECTORAL TICKET.

We have received a circular, numerously signed. addressed to the voters of Pennsylvania opposed to James Buchanan, calling upon them to meet in their respective counties on Saturday the 11th of October, and select twice the number of delegates that each district is entitled to members of the Legislature, who are to meet in Convention at Harrisburg, on Thursday the 16th day of October, to form a Union Electoral Ticket, upon the plan which we published a short time since, in the event that the several State Committees of the opposition, which were to meet yesterday, at the State capital, did not agree upon a ticket. In accordance with this call, those opposed to the election of Buchanan are requested to meet in Clearfield bor-ough on Saturday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, to select delegates, if it is deemed necessary.

Gov. Geary, of Kansas, seems to hold out in his Inaugural some hopes of peace for unhappy Kansas; but he dashes to the ground, in one sentence, all the hopes that the general tenor of his address would seem to authorize. In spite of all his fair words, he is there simply to do the work of the moss-troopers who surround him. He says he deprecates a continuance of the strife and disorder in the Territory, caused by the illegal and unjustifiable interference of other States, promises jus-Legislature, until they are repealed. This is ment to just the turning point of the whole case .-Those "laws of the Territorial Legislature,"infamous, invalid and unconstitutional,-are the cause of the whole difficulty. So long as they are in force, it is utterly impossibe to effect their repeal. They disfranchise, by their test oaths, every man who wishes and would vote to repeal them. If repealed at all, it must be by the Legislature. Then the Legis lature is to be chosen in accordance with the provisions of these very laws:-and one of their requirements is that no man shall rote, or be eligible to office, who will not take an oath to sustain them. What a mockery is it, therefore, for Governor Geary to tell the people of Kansas that these laws must be obeyed until repealed!

Gov. Geary may seeme momentary peace to the territory by keeping out the Missouri ruffians until after the Presidential election; but any attempt to enforce the infamous territorial laws must end in the triumph of Border Ruffianism. They were made for the express purpose of forcing Slavery upon Kansas, and they so effectually disfranchise the free state men as to render their remal, under their own operation, impossible. The true purpose of Gov. Geary, evidently, is to keep things quiet for a few weeks, in order to prevent injury to | Fillmore's chances of success, are invited to attend. A letter from Pittsburg to the editor of the Elmira Advertiser says: "I think you can safely rely on Allegheny county giving Fremont 5,000 majority; Beaver, 1,000; Lawrence, 2,000; Washington, [which you know is generally very close,] 600; and Fayette and Greene will be very close, if not give a majority for Fremont. In Westmorland our that will attend. friends are working hard. In some parts of the county they are holding meetings every clock, P. M. day, and are sanguine of success. The West is sound for Fremont by a large majority, as we will demonstrate to your satisfaction on day the 10th. the 14th of October. The Fillmore men are doing but little in this section." ----

IMPORTANT TO EVERY-BODY .- For the last three years. I have been engaged in a business known only to myself, and, comparatively few others, whom I have instructed for the sum of $200 each, which has averaged me at the rate of $1,000 to $5,000 per annum; and having made arrangements to go to Europe next Spring, to engage in the same business. I am willing to give full instructions in the art to any person in the United States or Canadas, who will remit me the sum of $1. I am induced, from the success I have been favored with, and the many thankful acknowledg. ments I have received from those whom I have intrueted, and who are making from 85 to $15 per day at it, to give any person an opportunity to engage in this business, which is easy, pleasant, and very profitable, at a small cost. There is positive-ly no humbug in the matter. References of the est class can be given as regards its character, and I can refer to persons whom I have instructed who will testify that they are making from $5 to $15 per day at the same. It is a business at which either ladies or gentlemen can engage, and with perfect ease make a very handsome income. Several ladies in various parts of New York State. Pennsylvania, and Maryland, whom I have instructeb, are now making from $3 to $6 per day at it. It is a general business, and but a few shillings is requir-I to start it. Upon receipt of $1, I will immediately send to the applicant a printed circular con-taining full instructions in the art, which can be perfectly understood at once. RESOLUTION, PROPOSING AMEND-MENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE COMMONWEALTH.

Resolved, by the Senate and House of Represe atives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendments are proposed to the Constitution of the Commonwealth, in accordance with the provisions of the tenth article thereof.

There shall be an additional article to said constitution to be designated as article eleven, as fol-ABTICLE XI.

OF PUBLIC DEBTS. Section 1. The state may contract debts, to supply casual deficits or failures in revenues, or to et expenses not otherwise provided for; but the aggregate amount of such debts, direct and contingent, whether contracted by virtue of one or more acts of the general assembly, or at different periods of time, shall never exceed seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and the money arising from the creation of such debts, shall be applied to the purpose for which it was obtained, or to repny the debts so contracted, and to no other purpose whatever.

Section 2. In addition to the above limited power the state may contract debts to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, defend the state in war, or to redeem the present outstanding indebtedness or to redeem the present outstanding indeptedness of the state; but the money arising from the contracting of such debts, shall be applied to the purpose for which it was raised, or to repay such debts, and to no other purpose whatever.

Secriox 3. Except the debts above specified, in sections one and two of this article, no debt whatever shall be created by, or en behalf of the state.

Section 4. To provide for the payment of the present debt, and any additional debt contracted as aforesaid, the legislature shall, at its first session, after the adoption of this amendment, create a sinking fund, which shall be sufficient to pay the accruing interest on such debt, and annually to reduce the principal thereof by a sum not less than two hundred and fifty thousand dollars; which sinking fund shall consist of the net annual income of the public works, from time to time owned by the state, or the proceeds of the sale of the same, or any part thereof, and of the income or proceeds of sale of stocks owned by the state, together with other funds, or resources, that may be designated by law. The said sinking fund may be increased from time to time by assigning to it any part of the taxes, or other revenues of the state, not required for the ordinary and current expenses of government, and unless in case of war. invasion or insurrection, no part of the said sinking fund shall be u ed or applied otherwise than In extinguishment of the public debt, until the amount of such debt is reduced below the sum of five millions of dollars.

Section 5. The credit of the commonwealth shall not in any manner, or event, be pledged, or loaned to, any individual, company, corporation, or asso ciation; nor shall the commonwealth hereafter become a joint owner, or stockholder, in any company, association, or corporation.

Section 6. The commonwealth shall not assume the debt, or any part thereof, of any county, city, borough, or township; or of any corporation, or association; unless such debt shall have been contracted to enable the state to repel invasion, suppress domestic insurrection defend itself in time of war, or to assist the state in the discharge of any portion of its present indebtedness.
Secrios 7. The legislature shall not authorize for, or loan its credit to, any corporation, associa tion, institution, or party.

SECOND AMENDMENT. There shall be an additional article to said constitution, to be designated as article XII, as follows: ARTICLE XII.

OF NEW COUNTIES. No county shall be divided by a line cutting off over one-tenth of its population, (either to form a new county or otherwise,) without the express assent of such county, by a vote of the electors thereof; nor shall any new county be established, containing less than four hundred square miles.

THIRD AMEADMENT. From section two of the first article of the constitution, strike out the words, "of the city of Philadelphia, and of each county respectively; from section five, same article, strike out the words, Philadelphia and of the second countries." I ection seven, same article, strike out the words "neither the city of Philadelphia nor any," and insert in lieu thereof the words, and no;" and strike out section four, same article, and in lieu thereof insert the following : SECTION 4. In the year one thousand eight hun dred and sixty-four, and in every seventh year thereafter, representatives to the number of one hundred, shall be apportioned and distributed equally, throughout the state, by districts, in prortion to the number of taxable inhabitants in the several parts thereof; except that any county containing at least three thousand five hundred taxables, may be allowed a separate representation; but no more than three counties shall be joined, and no county shall be divided, in the formation of a district. Any city containing a sufficient number of taxables to entitle it to at least two representatives, shall have a separate representation assigned it, and shall be divided into onvenient districts of contiguous territory, of equal taxable population as near as may be, eac of which districts shall electione representative. At the end of section seven, same article, insert these words, "the city of Philadelphia shall be divided into single senatorial districts, of contiguous territory as nearly equal in taxable population as possible; but no ward shall be divided in the formation thereof?

The legislature, at its first session, after the adoption of this amendment, shall divide the city of Philadelphia into senatorial and representative districts, in the manner above provided; such dis-tricts to remain unchanged until the apportionment in the year one thousand eight hundred and

POURTH AMENDMENT.

To be section XXVI, Article 1. The legislature shall have the power to alter. revoke, or annul, any charter of incorporation hereafter conferred by, or under, any special, or general law, whenever in their opinion it may be injurious to the citizens of the commonwealth such manner, however, that no injustice shall be done to the corporators.
